A Western View Jen Reich, Gina Dazzo, 2014-11-22 Poet Jen Reich and Photographer Gina Dazzo illustrate the beauty of the Western United States in this collection of poems and photographs Whether you open to a random page or read straight through you will find nourishment for the spirit throughout these pages Basic Critical Theory for Photographers Ashley la Grange, 2013-08-06 Basic Critical Theory for Photographers generates discussion thought and practical assignments around key debates in photography Ashley la Grange avoids the trap of an elitist and purely academic approach to critical theory taking a dual theoretical and practical approach when considering the issues Key critical theory texts such as Sontag's On Photography and Barthes' Camera Lucida are clarified and shortened La Grange avoids editorilising letting the arguments develop as the writers had intended it is the assignments which call into question each writer's approach and promote debate This is the ideal book if you want to understand key debates in photography and have a ready made structure within which to discuss and explore these fascinating issues It is accessible to students from high school to university level but will also be of interest to the general reader and to those photographers whose training and work is concerned with the practical aspects of photography Also includes invaluable glossary of terms and a substantial index that incorporates the classic texts helping you to navigate your way through these unindexed works The book also contains useful information on photo mechanical processes explaining how a photograph can appear very differently and as a result be interpreted in a range of ways in a variety of books

In the Image: A Novel Dara Horn, 2003-08-26 Bill Landsmann an elderly Jewish refugee in a New Jersey suburb collects images from the Bible that he finds scattered throughout the world The novel begins when he crosses paths with his granddaughter's friend Leora revealing the unexpected links between his family's past and her family's future

The Image of the Artist in Archaic and Classical Greece Guy Hedreen, 2016 This book explores the persona of the artist in Archaic and Classical Greek art and literature Guy Hedreen argues that artistic subjectivity first expressed in Athenian vase painting of the sixth century BCE and intensively explored by Euphronios developed alongside a self consciously constructed persona of the poet He explains how poets like Archilochos and Hipponax identified with the wily Homeric character of Odysseus as a prototype of the successful narrator and how the lame yet resourceful artist god Hephaistos is emulated by Archaic vase painters such as Kleitias In lyric poetry and pictorial art Hedreen traces a widespread conception of the artist or poet as socially marginal sometimes physically imperfect but rhetorically clever technically peerless and a master of fiction Bringing together in a sustained analysis the roots of subjectivity across media this book offers a new way of studying the relationship between poetry and art in ancient Greece Figurative Poetry in Sanskrit Literature K.N. Jha, 1975-01-01 This book is an attempt at resolving an important tangle that of the utility of Figurative Poetry in Sanskrit Literature In the shape of Sabdacitra and Ubhayacitra connoting verbal juggleries and intellectual riddles this literature amuses vast shades of people even today Arthacitra is the real imagist poetry Even old Sanskrit rhetoricians Ananda Abhinava and Panditaraja had a flash of its imagist appeal The book is divided into seven chapters Ch I is introductory It re defines poetry and assesses the place of figurative poetry in that context Ch II deals with the historicity of different divisions and subdivisions of this branch of poetry as also with some new concepts either co ordinate with them or contributory to their development Chs III IV discuss the various divisions of Sabdacitra and Ubhayacitra with apt illustrations from copious sources Chs V VI deal with Arthacitra and the development of Citrakavya right from the Vedic age Ch VII affirms and establishes the conviction of the concept treated in the previous chapters The book is documented with Preface Abbreviations Appendices Bibliography and Index

Words and Images Alfreda Murck, Wen Fong, 1991 In May of 1985 an international symposium was held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art in honor of John M Crawford Jr whose gifts of Chinese calligraphy and painting have constituted a significant addition to the Museum s holdings Over a three day period senior scholars from China Japan Taiwan Europe and the United States expressed a wide range of perspectives on an issue central to the history of Chinese visual aesthetics the relationships between poetry calligraphy and painting The practice of integrating the three art forms known as san chieh or the three perfections in one work of art emerged during the Sung and Yuan dynasties largely in the context of literati culture and it has stimulated lively critical discussion ever since This publication contains twenty three essays based on the papers presented at the Crawford symposium Grouped by subject matter in a roughly chronological order these essays reflect research on topics spanning two millennia of Chinese history The result is an interdisciplinary exploration of the complex set of relationships between words and images by art historians literary historians and scholars of calligraphy Their findings provide us with a new level of understanding of this rich and complicated subject and suggest further directions for the study of Chinese art history The essays are accompanied by 255 illustrations some of which reproduce works rarely published Chinese characters have been provided throughout the text for artists names terms titles of works of art and literature and important historical figures as well as for excerpts of selected poetry and prose A chronology also containing Chinese characters and an extensive index contribute to making this book illuminating and invaluable to both the specialist and the layman

The New American West in Literature and the Arts Amaia Ibarraran-Bigalondo, 2020-05-12 The story of the American West is that of a journey It is the story of a movement of a geographical and human transition of the delineation of a route that would soon become a rooted myth The story of the American West has similarly journeyed across boundaries in a two way movement sometimes feeding the idea of that myth sometimes challenging it This collection of essays relates to the notion of the traveling essence of the myth of the American West from different geographical and disciplinary standpoints The volume originates in Europe in Spain where the myth traveled was received assimilated and re presented It intends to travel back to the West in a two way cross cultural journey which will hopefully contribute to the delineation of the New always self renewing American West It includes the work of authors of both sides of the Atlantic ocean who propose a cross cultural transdisciplinary dialogue upon the idea the geography and the representation of the American West

Power and Perspective Karina Corrigan, Stephanie H. Tung, Bing Wang (Museum cataloging assistant), Tingting Xu, 2022-01-01 A critical reconsideration of the history of photography that explores how commerce and conflict fueled its practice in nineteenth century China Photography s development as a new form of art and technology coincided with profound changes in the way China engaged with the world in the nineteenth century The medium evolved in response to war trade travel and a desire for knowledge about an unfamiliar place Power and Perspective provides a rich account of the exchanges among photographers artists patrons and subjects in the treaty port cities that connected China and the West Drawing primarily from the Peabody Essex Museum s historic and largely unpublished collection of photographs this generously illustrated volume examines the confrontations and collaborations that shaped the adoption and practice of photography in China Offering an original reassessment of the colonial legacy of the medium Power and Perspective addresses photography s representations of racial hierarchy and its entanglement with histories of European imperialism in nineteenth century China Distributed for the Peabody Essex Museum Exhibition Schedule Peabody Essex Museum Salem MA September 24 2022 April 2 2023 Selective Guide to Chinese Literature 1900-1949, Volume 3 Poem Haft, 2023-07-24

A Selective Guide to Chinese Literature, 1900-1949 Nils Göran David Malmqvist, European Science Foundation, 1988 The West Virginia School Journal , 1911 Pictures of the Heart Joshua S. Mostow, 1996-10-01 This book provides for the first time in English the kind of information that allows an accurate appreciation of the meanings and quality of Japanese poems Mostow s reception oriented approach in this poem by poem discussion inspires an excellent essay on the history of English translations of this collection Choice Joshua Mostow offers a brilliant and multifaceted exploration of Japanese poetics through translations commentaries and both literary and visual readings of the most influential of all poem anthologies This book penetrates to the heart of traditional Japanese aesthetics Stephen Addiss University of Richmond a rigorous and engaging study of an extremely important Japanese text It is filled with information and shows a real appreciation for the often unarticulated assumptions that lay behind certain understandings both Japanese and Western concerning meaning and significance in a work of literature The study breaks still further ground by articulating and in the most persuasive fashion issues relating to text and image that are central to the Japanese arts in virtually all periods Professor Mostow has written a book that should interest not only specialists in the fields of Japanese literature and fine arts but virtually anyone who enjoys reading poetry in an active and thoughtful fashion J Thomas Rimer University of Pittsburgh The Imperial Patronage of Labor Genre Paintings in Eighteenth-Century China Roslyn Lee Hammers, 2021-03-30 This book examines the agrarian labor genre paintings based on the Pictures of Tilling and Weaving that were commissioned by successive Chinese emperors Furthermore this book analyzes the genre s imagery as well as the poems in their historical context and explains how the paintings contributed to distinctively cosmopolitan Qing imagery that also drew upon European visual styles Roslyn Lee Hammers contends that technologically informed imagery was not merely didactic imagery to teach viewers how to grow rice or produce silk The Qing emperors invested in paintings of labor to substantiate the permanence of the dynasty and to promote the well being of the people under Manchu governance The book includes English translations of the poems of the Pictures of Tilling and Weaving as well as other documents that have not been brought together in translation The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Chinese history Chinese studies history of science and technology book history labor history and Qing history Form and

Footprint Patrick Chamoiseau,2022-10-18 The discovery in Robinson Crusoe of the footprint of a fellow human on an abandoned island is a haunting and iconic moment in world literature In the hands of Patrick Chamoiseau one of the most innovative and lauded authors in the French language this moment of shattered solitude becomes an occasion for Crusoe to reconsider his origins existence and humanity and for one of our most acclaimed novelists to craft a powerful meditation on race and history Chamoiseau s novel contrasts two intertwining narratives the log entries of a slave ship s captain and the story of a castaway who awakens on a beach and must rebuild his entire world alone Chamoiseau creates a new perspective on the Crusoe myth not only injecting the slave trade and Creole history into this previously ahistorical tale but conceiving an intensely original freeform prose influenced by Creole cadence This powerful work by a literary master is available in English for the first time in this eloquent and vivid translation Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present

Margaret Greaves,2023-05-23 Poetry and astronomy often travel together in the political sphere from Milton s meeting with Galileo under house arrest to NASA s practice of launching poems into space Anchored in the post war period but drawing on a long history of poetry and science Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present charts the surprising connection between poetry and extra terrestrial space In an era defined by the vast scales of globalization environmental disaster and space travel poets bring the small scales of lyric intimacy to bear on cosmic immensity While outer space might seem the domain of more popular genres lyric poetry has ancient and enduring associations with cosmic inquiry that have made it central to post war space culture As the Cold War played out in space American institutions and media from NASA to Star Trek enlisted poetry to present space exploration as a peaceful mission on behalf of humankind Meanwhile poets from across the globe have turned to the cosmos to contest American imperialism challenging conventional ideas about lyric poetry in the process Poets including Elizabeth Bishop Adrienne Rich Seamus Heaney Derek Walcott Agha Shahid Ali and Tracy K Smith invoke the extra terrestrial to interrogate national histories alongside their craft Dazzled by the aesthetics of astronomy but wary of its imperial uses poets employ astronomical figures and methods to imagine how we might care for
