Personalized Reading Nancy Hobbs, Kristen Sacco, Myra R. Oleynik, 2010-11-15 This guidebook provides teachers and librarians with methods for collaboratively teaching elementary students to select books they will enjoy and which will further their personal growth and information literacy Motivating young students to read is instrumental for the development of strong information literacy and communication skills as well as for building a lifelong habit of seeking information and enjoyment through written materials The authors of Personalized Reading It's a Piece of PIE are three highly experienced teachers one of whom is a school librarian This text describes the steps of the PIE program in detail including chapters on selecting a book reading it writing about it and extending beyond that title Utilizing the PIE program will teach students to make selections at an appropriate reading level expand from choosing titles in the same genre or from the same author and recognize and abandon a book of low interest to them Within each chapter are explanations of the theories behind each step and practical ideas that teachers and librarians can implement collaboratively in the classroom and library Times Parent's Guide to the Best Books for Children Eden Ross Lipson, 2000-11-14 The Classic Guide That Helps You Select the Books the Child You Know Will Love In this third fully revised and updated edition of The New York Times Parent s Guide to the Best Books for Children the children's book editor of The New York Times Book Review personally selects and recommends books for children of every age The most comprehensive and authoritative book of its kind has been completely updated for the new millennium It contains hundreds of new entries many expanded descriptions and notations of additional companion and related titles more than 1 700 in all The best loved classics of the twentieth century are included as well as a thoughtful selection of outstanding titles from the last decade Six sections are organized according to reading level Wordless Picture Story Early Reading Middle Reading and Young Adult In addition to a summary of the book each entry provides the essential bibliographic information you need to find a book in your local library or bookstore including title author and or illustrator hardcover and or paperback publisher and publication year major awards related titles The unique and most popular feature of the quide is its system of special indexes more than sixty in all They make it easy for parents and grandparents teachers and librarians even children themselves to match the right book to the right child Browse through the indexes and find titles for every interest and mood picture books about cats mice or dinosaurs for babies funny books to read aloud to toddlers series about family life or school or fantasy adventures for a middle grade child books on divorce or death and coming of age novels just right for someone starting junior high school There are also indexes for books about minorities and religion an age appropriate reading level index and much more Lavishly decorated with more than three hundred illustrations from representative titles the guide also features extra wide margins for notes on which of your children liked which book at what age and why Thus the guide becomes a family reading record as well as an invaluable resource you ll use Let's Read! Let's Talk! Let's Write! Let's Pretend! (ENHANCED eBook) Judy Nyberg, 2008-03-01 again and again Reading and writing are the most important skills a child acquires during his or her lifetime and it all begins in the early childhood classroom where creative play discovery and time to explore are at the heart of a developmentally appropriate and child centered curriculum Striking a balance between these often competing priorities can challenge even the most All Around the Neighborhood, Grades PK - K Pressnall, 2010-05-18 There s a huge world for experienced educator students in grades PK K to explore and All Around the Neighborhood provides the perfect place for them to start Teachers use the reproducible building fronts and vehicles to create a familiar neighborhood setting then let students imaginations do the rest Students add buildings from their own homes to fire stations to construction sites This 176 page book teaches social awareness in conjunction with a variety of concepts and vocabulary words that draw upon students interests It includes 10 mini books 7 file folder games more than 60 reproducible patterns more than 80 literature links and a wealth of cross curricular activities that reinforce each new concept The book supports NCSS and NAEYC standards The Continuum Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Bernice E. Cullinan, Diane Goetz Person, 2005-01-01 Provides articles covering children's literature from around the world as well as biographical and critical reviews of authors including Avi C S Lewis J K Summer Bridge Activities", Grades 2 - 3 Summer Bridge Activities, 2011-01-13 Rowling and Anno Mitsumasa Designed specifically for preparing Canadian second grade students for the new year ahead Reviewed by Canadian teachers and students this workbook features daily activities in reading writing math and language arts plus a bonus section focusing on character development and healthy lifestyles The exercises are easy to understand and are presented in a way that allows your child to review familiar skills and then be progressively challenged on more difficult subjects Give your children the head start they deserve with this fun easy to use award winning series and make learning a yearlong adventure 160 full colour perforated pages and an answer key A Critical Inquiry Framework for K-12 Teachers JoBeth Allen, Lois Alexander, 2015-04-25 This dynamic book provides powerful ideas to guide pedagogy and a curriculum model for helping students connect with issues in their lives while meeting standards Vivid portraits of K12 classrooms illustrate how teachers used a human rights framework to engage students in critical inquiry of relevant social issues such as immigration rights religious tolerance racial equality countering the effects of poverty and respect for people with disabilities The book shows how a group of teachers worked together to develop a critical content framework using the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child Chapters highlight lively classroom and community action projects Teaching Beginning Readers Jerry L. Johns, Susan Davis Lenski, Laurie Elish-Piper, 2002 More Mirrors in the Classroom Jane Fleming, Susan Catapano, Candace M. Thompson, Sandy Ruvalcaba Carrillo, 2016-06-08 Nearly 30% of all public school children attend school in large or mid size cities totaling more than 16 million students in 22 000 schools For schools serving culturally and linguistically diverse populations and large numbers of children living in poverty a significant achievement gap persists Proponents of multicultural education often advocate for instruction with culturally relevant texts to promote inclusion compassion and understanding of our increasingly diverse society Less discussion has focused on the significant body of research that suggests that culturally relevant texts have important effects on language and literacy development By connecting the dots of existing research More Mirrors in the Classroom raises awareness about the critical role that urban children's literature can play in helping children learn to read and write In addition it provides practical step by step advice for increasing the cultural relevance of school curricula in order to accelerate literacy learning Mrs. E's Extraordinary Alphabet Activities (eBook) Kathy Etringer, 2006-03-01 Filled with more than 80 stimulating and creative ways to teach the individual letters of the alphabet Extraordinary Alphabet Activities is an ideal resource for both experienced preschool and kindergarten teachers as well as those beginning a career teaching your learners With multiple literature based lessons for each letter the well organized format makes it easy to plan and fun to teach Each lesson is divided into five sections Before the Lesson Have on
