have my pride as an Alpha and I don't want to be the only unmated sibling at my youngest sister's wedding. What's a successful but bachelor Alpha to do? Well, maybe ask the cute Omega frequenting my cafe to be my fake husband for the weekend. Only I didn't expect a weekend of fun to go so very differently. Aiden, the day after my sister leaves her three-month-old to look after, to be the parent she can't be. I get an odd request from the handsome Alpha running the cafe I frequent. And who can resist a request from the only man able to make me smile this week? So I show up, play the role of adoring husband, and that's when things go a little off script. Omegas. Destined Alpha. Two Omegas. One kiss. And an Alpha who wasn't supposed to see it happen. Nathan, I'm supposed to be an author, but I haven't finished a book in years. Not since things got out of control. So to hopefully get back on my feet, I move to a new city, start teaching at college, and suddenly find myself intrigued by two Omegas that pass me by every morning. One day, on a whim, I follow them and see something I shouldn't have seen. A kiss. A beautiful kiss. And it's the start of a journey I never expected to make. Zeke, I fled from the arranged marriage my parents set up for me, and I was ready to give up on love entirely, and then my best friend saved his younger Omega brother, Wes, from a bad situation, and suddenly I was falling head over heels. It's amazing to be at Wes's side and to see him flourish, even if our relationship is a little complicated, we're making it work. Maybe love isn't so bad after all. What I hadn't counted on was the Alpha walking into the cafe and the way my eyes keep getting drawn to him. Wes. After my brother saved me from my abusive ex, I'm getting my feet back under me. I'm finally doing the things I was never able to do, like having a job and going to college. It's not easy to combine it with caring for my four children. But with my Omega boyfriend, Zeke, and my brother's family at my side, we make it work. They're all the people I'll ever need. Until one morning, an Alpha walks into the cafe that I work at, and he asks Zeke and me out on a date together.

Second Chances Teal MacNeil, 2024-04-17. This delightful book will take you back to the 1950s when family and church were everything, to a simpler time in life when family celebrated the good times and worked through the trials together through two generations. You will laugh. You will cry. You will become involved in the triumphs and challenges that life brings through our choices and the twists and turns that life takes us on. Barbie carries a life-changing event with her to her senior years. The twins, Kara and Tara, navigate love, family, and even the heartache of not being able to have a family. Angelica dreams of becoming a nurse from the age of five to the challenge of raising a child on her own. After an hour on the trails in the gardens, Tessa suggested they take a rest on the benches ahead. It sounded like a great idea to Angelica. As they approached the benches, a man stood up, facing them. The sun was in her eyes, a bit so Angelica put her hand up to shade them. She smiled at the man politely and walked past him. She was about to sit down when suddenly she stopped. Quickly, she turned around to take a second look at the man. He was turned, facing her, in this direction now. Her mouth dropped open, and she would have fainted if he hadn't caught her. He guided her to the bench, fanning her with his trail map. He retrieved her water bottle, opened it, and handed it to her. She stared at him the whole time she took a drink. Recovering somewhat, Angelica looked at him. Mark is that you, she asked tentatively.
