
AFRIKAANS ESSAY ON MY BEST FRIEND

OPSTEL – MY BESTE VRIENDE

'n skouer om te huil, 'n oor om te buig, geld te leen, klere te leen, vrydagaand films, saamwees, ons privaat gesprekke, herstel ons harte, huil die trane, beplan ons toekoms, ons herinneringe saam, mag hulle nooit 'n einde, altyd saam vriende vir ewig.

Ek het baie vriende, maar daar is net twee wat my ware beste vriendinne is, Ashley en Deondre.

Ek dink Ashley my ware vriendin is want daar was 'n tyd wanneer ek haar nodig, 'n steunpilaar en sy was daar vir my. Sy luister altyd na my probleme en gee my raad. Ons is altyd daar vir mekaar deur dik en dun. Ashley is 'n baie vriendelik, hulpvol, gelukkig en pragtige sestionjarige meise. Sy is 'n baie goeie vriend vir my. Sy is soos my engel en kyk op vir my altyd.

Deondre is altyd 'n goeie vriendin. Sy is altyd sorgeloos, daar is altyd 'n glimlag op haar gesig. Sy is die 'joker' in ons groep. Sy altyd my opgehef wanneer ek af is. Deondre is 'n baie mooi-like, vriendelik, gawe, toegeneë sewentienjarige meisie. Sy maak altyd my dag, sy is die beste en ek is baie lief vir my prinses.

Ashley en Deondre is die meeste soetste en mooiste meisies in die wêreld. Hulle is 'n goeie invloed, 'my groot susters'.

Hierdie is my twee skoonheid vriende. Ek sal nie gelukkig sonder hulle wees nie. Hulle is my vriende vir lewe. Ons verhouding sal nooit gebreek word nie.

J. M. Coetzee and the Life of Writing David Attwell, 2015-09-29 An insightful literary biography of the Nobel Laureate J M Coetzee's illuminating the creation of his extraordinary novels J M Coetzee is one of the most renowned yet elusive authors of our time Now in J M Coetzee and the Life of Writing David Attwell explores the extraordinary creative process behind Coetzee's work from Dusklands to The Childhood of Jesus Drawing on Coetzee's manuscripts notebooks and research papers housed at the Harry Ransom Center at the University of Texas at Austin Attwell reveals the fascinating ways in which Coetzee's famous novels developed sometimes through more than fifteen drafts He convincingly shows that Coetzee's work is strongly autobiographical and that his writing proceeds with never ending self reflection while it moves toward aesthetic detachment Above all Attwell argues South Africa with its history language landscape and conflicts is much more present in his novels than we have realized Having worked closely with Coetzee on Doubling the Point a collection of essays and interviews Attwell is an engaging authoritative source J M Coetzee and The Life of Writing is the first book length study to make use of Coetzee's extensive archive A fresh engaging and moving take on one of the world's foremost literary figures it is bound to change the way Coetzee is read LIFE, 1943-05-24 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use House of horrors Susan Cilliers, 2020-03-01 House of Horrors is the shocking tale of a father who took everything from his family in the cruelest possible way but it is also a story of hope about a brave young woman who eventually finds happiness and healing This is the first time one of the children from the Springs house of horror tells their story EXCLUSIVELY The young woman has never discussed the events in the media the book is therefore an exclusive account of everything that transpired in the Springs house of horror The story made headlines in the South African media It is a shocking tale of a family that had to endure a father's torture techniques and other cruel acts Love and Courage Pregis Govender, 2007 This book offers a refreshing vision of true power both personal and political based on the love and courage within each of us Told with spirit and humor this book draws on the story of her life beginning with her childhood in Durban a life that has often involved insubordination to the powers that be Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God's Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways

Scenes from Provincial Life J. M. Photography and American Coloniality Raoul J. Granqvist, 2017-04-01 This book is the first to question both why and how the colonialist mythologies represented by the work of photographer Eliot Elisofon persist It documents and discusses a heterogeneous practice of American coloniality of power as it explores Elisofon's career as war photographer correspondent and staff photographer for LIFE filmmaker author artist and collector of primitive art and sculpture It focuses on three areas Elisofon's narcissism voyeurism and sexism his involvement in the homogenizing of Western social orders and colonial legacies and his enthused mission of sending home a mass of still life photographs annexed African artifacts and assumed vintage knowledge The book does not challenge his artistic merit or his fascinating personality what it does question is his production and imagining of difference As the text travels from World War II to colonialism postcolonialism and the Cold War from Casablanca to Leopoldville Kinshasa it proves to be a necessarily strenuous and provocative trip
