A Royal Love:

Royal Love Stories Gill Paul, 2015-01-12 Historically many royal marriages have represented the unions of dynasties with true engagements of the heart notable for their rarity Yet royal couples could fall in love and this book is full of surprises from the undying love that the last Tsar of Russia Nicholas II felt for his Tsarina to the unlikely love that flourished between Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette Amongst them too are less happy loves of Crown Prince Rudolph for his 17 year old lover Countess Mary Vetsera or in the 1940s of the Prince of Sweden refused consent to marry the girl he loved she only became his princess over 30 years later Bringing the reader right up to modern times and touching absorbing and tragic by turns these stories bring the glamour and the contradictions of royalty vividly to life The Duke Is Deceived Barbara Cartland, 2013-02-14 Princess Zelda of Brienz in Switzerland is being harassed by her father to marry a King or Prince of one of the small countries of Europe Zelda is very beautiful and determined that when she does marry it will be for love and only love so to avoid a forced marriage she runs away from her home to her cousin Prince Johann II of Liechtenstein who has always been very fond of her Search for a Wife Barbara Cartland, 2012-09-14 The Marquis of Milverton strides into White's Club in a high state of irritation as he is being pestered by his family to take a suitable girl for his wife He is not surprised to find that his aristocratic friends are suffering the same pressure and they gather together to complain about their plight They are all having affairs de coeur with seductive married ladies and the Marquis himself is very much involved with a glamorous Countess However they all recognise that they will have to marry eventually to carry on their ancestral title and family legacy Listening to their grumbling is the Duke of Sandelford and he challenges them to go out into the countryside in disguise and find a beautiful girl to be their dream wife If after three months they failed they were to admit failure and accept their family's suggestions He also offers a one thousand pounds prize to those who succeed He left them feeling it was at least a sporting chance and the Marquis was the first to accept the Duke's challenge Disguising himself as John Milton he sets out alone on his horse and has a number of unlikely adventures with people he would normally have never encountered He helps some of them to happiness then becomes bored and decides to return home but will give one more village a last chance How the Marquis becomes involved with a ruthless gang of horse thieves and then unexpectedly finds all he is seeking and can claim the Duke's prize is told in this exciting and different tale by BARBARA CARTLAND No Bride, No Wedding Barbara Cartland, 2015-12-14 Calina Hart's mother the lovely Lady Carol Wood was being forced by her ambitious father the Earl of Hurstwood to marry the Duke of Denholme who is dull boring and a poor rider but is a Duke Early in the morning of the day of her Wedding to the Duke Lady Carol runs away with John Hart who is a brilliant trainer of her father's horses as she has fallen in love with him and refuses to marry a man she does not and cannot love The Earl is furious and the Duke is made to look a fool and Society is understandably scandalised and fascinated by the story of the runaway bride They marry at once and then escape to Cornwall and nobody knows where they are and soon their adored daughter Calina is born and she becomes more beautiful every year Lady Carol and John Hart had always been very happy together until he died of a virulent fever in Egypt whilst taking four outstanding horses he had trained to the Khedive Calina and her mother had been about to travel to Egypt to visit his grave when her mother had died more of a broken heart than anything else Although Calina did not have much money she wanted to carry on with the journey that she and her mother had planned and she left on a ship bound for Cairo As she was not chaperoned she wore widows weeds and called herself Lady Hartington after making slight alterations to her mother s passport As she has a title she is invited to join the Captain s table and there she meets the good looking Marquis of Merryfield who is gracious and charming to her and they enjoy each other s company Later in the voyage after stopping at Naples she meets Mr Oliver Bagshot an American millionaire who never stops talking about himself and he is instantly attracted to Calina and begins to pester her How she finds Mr Oliver Bagshot in her cabin one night after dinner with a bottle of champagne in his hand and how she runs desperately to the Marquis for help and with a most unexpected result is all told in this romantic and intriguing tale by BARBARA CARTLAND
