Afrique Du Sud Gauteng:

Identification and Citizenship in Africa Séverine Awenengo Dalberto, Richard Banégas, 2021-05-09 In the context of a global biometric turn this book investigates processes of legal identification in Africa from below asking what this means for the relationship between citizens and the state Almost half of the population of the African continent is thought to lack a legal identity and many states see biometric technology as a reliable and efficient solution to the problem However this book shows that biometrics far from securing identities and avoiding fraud or political distrust can even participate in reinforcing exclusion and polarizing debates on citizenship and national belonging It highlights the social and political embedding of legal identities and the resilience of the documentary state Drawing on empirical research conducted across 14 countries the book documents the processes practices and meanings of legal identification in Africa from the 1950s right up to the biometric boom Beyond the classic opposition between surveillance and recognition it demonstrates how analysing the social uses of IDs and tools of identification can give a fresh account of the state at work the practices of citizenship and the role of bureaucracy in the writing of the self in African societies This book will be of an important reference for students and scholars of African studies politics human security and anthropology and the sociology of the state

La pauvreté dans une Afrique en essor Kathleen Beegle, Luc Christiaensen, Andrew Dabalen, Isis Gaddis, 2017-01-31 L'idée que l'on se fait de l'Afrique a radicalement changé. Encore considéré comme le continent des guerres, des famines et de la pauvreté chronique, la fin des années 90 le continent africain est maintenant vu sous l'angle de l'Afrique qui monte et du XXI^e siècle africain. Deux décennies de croissance économique sans précédent devaient en principe améliorer sensiblement le bien-être des populations africaines. Il est toutefois difficile de dire si c'est effectivement le cas en raison de la médiocre qualité des données de la nature du processus de croissance s'agissant notamment du rôle des ressources naturelles, des conflits qui se vivent dans une partie la région et de la forte expansion démographique. Poverty in a Rising Africa décrit les problèmes de données et analyse systématiquement les informations disponibles sur la pauvreté et les inégalités dans une perspective tant monétaire que non monétaire. Le premier chapitre value la disponibilité et la qualité des données nécessaires pour cerner la pauvreté monétaire, examine les mécanismes de gouvernance et les processus politiques qui sous-tendent la production statistique et propose quelques méthodes pour combler le déficit de données. Le chapitre 2 value la robustesse des estimations sur la pauvreté en Afrique et brosse grands traits le profil de ce fléau. Selon les auteurs, la réduction de la pauvreté en Afrique est peut-être légèrement supérieure à ce que les estimations traditionnelles portent croire. Pour autant, même les estimations les plus optimistes indiquent que davantage de personnes vivaient dans la pauvreté en 2012 qu'en 1990. Le troisième chapitre considère la pauvreté dans une perspective large en prenant en compte les dimensions non monétaires du bien-être telles que l'éducation, la santé et la liberté en utilisant la méthode d'Amartya Sen (1985) axée sur les notions de capacités et de fonctionings. Des progrès ont certes été accomplis dans plusieurs de ces domaines mais les niveaux de résultats restent obstinément bas. Enfin, le chapitre 4 examine les données relatives aux inégalités en Afrique en analysant non seulement les types d'inégalités monétaires mais aussi d'autres aspects tels que l'inégalité des chances la mobilité intergénérationnelle dans le travail et l'éducation et l'extrême richesse

Security, crime and segregation in West African cities since the 19th century Laurent Fourchard, Isaac Olawale Albert, Institut français de recherche en Afrique, 2003-01-01 Les questions de sécurité et de criminalité sont devenues de nouveaux objets d'études en Afrique essentiellement en raison de la multiplication récente des formes de criminalité urbaine ou organisée et de la privatisation avancée de grandes portions d'espaces urbains phénomènes que l'on pouvait croire limités aux Amériques L'endémisme de la crise économique l'accroissement de la pauvreté la criminalisation de l'état et la faillite des polices tropicales ont considérablement accru les sentiments d'insécurité et accéléré le développement d'agences privées qui prennent le relais d'états incapables d'assumer le contrôle du corps social Les auteurs de ce livre interrogent l'efficacité des fonctions régaliennes de l'état sécurité police justice et leur éventuelle dévolution des organismes privés associations groupes d'autodéfense milices ils rendent compte d'un groupe et de sa catégorisation criminels délinquants et proposent un nouveau regard sur une certaine gestion urbaine de l'insécurité sécurisation Alors que de nombreuses études se sont naturellement focalisées sur les vingt dernières années la quasi absence d'études historiques sur la sécurité et la criminalité laisserait supposer que ces phénomènes sont nouveaux en Afrique L'une des priorités de ce livre est de reconsidérer ces questions en proposant une approche pluridisciplinaire histoire science politique géographie sociologie littérature De nombreuses études empiriques témoignent de la variété des trajectoires criminelles des rôles successifs des polices coloniales et postcoloniales de la multiplicité des agences de sécurité privée et des formes ségrégatives d'organisation de l'espace urbain en Afrique de l'Ouest En raison de la taille et du nombre de ses villes et de l'épaisseur historique de la criminalité urbaine le Nigeria tient une place singulière dans ce livre Premier pays de la région à entrer dans l'ère du crime organisé le Nigeria constitue aujourd'hui une base essentielle des réseaux criminels transnationaux à l'échelle mondiale sometimes uses it It takes the individual's experience into account and starts from the position of the subject It also permits changing perspectives This design concept should attract attention far beyond the borders of France L'école en Afrique du sud Claude Carpentier, 2005 Dix ans après les premières élections au suffrage universel en Afrique du Sud 1994 survenant après une période d'apartheid de près d'un demi-siècle quel bilan pour l'école dans ce pays aujourd'hui Dans quelle mesure peut-on parler de rupture avec le passé Sous l'apartheid Blancs Mitis Asiatiques et Noirs font l'objet de processus de scolarisation très différents relevant d'un grand nombre de ministères en principe indépendants mais en réalité très étroitement tributaires de la politique de discrimination instaurée par le Parti National après les élections de 1948 Cette diversité s'inscrit donc dans un cadre de très grande inégalité dans la répartition des ressources et dans l'accès à l'éducation tant sur le plan racial que géographique Durant cette période la situation n'est pourtant pas figée Dans un contexte de luttes sociales intenses la politique de ségrégation n'empêche pas un relatif développement de la scolarisation des groupes sociaux les plus dominés Le changement politique de 1994 constitue l'aboutissement d'un processus de dislocation progressif de l'appareil répressif Ce changement mené principalement sous la houlette de l'ANC se fixe pour objectif le redressement des inégalités notamment scolaires héritées du passé Dans le même temps l'accès à la démocratie place la nouvelle Afrique du Sud dans un environnement international de contraintes budgétaires qui limitent la portée effective des réformes projetées Dans le domaine scolaire comme en d'autres c'est donc un véritable défi qui est confronté ce pays depuis 1994 La ségrégation raciale dans les écoles a été officiellement abrogée une bourgeoisie noire s'est développée fréquentant aujourd'hui les meilleures écoles anciennement blanches dans le cadre d'une nation arc-en-ciel Les anciennes écoles noires continuent pour l'essentiel accueillir le même public distingué non plus par la couleur de peau mais par une pauvreté persistante La ségrégation raciale officielle intolérable dans une démocratie moderne a laissé place à une sorte d'apartheid social dont s'accommodent assez bien le néolibéralisme dominant et l'idéologie qui le nourrit Rodents of Sub-Saharan Africa Ara Monadjem, Peter J. Taylor, Christiane Denys, Fenton P.D. Cotterill, 2015-02-17 This comprehensive handbook covers all the rodents occurring in Southern Central East and West Africa south of the Sahara Genus and species accounts include diagnostic descriptions systematics and taxonomy biogeographical environment fossil species photographs of skull and mandible illustrations of molar dentition photographs of live animals distribution maps and tables of standard museum measurements Evolution of the Rodents: Volume 5 Philip G. Cox, Lionel Hautier, 2015-08-06 The widespread use of mouse models in developmental behavioural and genetic studies has sparked wider interest in rodent biology as a whole This book brings together the latest research on rodents to better understand the evolution of both living and extinct members of this fascinating group Topics analysed include the role of molecular techniques in the determination of robust phylogenetic frameworks how geometric morphometric methods help quantify and analyse variation in shape and the role of developmental biology in elucidating the origins of skeletal elements and the teeth The editors unite these disciplines to present the current state of knowledge in rodent biology whilst setting the landscape for future research This book highlights interdisciplinary links across palaeontology developmental biology functional morphology phylogenetics and biomechanics making it a valuable resource for evolutionary biologists in all fields

Poetry of the innermost Z J GALOS,2024-05-08 Poems in Book I of II were written during my trip from South Africa to Europe on the sunny veranda of Mom s house that represented a stark contrast with its splendid natural illumination to my dark thoughts about the terminal illness of a beloved friend and talented poetess I continued my journey to places of family and friends in various federal states of Austria and my heart felt heavy of flying on to Athens Greece where I wished to see my friend and teacher for the last time I felt a deep compassion for the first time in my life with last embraces and caresses a most deep emotional experience that made me immediately take my pen and put my innermost feelings to paper Back in Jo burg the message of her death kept me mourning for her for a long time I had lost all sense for time and filled the Chinese red and black notebook she had given me as a present The ink has dried and I wish to share my outburst of pain with all people who can relate to the pain of losing a beloved person

Human Evolution John H. Langdon,2023-01-01 This is an introductory textbook for the study of human evolution and covers all major topics of human origins taught under paleoanthropology anthropology archaeology and evolutionary biology courses This book differs from the existing selection of textbooks in the following ways It incorporates the most recent fossil discoveries and interpretations It balances the discussion between descriptions of fossils and interpretations of behavior of hominins in different time periods It includes current findings of genomics into understanding the more recent stages of human evolution This important subdiscipline is badly underserved by current texts It consistently addresses the relationship of evidence to our current hypotheses and interpretations The book has an engaging and lucid style suitable for those entering the field Students will find ample case studies illustrations and examples helpful in understanding difficult concepts Tables timelines and maps in every chapter include data summaries and key points The book highlights peripheral points and background concepts in side boxes for easy reference and lists key ideas at the end of each chapter This up to date and easy to read text is suitable for both classroom study and self learning

Reflections on Identity in Four African Cities S. B. Bekker,Anne Leildé,2006 Identity has become the watchword of our times In sub Saharan Africa this certainly appears to be true and for particular reasons Africa is urbanising rapidly cross border migration streams are swelling and globalising influences sweep across the continent Africa is also facing up to the challenge of nurturing emergent democracies in which citizens often feel torn between older traditional and newer national loyalties Accordingly collective identities are deeply coloured by recent urban as well as international experience and are squarely located within identity politics where reconciliation is required between state nation building strategies and sub national affiliations They are also fundamentally shaped by the growing inequality and the poverty found on this continent These themes are explored by an international set of scholars in two South African and two Francophone cities The relative importance to urban residents of race class and ethnicity but also of work space and language are compared in these cities This volume also includes a chapter investigating the emergence of a continental African identity A recent report of the Office of the South African President claims that a strong national identity is emerging among its citizens and that race and ethnicity are waning whilst a class identity is in the ascendance The evidence and analyses within this volume serve to gauge the extent to which such claims ring true in what everyone knows is a much more complex and shifting terrain of shared meanings than can ever be captured by such generalisations
