A Vision Of Loveliness

Anne Collett, Olivia Murphy

A Vision Of Loveliness:

A Vision of Loveliness Louise Levene, 2011-05-03 Jane James knows that she must have been born to better things than a dingy bedroom in her Aunt Doreen's house in Norbury and evenings spent eating gala pie and Heinz tinned potato salad in their sitting cum dining room. So armed with her well-thumbed copy of Lady Be Good she practises her French turns her killer smile and precisely how much thigh to show when crossing her legs and dreams of a time when she can be a part of the world she glimpses through the Mayfair windows of the cashmere shop where she works. When she finds a crocodile handbag left in a pub it leads her to Suzy St John a girl about town with the glamour the confidence and the irresistible allure that Jane has been practising for so long. Suzy takes Jane under her wing and Jane becomes Janey a near carbon copy of her new best friend and a delighted adventurer in an easy sleazy sixties West End world of part time modelling and full time man trapping. Her new improved self catwalks confidently through nightclubs rag trade showrooms and luxury Mayfair flats but Jane finds that she can never quite drown out the carping voice of her past or the nagging doubt that there might be slightly more to life than a mutation mink jacket or an engagement ring. When a shocking act of violence threatens to bring Jane's glittering new life crashing down around her she must call on all her powers of reinvention if her dyed to match stilettos are to carry her away unscathed.

W. Barksdale Maynard, 2015 Nestled among picturesque rolling hills the Brandywine River winds from southeastern Pennsylvania into Delaware. The Brandywine An Intimate Portrait is the first book to trace the rich vein of history in the region from original European settlement to the Battle of the Brandywine the largest land battle of the Revolutionary War to the establishment of First State National Monument on its banks in 2013. Acclaimed writer and Brandywine Valley resident W. Barksdale Maynard crafts a sweeping narrative about the men and women who shaped the Brandywine's history and culture. They include the du Ponts who made their fortunes from gunpowder and artist Howard Pyle a native of the region whose Brandywine School of American illustration took inspiration from the pastoral environment. Most famously the Brandywine Valley is where N. C. and Andrew Wyeth father and son painted amid evocative landscapes for more than a century. With its unparalleled collection of museums and public gardens including Longwood Winterthur and Hagley the Brandywine continues to attract millions of visitors from around the world. Richly illustrated with seldom seen historical photographs paintings and drawings The Brandywine vividly captures the spirit of a storied region that has inspired generations.

Romantic Climates Anne Collett, Olivia Murphy, 2019-06-29 This book seeks to uncover how today's ideas about climate and catastrophe have been formed by the thinking of Romantic poets novelists and scientists and how these same ideas might once more be harnessed to assist us in the new climate challenges facing us in the present The global climate disaster following Mt Tambora's eruption in 1815 the Year without a Summer is a starting point from which to reconsider both how the Romantics responded to the changing climates of their day and to think about how these climatic events shaped the development of Romanticism itself As the contributions to this volume demonstrate climate is an inescapable aspect of Romantic writing and thinking Ideologies and experiences of climate inform everything from scientific writing to lyric poetry and novels The Diodati circle that assembled in Geneva in 1816 Lord Byron Percy and Mary Shelley John Polidori and John Cam Hobhouse and the gothic novelist MG Monk Lewis is synonymous with the literature of that dreary uncanny season Essays in this collection also consider the work of Jane Austen John Keats and William Wordsworth along with less well known figures such as the scientist Luke Howard and later responses to Romantic climates by John Ruskin and Virginia Woolf
