1. Summary

The story is about two people who love each other deeply and have to hide their feelings. Michael is Black and Dora is Coloured. The two lovers are eventually exposed when Dora's little brother, Bobby, learns that his sister is in a relationship with a native. This revelation leads to a feud between the lovers' families, which later results in Michael's attack. The irony in the story lies in the fact that Davie (Dora's brother) has had a relationship with Salome (Mike's sister) from which a child was conceived.

"Native is a term that was used during apartheid to refer to black people.

"Meneer means Mister (Mr) in Afrikaans.

2. Title

Forbidden love refers to a romantic relationship between two individuals which is not approved. The disapproval could be because of religious, cultural or political differences, among others. In this story, the title refers to a romantic relationship between Dora and Michael, which is highly discouraged by the 'coloured people' of Noordgesig.
