The Book of Revelation Bishop Audrey Drummonds Ph.D., 2016-02-24. Volume 2 is a continuation of our study on the Book of Revelation as pertained to who we are today in Christ Jesus. It was never meant to be a book full of tormenting fear that would cause us to want to leave this world, but through the mind of Christ we have access to our heavenly inheritance to live in our Christ identity today. The Bible is a book written by God and the formation of His family. When we believe and understand the revelation of Christ already in us, we are shaped into His image so that when others see us, they see their Heavenly Father. When Jesus said "It is finished," was he just making a way for personal salvation with God, or was there a bigger picture? Have death and the judgment seat been appeased, or is there something more that we are required to do? John 14:12 says, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto my Father. For over two thousand years, the body of Christ has been like kings and lords hiding in a cave, waiting for a someday when they get to heaven to receive their inheritance as a son of God. When Jesus died, he gave us the ram's horn to declare that our jubilee is here now for us to receive. This book continues with the Holy Spirit's instructions for our spiritual process that must take place individually and then corporately in each child of God to walk in the authority and power as His son. What He created in spirit must come forth in the flesh with His image and likeness. We must know in our heart that we are an offspring, a portion of the original."
