Novels by Aliens Kate Marshall, 2023-10-10 Twenty first century fiction and literary study have taken a decidedly weird turn they show a marked interest in the nonhuman and in the preternatural moods that the nonhuman often evokes Writers of fiction and criticism are avidly experimenting with strange even alien perspectives and protagonists Kate Marshall s Novels by Aliens explores this development broadly while focusing on problems of genre fiction She identifies three key generic hybrids that harness a longing for the nonhuman The Old Weird an alternative tradition within naturalism and modernism for the twenty first century s cowboys and aliens Cosmic Realism the reach for words legible only from space in otherwise terrestrial narratives and Pseudoscience Fiction which imagines speculative futures beyond human life on earth Marshall s book offers sharp and surprising insights about a breathtaking range of authors from Edgar Rice Burroughs to Kazuo Ishiguro Willa Cather to Maggie Nelson The Story of "Me" Marjorie Worthington,2018-11-01 Autofiction or works in which the eponymous author appears as a fictionalized character represents a significant trend in postwar American literature when it proliferated to become a kind of postmodern cliché The Story of Me charts the history and development of this genre analyzing its narratological effects and discussing its cultural implications By tracing autofiction s conceptual issues through case studies and an array of texts Marjorie Worthington sheds light on a number of issues for postwar American writing the maleness of the postmodern canon and anxieties created by the supposed waning of male privilege the relationship between celebrity and authorship the influence of theory the angst stemming from claims of the death of the author and the rise of memoir culture Worthington constructs and contextualizes a bridge between the French literary context from which the term originated and the rise of autofiction among various American literary movements from modernism to New Criticism to New Journalism The Story of Me demonstrates that the burgeoning of autofiction serves as a barometer of American literature from modernist authorial effacement to postmodern literary self consciousness
