Slavery After Rome, 500-1100 Alice Rio, 2017-03-30 Slavery After Rome 500 1100 offers a substantially new interpretation of what happened to slavery in Western Europe in the centuries that followed the fall of the Roman Empire The periods at either end of the early middle ages are associated with iconic forms of unfreedom Roman slavery at one end at the other the serfdom of the twelfth century and beyond together with in Southern Europe a revitalised urban chattel slavery dealing chiefly in non Christians How and why this major change took place in the intervening period has been a long standing puzzle This study picks up the various threads linking this transformation across the centuries and situates them within the full context of what slavery and unfreedom were being used for in the early middle ages This volume adopts a broad comparative perspective covering different regions of Western Europe over six centuries to try to answer the following questions who might become enslaved and why What did this mean for them and for their lords What made people opt for certain ways of exploiting unfree labour over others in different times and places and is it possible underneath all this diversity to identify some coherent trajectories of historical change The Preacher's Assistant (after the Manner of Mr. Letsome) Containing a Series of the Texts of Sermons and Discourses ... British Party Politics and Ideology after New Labour S. Griffiths, K. Hickson, 2009-11-18 British Party Politics and Ideology after New Labour brings together academics and politicians to debate the intellectual roots of the ideas that currently drive the main UK political parties With major players responding to the arguments raised in each chapter the book will be a must read for anyone interested in or teaching British politics Isaiah 53 in the Light of Homecoming After Exile Fredrik Hägglund, 2008 In this study Fredrik Hägglund presents an interpretation based on a hypothesis that conflicts emerged between the people in the land of Israel and those who returned from exile He analyzes these conflicts with the help of contemporary refugee studies other texts of the Old Testament and also relevant passages in Isa 40 55 At the end of the exile there was hope that the deported people would return to Israel that it would be rebuilt and that Jerusalem would again flourish This hope is most clearly expressed in Isa 40 1 52 10 However as time went by there was a realization that the envisaged glorious return was in reality a rather limited return and the joy of receiving those who returned had turned into conflicts not least regarding the possession of land and the availability of places to live In this situation someone probably reflected on the message of Isa 40 1 52 10 and sought to understand what had gone wrong Isa 53 was then inserted as an explanation of how the people in the land of Israel i e the we should have received those who returned i e the servant If this embrace had taken place Mother Zion would have rejoiced as described in Isa 54 Instead of these pictures painted for us in Isa 53 and 54 we encounter the reality of the conflicts described in Isa 56 66 Sale-catalogues of Second-hand Books on Sale by Henry Sotheran & Co Sotheran, Henry and Co, 1871 Identities and Allegiances in the Eastern
