Do Puddles Eat Ponies? Sarah-Katrin Bourdeaux, 2025-06-01 A humorous look at the world through the eyes of a horse peppered with satirical observations about the equestrian world Sharif an easily spooked Arabian is trying to find his life's calling but between the truly terrifying dangers of everyday life and the strange hoofless beings that wave their tiny tentacles at his nose it is proving a challenge Barely do his newborn hooves touch the ground for the first time and already he's in mortal danger and the hoofless beings really aren't helping anything The world is full of monsters and mysteries as far as the eye can see As he ventures out beyond the paddock he shared with his mom Sharif gets dragged into all manner of dark worlds and questionable jobs and is constantly surrounded by unusual characters he's not sure he can trust including The Chicken The Fat Boss and Dumb as Rocks But even when the threats behind every bush grow more menacing he doesn't lose sight of his ultimate goal to be the most famous and beautiful show horse under the sun Then just before his greatest triumph the hoofless betray Sharif to cold blooded criminals and everything even really this time his life seems to be at stake Can one little Arabian horse stretch his courage and reach his dream This hilarious unusual superbly imagined illustrated novel for grownups who like horses is destined to be a hit with anyone who enjoys a little bit of ridiculous and a slightly cynical take on the subcultures that bind us
