Making Sense of Suicide Missions Diego Gambetta, 2006-09-21 Suicide attacks are a defining act of political violence and an extraordinary social phenomenon This book investigates the organizers of suicide missions and the perpetrators alike Provided by publisher How Then Should We Reason Frank Dragash,2008-04 Frank Dragash is a servant of Christ with an incredible passion to make an impact on the world for Christ s kingdom His ministry in multiple cultures gives him a unique perspective and he takes a creative approach to every project he undertakes This book is no exception He shows clearly that the family is intended to reflect the image of God and argues that modern culture has gone astray because they have overlooked this truth An important message that our society desperately needs to hear Dr John Bechtle Director The Telos Institute International The word person is aptly described in Webster s Dictionary in the following explanation A figure of speech in which an imaginary or absent person is represented as speaking or acting In this description we can see the reality of being made in the image of someone else This is the theme of this book In the ancient Greek theater an actor would heave a mask over his face in order to more truly represent his character who was supposed to be present at that moment in that spot but was actually absent Because of the character s inability to be present in person on stage the actor put a particular form over his own face to identify himself with the character he was representing This clearly illustrates the concept of personhood with its entire array of traits In this sense the entire life known to us is not ours it is loaned to us We are truly acting it out The only question to be answered is Will we acknowledge it or deny it Find out the answer in this book Price of Honor Jan Goodwin,2002-12-31 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK Explains powerfully how Muslim women are affected by the rise of fundamentalism Dan Rather In recent years the expanding movement of militant Islam has changed the way millions think behave dress and live but nowhere has its impact been more powerfully felt than in its dramatic often devastating effect on the lives of women Award winning journalist Jan Goodwin traveled through ten Islamic countries and interviewed hundreds of Muslim women from professionals to peasants from royalty to rebels The result is an unforgettable journey into a world where women are confined isolated even killed for the sake of a code of honor created and zealously enforced by men Price of Honor brings to life a world in which women have become pawns in a bitter power game and gives readers a provocative look inside Muslim society today in their own words Hiking Mount Rainier National Park Mary Skjelset,Heidi Radlinski,2024-11-05 Fully updated and revised the fifth edition of Hiking Mount Rainier National Park is a comprehensive and concise guide to the well maintained trails of the diverse landscape nestled between the two major metropolises of the Pacific Northwest Included are sixty hike descriptions for hikers of all ages and skill levels Paranoia, Inferiority Complex and Fanaticism Raphael Israeli,2018-02-22 For centuries Muslim countries have cultivated the myth that Jews under their rule enjoyed equality harmony and generally positive treatment But the revelation of relevant documents covering one millennium of history the 10th to the 20th centuries tell a different story one of persecution pogroms suffering and humiliation which were relieved only when France colonized North Africa in the 19th and 20th centuries The major landmark of this attitude was manifested in the inferior and humiliating dhimmi status that Jews were subjected to which dictated that the harsh rules of Muslim supremacy and dhimmi submission be applied to non Muslims in Islamdom Waging War in Waziristan Andrew M. Roe,2010 A career soldier with on the ground experience presents a gripping history of the imperial British experience in Waziristan a remote area of Pakistan Distills the hard earned British experience and offers some potentially useful lessons for the West and its current troubles in the same region once described as the epicenter of terrorism and reputedly the hiding place of Osama bin Laden Engineers of Jihad Diego Gambetta,Steffen Hertog,2017-11-28 A groundbreaking investigation into why so many Islamic radicals are engineers The violent actions of a few extremists can alter the course of history yet there persists a yawning gap between the potential impact of these individuals and what we understand about them In Engineers of Jihad Diego Gambetta and Steffen Hertog uncover two unexpected facts which they imaginatively leverage to narrow that gap they find that a disproportionate share of Islamist radicals come from an engineering background and that Islamist and right wing extremism have more in common than either does with left wing extremism in which engineers are absent while social scientists and humanities students are prominent Searching for an explanation they tackle four general questions about extremism Under which socioeconomic conditions do people join extremist groups Does the profile of extremists reflect how they self select into extremism or how groups recruit them Does ideology matter in sorting who joins which group Lastly is there a mindset susceptible to certain types of extremism Using rigorous methods and several new datasets they explain the link between educational discipline and type of radicalism by looking at two key factors the social mobility or lack thereof for engineers in the Muslim world and a particular mindset seeking order and hierarchy that is found more frequently among engineers Engineers presence in some extremist groups and not others the authors argue is a proxy for individual traits that may account for the much larger question of selective recruitment to radical activism Opening up markedly new perspectives on the motivations of political violence Engineers of Jihad yields unexpected answers about the nature and emergence of extremism Best Easy Day Hikes Mount Rainier National Park Heidi Schneider,Mary Skjelset, Lost Magic: The Very Best of Brian Moses Brian Moses,2016-09-08 A beautiful hardback collection of the very best poems by Brian Moses Includes Walking with My Iguana The Lost Angels Aliens Stole My Underpants Behind the Staffroom Door Lost Magic The Sssnake Hotel A Feather from an Angel Cakes in the Staffroom and many many more
