Transgression in the Architectures of After-Modernity Carmen Popescu, 2025-09-03 In architecture transgressive acts have always been a reality in spite of rules and canons that have defined the discipline and its extended field However in recent decades their frequency and radicality have surged from rather random marginal and or idiosyncratic phenomena While their sudden rise can be explained as a reaction to the compulsive normativity of modernity the deeper roots are to be sought elsewhere the recent waves of transgressiveness are intimately linked to the hypercrisis affecting our world today spanning ecological political economic and social dimensions and catalysing fundamental mutations and disorders Some of these transgressive acts are motivated by a desire to dismantle a malfunctioning system but more often than not breaking the rules has become an inherent survival tactic amid urgent social challenges In our era of after modernity transgression emerges not just as an act of defiance but reveals a new paradigm at work a critical framework for reimagining the built environment challenging established orders and advocating for the rights of marginalised populations Drawing on a rich array of theoretical insights and empirical case studies from multiple countries this volume provides a unique forward looking perspective on transgressive acts in architecture as responses to today's ecological political economic and social crises

Architecture After Deleuze and Guattari Chris L. Smith, 2023-05-04 This study illuminates the complex interplay between Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy and architecture Presenting their wide ranging impact on late 20th and 21st century architecture each chapter focuses on a core Deleuzian Guattarian philosophical concept and one key work of architecture which evokes contorts or extends it Challenging the idea that a concept or theory defines and then produces the physical work and not vice versa Chris L Smith positions the relationship between Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy and the field of architecture as one that is mutually substantiating and constitutive In this framework modes of architectural production and experimentation become inextricable from the conceptual territories defined by these two key thinkers producing a rigorous discussion of theoretical practical and experimental engagements with their ideas

Architecture and Fire Stamatis Zografos, 2019-06-12 Architecture and Fire develops a conceptual reassessment of architectural conservation through the study of the intimate relationship between architecture and fire Stamatis Zografos expands on the general agreement among many theorists that the primitive hut was erected around fire locating fire as the first memory of architecture at the very beginning of architectural evolution Following the introduction Zografos analyses the archive and the renewed interest in the study of archives through the psychoanalysis of Jacques Derrida He moves on to explore the ambivalent nature of fire employing the conflicting philosophies of Gaston Bachelard and Henri Bergson to do so before discussing architectural conservation and the relationship between listed buildings the function of archives and the preservation of memories from the past The following chapter investigates how architecture evolves by absorbing and accommodating fire while the penultimate chapter examines the critical moment of architectural evolution the destruction of buildings by fire with a focus on the tragic disaster at London's Grenfell Tower in 2017 Zografos concludes with thoughts on Freud's drive theory He argues the practice of architectural conservation is an expression of the life drive and a simultaneous repression of the death drive which suggests controlled destruction should be an integral part of the conservation agenda Architecture and Fire is founded in new interdisciplinary research navigating across the boundaries of architecture conservation archival theory classical mythology evolutionary theory thermodynamics philosophy and psychoanalysis It will be of interest to readers working in and around these disciplines

The Persistence of Masks Joyce Suechun Cheng, 2025-10-07 An examination of surrealism's unofficial ethnography of marginalized subjectivities In interwar Paris the encounter between surrealism and the nascent discipline of ethnology led to an intellectual project now known as ethnographic surrealism In The Persistence of Masks Joyce Suechun Cheng considers the ethnographic dimension of the surrealist movement in its formative years through a close look at the reviews Documents 1929-30 and Minotaure 1933-39 as well as the surrealist writer turned ethnographer Michel Leiris's ethnography of possession Analyzing surrealist aesthetic criticism art poetry and field research in terms of a common interest in marginalized modes of subjectivity Cheng argues that the surrealists used the figures of the mask the veil the hand and the hat to radically reconceive the subject as nonhegemonic nonanthropocentric and feminine identified Though ethnographic surrealism usually refers to the collaboration between professional ethnologists at the Institut de l'Ethnologie in Paris and Georges Bataille's so-called dissident circle of surrealists Cheng demonstrates that surrealism's unofficial ethnography began long before the founding of the movement Starting with Andr  Breton's wartime text Subject 1916 written when he was still a young psychiatric intern treating traumatized soldiers she shows how the future surrealist poet shifted from a clinical to a para-ethnographic approach to subjectivity when adopting his patient's first person voice as a textual mask Revealing surrealism to be always implicitly ethnographic Cheng uncovers deep affinities between archrivals Breton and Bataille highlights psychiatry's underacknowledged role in surrealism's lay ethnography and theorizes the surrealists' feminine identification as a means of critiquing power By broadening the scope of ethnographic surrealism The Persistence of Masks offers new insights that challenge longstanding beliefs about this multifaceted movement in poetry the arts and culture

Romantic Organicism C. Armstrong, 2003-06-24 Romantic Organicism attempts to reassess the much maligned and misunderstood notion of organic unity Following organicism from its crucial radicalisation in German Idealism it shows how both Coleridge and Wordsworth developed some of their most profound ideas and poetry on its basis Armstrong shows how the tenets and ideals of organicism despite much criticism remain an insistent if ambivalent backdrop for much of our current thought including the work of Derrida amongst others

Theology, Rhetoric, Manuduction, Or Reading Scripture Together on the Path to God Peter M. Candler, 2006 Like medieval maps with their intricate illustrations unusual proportions and omission of seemingly crucial details medieval works of theology were designed to provide not an objective lay of the land for disinterested study but an itinerary for individuals traveling a specific route To read was to be taken by the hand and to join fellow travelers on a journey of participation and ultimately union with God

Blessed Excess Stephen H. Webb, 1993-01-01

On Discomfort David Ellison, Andrew Leach, 2016-10-14 Examining discomfort's physical emotional conceptual psychological and aesthetic dimensions the contributors to this volume offer an alternate cultural approach to the study of architecture and the built environment By attending to a series of disparate instances in which architecture and discomfort intersect On Discomfort offers a fresh reading of the negotiations that define architecture's position in modern culture The essays do not chart comfort's triumph so much as discomfort's curious dispersal into practices that form modern life and what that dispersion reveals of both architecture and culture The essays presented in this volume illuminate the material culture of discomfort as it accrues to architecture and its history This episodic analysis speaks to a range of disciplinary fields and interdisciplinary subjects extending our understanding of the domestication of interiors and objects cities and ideas and the conditions under which by intention or accident they discomfort

Spatial Politics in Contemporary London Literature Laura Colombino, 2013-06-19 This book analyses the spatial politics of a range of British novelists writing on London since the 1950s emphasizing spatial representation as an embodied practice at the point where the architectural landscape and the body enter into relation with each other Colombino visits the city in connection with its boundaries abstract spaces and natural microcosms as they stand in for all the conflicting realms of identity its interstices and ruins are seen as inhabited by bodies that reproduce internally the external conditions of political and social struggle The study brings into focus the fiction in which London provides not a residual interest but a strong psychic phenomenological grounding and where the awareness of the physical reality of buildings and landscape conditions shape the concept of the subject traversing this space Authors such as J G Ballard Geoff Dyer Michael Moorcock Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair Geoff Ryman Tom McCarthy Michael Bracewell and Zadie Smith are considered in order to map the relationship of body architecture and spatial politics in contemporary creative prose on the city Through readings that are consistently informed by recent developments in urban studies and reflections formulated by architects sociologists anthropologists and art critics this book offers a substantial contribution to the burgeoning field of literary urban studies

Contagion, Hygiene, and the European Avant-Garde David Hopkins, Disa Persson, 2023-07-31 This interdisciplinary collection of essays brings together scholars in the fields of art history theatre visual culture and literature to explore intersections between the European avant garde c 1880 1945 and themes of health and hygiene such as illness contagion cleanliness and contamination Examining the artistic oeuvres of some of the canonical names of modern art including Edgar Degas Edvard Munch Pablo Picasso George Orwell Marcel Duchamp and Antonin Artaud this book investigates instances where the heightened political social and cultural currencies embedded within issues of hygiene and contagion have been mobilised and subversively exploited to fuel the critical strategy at play This edited volume promotes an interdisciplinary and socio historically contextualised understanding of the criticality of the avant garde gesture and cultivates scholarship that moves beyond the limits of traditional academic subjects to produce innovative and thought provoking connections and interrelations across various fields The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history literature theatre cultural studies modern history medical humanities and visual culture

"Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924-1939" Linda Steer, 2017-07-05 The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation this study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s La Révolution surréaliste edited by André Breton Documents edited by Georges Bataille and Minotaure edited by Breton and others The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and re-contextualization and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate The book is structured around four case studies including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot's clinic at the Salpêtrière hospital positioned as poetry rather than pathology and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper's last victim radically transformed into a work of art Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical Her study shows that the act of removal and re-framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s
