Afrikan Proverbs Embrace The Afrikan Culture:

African Proverbs Reveal Christianity in Culture W. Jay Moon, 2009-06-01 In many oral cultures local proverbs are highly regarded for their wisdom and prized for their aesthetic expression In this study Jay Moon provides an in depth look at the use of local proverbs among the Builsa culture of Ghana West Africa In particular the author s research shows how local proverbs can facilitate contextualized expressions of Christianity that are both biblically authentic and culturally relevant The process of initiating and sustaining this form of expression is explicated with the help of an engaging narrative providing valuable insights for those striving for genuine and meaningful expression of Christ in culture This study will be especially beneficial to the missionary community particularly for the purposes of appreciating oral literature in primary oral cultures finding proper roles in the contextualization process identifying cultural values via the window of local proverbs training missionaries in cultural understanding and tailoring discipleship training to incorporate significant aspects of orality

Embracing the Baobab Tree Willem A. Saayman, 1997 This volume focuses on analysing the meaning of proverbs within Africa The context in which a proverb is uttered determines meaning so this increases the difficulty of explaining proverbs exhaustively Centering African Proverbs, Indigenous Folktales, and Cultural Stories in Curriculum George J. Sefa Dei, Mairi McDermott, 2019-05-24 A vital resource for educators this collection offers reflections on and samples of units and lessons with an anti racism orientation that promote inclusive educational practices for today s increasingly diverse K 12 classrooms Engaging with multicentric cultural knowledges and stories the contributors consisting of classroom teachers community workers and adult educators present units and lesson plans that challenge the Eurocentricity of curriculum design while also having practical applicability within various North American curricular models These curriculum designs make space for students lived experiences inside the classroom and amplify critical social values such as community building social justice equity fairness resistance and collective responsibility thereby addressing the issue of youth disengagement and promoting productive inclusion Rich with sample units and lessons that are grounded in African oral traditions this ground breaking resource features critical guiding questions suggestions for ongoing and culminating classroom activities templates and resources and notes to the teacher Centering African Proverbs Indigenous Folktales and Cultural Stories in Curriculum is an essential tool for practising teachers professional learning providers and students in education and teaching programs across Canada and the United States Yoruba Proverbs Oyekan Owomoyela, 2005-01-01 Yoruba Proverbs is the most comprehensive collection to date of more than five thousand Yoruban proverbs that showcase Yoruba oral tradition Following Oyekan Owomoyela s introduction which provides a framework and description of Yoruba cultural beliefs the proverbs are arranged by theme into five sections the good person the fortunate person or the good life relationships human nature rights and responsibilities and truisms Each proverb is presented in Yoruba with a literal English translation followed by a brief commentary explaining the meaning of the proverb within the oral tradition This definitive source book on Yoruba proverbs is the first to give such detailed systematic classification and analysis alongside a careful assessment of the risks and pitfalls of submitting this genre to the canons of literary analysis BOOK JACKET An African Worldview Ian D. Dicks, 2012 In this book Ian Dicks informs the reader about the ways in which the Yawo of Malawi view the world The Yawo are predominantly Muslim yet many maintain strong links with their traditional religion They are a largely oral society teaching and reinforcing their beliefs and practices using oral literature which includes myths proverbs proverbial stories songs of advice and prayers at various stages of the life cycle particularly during initiation events Ian Dicks describes in detail the Yawo s material world customs beliefs and rituals and juxtaposes these with Yawo oral literature He then examines them under six worldview categories the result being a rich description of the way in which the Yawo see the world This book is not an armchair study but has the feel of being written by an eyewitness by someone who has had first hand experience of the subject and who seeks to describe this in a manner which is sensitive to the Yawo and their culture Being and Becoming African as a Permanent Work in Progress B. Nyamnjoh, U. Nwosu, 2021-06-09 This book is a timely addition to debates and explorations on the epistemological relevance of African proverbs especially with growing calls for the decolonisation of African curricula The editors and contributors have chosen to reflect on the diverse ways of being and becoming African as a permanent work in progress by drawing inspiration from Chinua Achebe s harnessing of the effectualness of oratory especially his use of proverbs in his works The book recognises and celebrates the fact that Achebe s proverbial Igbo imaginations of being and becoming African are compelling because they are instructive about the lives stories struggles and aspirations of the rainbow of people that make up Africa as a veritable global arena of productive circulations entanglements and compositeness of being The contributions foray into how claims to and practices of being and becoming African are steeped in histories of mobilities and a myriad of encounters shaped by and inspiring of the competing and complementary logics of personhood and power that Africans have sought and seek to capture in their repertoires of proverbs The task of documenting African proverbs and rendering them accessible in the form of a common hard currency with fascinating epistemological possibilities remains a challenge yearning for financial scholarly social and political attention The book is an important contribution to John Mbiti s clarion call for an active and sustained interest in African proverbs Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in Africana Womanhood* Rose Mary Amenga-Etego, Rosetta E. Ross, 2015-12-15 In this collection continental and diasporan African women interrogate the concept sacred text and analyze ways oral and written religious texts intersect with violence against African descended women and girls While the sanctioned idea of a sacred text is written literature this project interrupts that conception by drawing attention to speech and other embodied practices that have sacral authority within the social imaginary As a volume focused on religion and violence essays in this collection analyze religions authorization of violence against women and girls contest the legitimacy of some religious texts and affirm other writing especially memoir as redemptive Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in

Africana Womanhood arises from three years of conversation of continental and diasporan women most recently continued in the July 6 10 2014 Consultation of African and African Disaporan Women in Religion and Theology and privileges experiences and contexts of continental and diasporan African women and girls Interlocutors include African traditionalists Christian Protestants and Catholics Muslims and women embodying hybrid practices of these and other traditions African Belief and Knowledge Systems Munyaradzi Mawere,2011 The debate on the existence of African philosophy has taken central stage in academic circles and academics and researchers have tussled with various aspects of this subject This book notes that the debate on the existence of African philosophy is no longer necessary Instead it urges scholars to demonstrate the different philosophical genres embedded in African philosophy As such the book explores African metaphysical epistemology with the hope to redirect the debate on African philosophy It articulates and systematizes metaphysical and epistemological issues in general and in particular on Africa The book aptly shows how these issues intersect with the philosophy of life traditional beliefs knowledge systems and practices of ordinary Africans and the challenges they raise for scholarship in and on philosophy with relevance to Africa Traditional Wisdom in African Proverbs Albin Korem,Mawutodzi Kodzo Abissath,2004 Poverty in the Book of Proverbs Lechion Peter Kimilike,2008 The growth of the Christian church in sub Saharan Africa is reflected in a wide range of attempts at contextualizing Christian theology and biblical interpretation in Africa Theologians and biblical scholars relate the historical traditions and sources of Christianity to the socio and religio cultural context of Africa This series aims at making African theology and biblical interpretation its subject as well as object as the concerns of African theologians and biblical interpreters will be analyzed African Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Ezra Chitando,2016-04-01 The historiography of African religions and religions in Africa presents a remarkable shift from the study of Africa as Object to Africa as Subject thus translating the subject from obscurity into the global community of the academic study of religion This book presents a unique multidisciplinary exploration of African traditions in the study of religion in Africa and the new African diaspora The book is structured under three main sections Emerging trends in the teaching of African Religions Indigenous Thought and Spirituality and Christianity Hinduism and Islam Contributors drawn from diverse African and global contexts situate current scholarly traditions of the study of African religions within the purview of academic encounter and exchanges with non African scholars and non African contexts African scholars enrich the study of religions from their respective academic and methodological orientations Jacob Kehinde Olupona stands out as a pioneer in the socio scientific interpretation of African indigenous religion and religions in Africa This book is to his honour and marks his immense contribution to an emerging field of study and research African Englishes Collen Sabao,Esther Mavengano,2025-09-25 This book investigates the functions and linguistic forms of African Englishes and what this means for languages indigenous to Africa It examines the historical imposition of English on the continent as part of a broader project of cultural imperialism and traces its transformation from a colonial tool to a dynamic and diverse language examining its set of contemporary usage patterns and its likely future directions Thorough diverse critical approaches this book unpacks how language contact has given rise to distinct variations including second language varieties pidgins and creoles that are moulded by Africa s linguistic and cultural diversity Drawing on case studies from West East and Southern Africa this book illuminates contemporary English usages in multilingual spaces where cultural and linguistic plurality drive ongoing shifts in communication More than just being a study of language change this book calls for a reassessment of the future of African Englishes and their impact on indigenous languages Thus the book is an essential read for scholars and students in linguistics African Studies and World Englishes as it contributes fresh insights into the intersections of language culture identity and power in modern day African lifeworlds Indigenous Studies and Engaged Anthropology Paul Sillitoe,2016-05-23 Advancing the rising field of engaged or participatory anthropology that is emerging at the same time as increased opposition from Indigenous peoples to research this book offers critical reflections on research approaches to date The engaged approach seeks to change the researcher researched relationship fundamentally to make methods more appropriate and beneficial to communities by involving them as participants in the entire process from choice of research topic onwards The aim is not only to change power relationships but also engage with non academic audiences The advancement of such an egalitarian and inclusive approach to research can provoke strong opposition Some argue that it threatens academic rigour and worry about the undermining of disciplinary authority Others point to the difficulties of establishing an appropriately non ethnocentric moral stance and navigating the complex problems communities face Drawing on the experiences of Indigenous scholars anthropologists and development professionals acquainted with a range of cultures this book furthers our understanding of pressing issues such as interpretation transmission and ownership of Indigenous knowledge and appropriate ways to represent and communicate it All the contributors recognise the plurality of knowledge and incorporate perspectives that derive at least in part from other ways of being in the world Life Under the Baobab Tree Kenneth N. Ngwa, Aliou Cissé Niang, Arthur Pressley,2023-09-05 Life Under the Baobab Tree Africana Studies and Religion in a Transitional Age is a compendium of innovating essays meticulously written by early and later diaspora people of African descent Their speech arises from the depth of their experiences under the Baobab tree and offers to the world voices of resilience newness resurrection hope and life Resolutely journeying on the trails of their ancestors they speak about setbacks and forward looking movements of liberation social transformation and community formation The volume is a carefully woven conversation of intellectual substance and structure across time space and spirituality that is quintessentially Africana in its centering of methodological theoretical epistemological and hermeneutical complexity that assumes nonlinear and dialogical approaches to developing liberating epistemologies in the face of imperialism colonialism racism and religious intolerance A critical part of this conversation is a reconceptualization and reconfiguration of the concept of religion in its colonial and imperial forms Life Under the Baobab Tree examines how Africana peoples understand their corporate experiences of the divine not as religion apart from its intimate connections to social realities of communal health economics culture politics environment violence war and dynamic community belonging To that end Afro Pessimistic formulations of life placed in dialogic relation Afro Optimism Both realities constitute life under the Baobab tree and represent the sturdiness and variation that anchors the deep ruptures that have affected Africana life and the creative responses The metaphor and substance of the tree resists reductionist essentialist and assured conclusions about the nature of diasporic lived experiences both within the continent of Africa and in the African Diaspora

African Spirituality, Politics, and Knowledge Systems Toyin Falola, 2022-03-10 Focusing on the three leading religious traditions in Africa African Traditional Religion Islam and Christianity this book shows how belief in the supremacy of sacred words compels actions and influences practices in contemporary Africa Sacred words are taken to mean holy texts as in divination the Quran and the Bible Toyin Falola evaluates how religious leaders engage with sacred words both orals and texts engendering practices that reveal the expression of religious beliefs the impact of those beliefs and the knowledge contained in them Attention is given to the key ideas in the words chosen by religious leaders and how they form a continuous knowledge system impacting the politics of managing society and people

Rediasporization Gillian Richards-Greaves, 2020-11-24 Rediasporization African Guyanese Kweh Kweh examines how African Guyanese in New York City participate in the Come to My Kwe Kwe ritual to facilitate rediasporization that is the creation of a newer diaspora from an existing one Since the fall of 2005 African Guyanese in New York City have celebrated Come to My Kwe Kwe more recently called Kwe Kwe Night on the Friday evening before Labor Day Come to My Kwe Kwe is a reenactment of a uniquely African Guyanese pre wedding ritual called kweh kweh and sometimes referred to as karkalay mayan kweh keh and pele A typical traditional wedding based kweh kweh has approximately ten ritual segments which include the pouring of libation to welcome or appease the ancestors a procession from the groom s residence to the bride s residence or central kweh kweh venue the hiding of the bride and the negotiation of bride price Each ritual segment is executed with music and dance which allow for commentary on conjugal matters such as sex domestication submissiveness and hard work Come to My Kwe Kwe replicates the overarching segments of the traditional kweh kweh but a couple male and female from the audience acts as the bride and groom and props simulate the boundaries of the traditional performance space such as the gate and the bride s home This book draws on more than a decade of ethnographic research data and demonstrates how Come to My Kwe Kwe allows African Guyanese Americans to negotiate complex overlapping identities in their new homeland by combining elements from the past and present and reinterpreting them to facilitate rediasporization and ensure group survival

Reimagining Christianity and Sexual Diversity in Africa Adriaan van Klinken, 2021-12-01 Religion is often seen as a conservative force in contemporary Africa In particular Christian beliefs and actors are usually depicted as driving the opposition to homosexuality and LGBTI rights in African societies This book nuances that picture by drawing attention to discourses emerging in Africa itself that engage with religion specifically Christianity in progressive and innovative ways in support of sexual diversity and the quest for justice for LGBTI people The authors show not only that African Christian traditions harbor strong potential for countering conservative anti LGBTI dynamics but also that this potential has already begun to be realized by various thinkers activists and movements across the continent Their ten case studies document how leading African writers are reimagining Christian thought how several Christian inspired groups are transforming religious practice and how African cultural production creatively appropriates Christian beliefs and symbols In short the book explores Christianity as a major resource for a liberating imagination and politics of sexuality and social justice in Africa today Foregrounding African agency and progressive religious thought this highly original intervention counterbalances our knowledge of secular approaches to LGBTI rights in Africa and powerfully decolonizes queer theory theology and politics

African Traditional Oral Literature and Visual cultures as Pedagogical Tools in Diverse Classroom Contexts Lewis Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2018-06-01 This book the second in the series is a distinct exploration of how educational policy makers curriculum developers educators

learners and social activists can utilize the hitherto untapped rich resource of African traditional oral literature and visual cultures These are epistemological reservoirs and invaluable pedagogical tools in the delivery of content in the classrooms of the present global village most of whom contain diverse student populations from varying backgrounds The content of the book is thus designed to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the hitherto conventional wisdom most of which are either outdated or are colonial impositions on former colonial entities Our motivation for pulling together this anthology was due to the fact scholars educators and educational policy makers have hitherto paid little attention to the epistemological and pedagogical value of Traditional Indigenous Knowledge systems TIKS Our objective has been largely achieved by this anthology in the sense that the research perspectives of the contributors to this effort have enhanced the hitherto limited exposure and knowledge about traditional oral literature and visual cultures in Africa The torch that has been lighted from this endeavor heightens the epistemological and pedagogical implications of TIKS In launching this book we are extending a clarion call to researchers and disciples of Indigenous Knowledge systems in Africa and elsewhere to seize this opportunity and interest generated by this endeavor to undertake more studies in this area Our current efforts were focused mainly on Africa TIKS systems but we strongly believe that there are similar and equally powerful and important TIKS systems in other parts of the world Asia the Far East Central and Southern America as well as the Caribbean that are longing for exploration and exposition It is therefore our fervent hope that exploration and dissemination of knowledge in this field will continue with the flame lighted from this endeavor We believe that these efforts will greatly enhance awareness an otherwise neglected and almost forgotten but important aspects of knowledge creation and dissemination especially about traditional and hitherto unwritten histories and knowledge systems around the world These undertakings will help to broaden the conceptualization of what constitutes global knowledge within the current reality of globalization

African Traditional And Oral Literature As Pedagogical Tools In Content Area Classrooms Lewis

Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2013-12-01 For a long time many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America s diverse classrooms This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic fora and the creation and addition of new fora that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms especially in North America The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as helpful tool in classrooms Rationale for agitating for its use as ideal for pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented The book explores how educators literacy educators learners activists policy makers and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the conventional wisdom of their pedagogic creed It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars academicians and educators who have expertise in multicultural education traditional oral literature urban education children s literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our global village emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development Consequently the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template to foster alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers In summary this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia
