Adu

Boahen, 2011 In this book one of the pioneers of twentieth century African history examines the perceptions and responses of Africans to European colonialism of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century This edition of Boahen's text originally published in 1989 is contextualized in a new foreword by John Lonsdale updating some of Boahen's findings and interpretations while maintaining that the best totally unambiguous legacy of this republication would surely be the inspiration of a new generation of African scholars locally based as clear minded and outspoken as Adu Boahen himself

African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel, Tshikolomo, Khathutshelo Alfred, 2019-11-22 Development studies in developing regions such as Southern Africa rely heavily on materials developed by Europeans with a European context European dominance in development studies emanates from the fact that the discipline was first developed by Europeans Some argue that this has led to distortions in theory and practice of development in Southern Africa This book wishes to begin Africa's expedition to develop proper material to de Westernize while Africanizing the context of the scholarship of rural development African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development is an essential reference source that repositions the context of rural development studies from the Western centric knowledge system into an African context in order to solve African centered problems Featuring research on topics such as food security poverty reduction and community engagement this book is ideally designed for planners researchers practitioners policymakers government officials academicians and students seeking clarity on theory and practice of development in Africa How Colonialism Preempted Modernity in Africa Olúfémi Táíwò, 2010-01-11 Why hasn't Africa been able to respond to the challenges of modernity and globalization Going against the conventional wisdom that colonialism brought modernity to Africa Olúfémi Táíwò claims that Africa was already becoming modern and that colonialism was an unfinished project Africans aspired to liberal democracy and the rule of law but colonial officials aborted those efforts when they established indirect rule in the service of the European powers Táíwò looks closely at modern institutions such as church missionary societies to recognize African agency and the impulse toward progress He insists that Africa can get back on track and advocates a renewed engagement with modernity Immigration capitalism democracy and globalization if done right this time can be tools that shape a positive future for Africa African Perspective on Colonialism, 1987 African Thoughts on Colonial and Neo-Colonial Worlds Anaïs Angelo, Paulina Aroch-Fugellie, Lena Dallywater, Lutz Diegner, Myra Ann Houser, Janine Kläge, Sara Marzagora, Felix Müller, Arno Sonderegger, Ninja Steinbach-Hüther, Joanna Tegnerowicz, 2015-10-16 This book shows the many facets of African engagements with the world It starts from the premise that current global asymmetries ascribing Africa to a marginalized position are the effects of colonial and imperial pasts still lingering on The decolonization process of the post war structure which privileges the West in both political and economic terms While new dependencies emerged several old bonds were maintained and continue to influence African affairs quite strikingly It is appropriate then to call these continued unequal relations between Africa and the West frankly neo colonial This designation applies all the more as the post colonial states of Africa inherited a complex legacy of foreign rule colonial frontiers colonial languages colonial infrastructure and authoritarian institutions as well as the social intricacies and imbalances so characteristic of the colonial situation The contributions to this volume look at various aspects of these complex processes from intellectual history perspectives The topics dealt with are manifold Contributions deliberately attack key themes ideas and discourses of an intellectual history of Africa state modernity development dependency art etc and introduce important engaged public intellectuals from Africa and the African diaspora What is Africa and how is she related to the rest of the world How can she overcome her internal problems and her external dependencies These are perennial questions critically tackled by Africans throughout the 20th century Dealing with various cases looked at from a variety of perspectives the contributions to this book offer original insights into the intellectual history of Africa Kalonga Gawa Undi X Walima Tuesday Kalusa, Mapopa Mtonga, 2010 This study reconstructs the life history of Paramount Chief Kalonga Gawa Undi X of the Chewa speaking people of Zambia's Eastern Province Born in 1931 he played a key role in the nationalist movement in Zambia formerly Northern Rhodesia in the late 1950s and early 1960s and participated in the constitutional talks in England at the height of the struggle for political freedom Throughout his life he successfully fought to preserve the power and authority of traditional leaders thereby confounding attempts by both colonial governments and African urban elites to undermine chiefly prerogative and power With this study the author asks us to rethink the standard historical accounts of the role of traditional leaders in African independence African Perspectives on Literary Translation Judith Inggs, Ella Wehrmeyer, 2021-03-03 This collection serves as a showcase for literary translation research with a focus on African perspectives highlighting theoretical and methodological developments in the discipline while shedding further light on the literary landscape in Africa The book offers a framework for understanding key approaches and topics in literary translation situated in the African context covering foundational concepts as well as new directions within the field The first half of the volume focuses on the translation product exploring such topics as translation strategies literary genres and self translation while the second half examines process and reception allowing for an in depth look at agency habitus and ethics Each chapter is structured to allow for the introduction of a given theoretical aspect of literary translation followed by a summary of a completed research project with an African focus showing theory in practice offering a model for readers to build their own literary translation research projects while also underscoring the range of perspectives and unique challenges to literary translation work in Africa This unique volume is a key resource for students and scholars in translation studies giving visibility to African perspectives on literary translation while pointing the way forward for future research directions African Perspectives on Poverty, Indigenous Knowledge Systems, and Innovation Oliver Mtapuri, 2022-11-15 This book examines the connections between poverty and innovation in Africa Through case studies and theorizations from a distinctly African perspective it stands in contrast to current theoretical works in the field which remain very much rooted in Western orientated thinking The book investigates the application of methodologies which explain numerous African contexts in connection with issues of poverty and inequality It reflects on comparative practices and praxes on the African continent including commonplace traditions and practices in alleviating poverty taken against a background of the failure of current prescriptions for poverty alleviation such as the Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs and the Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers PRSP There is a dire need for new practical perspectives which move Africa forward using its indigenous knowledge
