A Treatise on the Law and Gospel John Colquhoun, The subject of this treatise writes Colquhoun is in the highest degree important and interesting both to saints and to sinners To know it experimentally is to be wise unto salvation and to live habitually under the influence of it is to be at once holy and happy To have spiritual and distinct views of it is the way to be kept from verging towards self righteousness on the one hand and licentiousness on the other and to be enabled to assert the absolute freeness of sovereign grace and at the same time the sacred interests of true holiness Without an experimental knowledge and an unfeigned faith of the law and the gospel a man can neither venerate the authority of the one nor esteem the grace of the other This classic is organized as follows Introduction Chapter I Of the Law of God in General Chapter II Of the Law of God as Promulgated to the Israelites From Mount Sinai Chapter III Of the Properties of the Moral Law Chapter IV The Rules for Understanding Aright the Ten Commandments Chapter V Of the Gospel of Christ Chapter VI Of the Uses of the Gospel and of the Law in Subservience to the Gospel Chapter VII Of the Difference Between the Law and the Gospel Chapter VIII Of the Agreement Between the Law and the Gospel Chapter IX Of the Establishment of the Law by the Gospel Chapter X Of the Believer s Privilege of Being Dead to the Law as a Covenant of Works With a Highly Important Consequence of It Chapter XI Of the High Obligations Under Which Believers Lie to Yield Even Perfect Obedience to the Law as a Rule of Life Chapter XII Of the Nature Necessity and Desert of Good Works To the Reader

The Banner of Sovereign Grace Truth ,2000     Calvin and the Federal Vision Jeong Koo Jeon,2009-06-12 John Calvin 1509-64 was the pinnacle of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation in Europe As we celebrate the five hundred year anniversary of his birth it is worthy to explore Calvin's covenant theology which may be one of the best windows to understand and evaluate his theology as a whole In recent years the Federal Vision has been surfaced in the American conservative Reformed and evangelical circles It has strong hermeneutical theological and practical attachment with Calvin Although Calvin was a covenant theologian he firmly maintained the evangelical distinction between law and gospel especially in his exposition of justification by faith alone sola fide and salvation by grace alone sola gratia with a balanced emphasis of believers' covenantal obedience Moreover we will find out that Calvin not only applied the distinction between law and gospel to soteriology but also in the depiction of redemptive history In Calvin the distinction between law and gospel was foundational for the depiction of biblical vision of eschatology in the Garden of Eden before the Fall and under the Old Covenant However the exponents of the Federal Vision deny any validity of the distinction between law and gospel in hermeneutics theology and practice while they identify themselves with those of Calvin In that sense we may identify the Federal Vision not with the Protestant Reformation and

Calvin but as consistent monocovenantalism in which they deny the distinction between law and gospel and apply that monocovenantal principle consistently to their understandings of hermeneutics soteriology the doctrine of double predestination and sacramental theology      Catholicity and the Covenant of Works Harrison Perkins,2020-08-01 James Ussher 1581 1656 one of the most important religious scholars and Protestant leaders of the seventeenth century helped shape the Church of Ireland and solidify its national identity In Catholicity and the Covenant of Works Harrison Perkins addresses the development of Christian doctrine in the Reformed tradition paying particular attention to the ways in which Ussher adopted various ideas from the broad Christian tradition to shape his doctrine of the covenant of works which he utilized to explain how God related to humanity both before and after the fall into sin Perkins highlights the ecumenical premises that underscored Reformed doctrine and the major role that Ussher played in codifying this doctrine while also shedding light on the differing perspectives of the established churches of Ireland and England Catholicity and the Covenant of Works considers how Ussher developed the doctrine of a covenant between God and Adam that was based on law and illustrates how he related the covenant of works to the doctrines of predestination Christology and salvation      The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism Bruce Gordon,Carl R. Trueman,2021 John Calvin was a leader of the European Reformation of the sixteenth century and the influence of his thought remains crucial in our world This collection explores the origins of Calvin s thought and the theological historical and cultural circumstances in which they have evolved from Geneva to our times      Martin Luther Robert Kolb,2009-02-05 Martin Luther s theology presented a paradigmatic shift in defining God and humanity refuting the foundations of Aristotelian anthropology with a new emphasis on the Revealed God and his unconditioned grace Robert Kolb traces the development of Luther s thinking within the context of late medieval theology and piety at the dawn of the modern era      Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ...
