

Argumentative Essay on Gun Control: Introduction Example 2

Thesis: The most beneficial decision is not to have any type of gun control

Gun control has continued to be a volatile subject to discuss. The majority of violence that happens occurs by unlawful gun owners who would keep possession of the weapons regardless of the laws put into place. Using guns for illegal purposes is wrong, but making blanket regulations that also hinder lawful owners from owning or purchasing firearms will not help the current violent outbreaks of shootings. When looking at the big picture, the most beneficial decision is not to have any type of gun control at all because of the immense amount of guns already in circulation in the United States.

process By emphasizing those concepts that are of the greatest use to writers and by treating these concepts sequentially the book maximizes your understanding of how critical thinking can sharpen your writing Critical Thinking and Writing begins in Part One with a clear outline of the rhetorical writing process and how it relates to the notion of critical thinking In Parts Two and Three you will focus on the specifics of sentence construction and word usage Part Four includes readings by professional and student writers that offer a multitude of perspectives and topic coverage Taking a discovery approach Critical Thinking and Writing encourages you to expand and reinforce your writing skills through many individual and collaborative activities

Reducing Gun Violence in America Daniel W. Webster, Jon S. Vernick, 2013-01-28 Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine The staggering toll of gun violence which claims 31 000 U S lives each year is an urgent public health issue that demands an effective evidence based policy response The Johns Hopkins University convened more than 20 of the world s leading experts on gun violence and policy to summarize relevant research and recommend policies that are both constitutional and have broad public support Collected for the first time in one volume this reliable empirical research and legal analysis will help lawmakers opinion leaders and concerned citizens identify policy changes to address mass shootings along with the less publicized gun violence that takes an average of 80 lives every day Selected recommendations include Background checks Establish a universal background check system for all persons purchasing a firearm from any seller High risk individuals Expand the set of conditions that disqualify an individual from legally purchasing a firearm Mental health Focus federal restrictions on gun purchases by persons with serious mental illness on the dangerousness of the individual Trafficking and dealer licensing Appoint a permanent director to ATF and provide the agency with the authority to develop a range of sanctions for gun dealers who violate gun sales or other laws Personalized guns Provide financial incentives to states to mandate childproof or personalized guns Assault weapons and high capacity magazines Ban the future sale of assault weapons and the future sale and possession of large capacity ammunition magazines Research funds Provide adequate federal funds to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention National Institutes of Health and National Institute of Justice for research into the causes and solutions of gun violence The book includes an analysis of the constitutionality of many recommended policies and data from a national public opinion poll that reflects support among the majority of Americans including gun owners for stronger gun policies

Past Imperfect Peter Charles Hoffer, 2007-07-03 Woodrow Wilson a practicing academic historian before he took to politics defined the importance of history A nation which does not know what it was yesterday does not know what it is today He like many men of his generation wanted to impose a version of America s founding identity it was a land of the free and a home of the brave But not the braves Or the slaves Or the disenfranchised women So the history of Wilson s generation omitted a significant proportion of the population in favor of a perspective that was predominantly white male and Protestant That flaw would become a fissure and eventually a schism A new history arose which written in part by radicals and liberals had little use for the noble and the heroic and that rankled many who wanted a celebratory rather than a critical history To this combustible mixture of elements was added the flame of public debate History in the 1990s was a minefield of competing passions political views and prejudices It was dangerous ground and at the end of the decade four of the nation's most respected and popular historians were almost destroyed by it Michael Bellesiles Doris Kearns Goodwin Stephen Ambrose and Joseph Ellis This is their story set against the wider narrative of the writing of America's history It may be as Flaubert put it that Our ignorance of history makes us libel our own times To which he could have added falsify plagiarize and politicize because that is the other story of America's history

Guns, Crime, and Punishment in America Bernard E. Harcourt, 2003-07 Guns Crime and Punishment in America assembles a diverse group of the nation's leading authorities on guns and gun violence to present the most up to date research currently available Exploring such controversial issues as gun tracing initiatives the possible extension of the Brady Bill gun oriented policing federal law enforcement initiatives such as Project Exile and civil litigation against gun manufacturers Guns Crime and Punishment in America embarks upon a more balanced and nuanced discussion about firearms Though the book's contributors operate from a wide variety of political perspectives and methodological approaches a central desire unifies the book to end the extreme polarization that currently characterizes the debate on guns and generate reasonable and practical gun policies in the United States Contributors Sara Sun Beale Anthony A Braga Carl Bogus Jenny Berrien Abigail Caplovitz Philip J Cook Garth Davies Christopher Eisgruber Jeffrey A Fagan Mark Geistfeld James B Jacobs Dan M Kahan David Kairys David B Kopel Sanford Levinson Jens Ludwig Daniel C Richman Jerome H Skolnick Richard Slotkin Chris Winship and Franklin E Zimring
