A Singular Moment Of Consciousness Conflict In China:

A Singular Moment of Consciousness Anthony McGrath, 2018-10-26 This is the significantly revised version of the first edition containing new chapters and extended story information A Singular Moment of Consciousness is a work of historical fiction based on the recovered memories of Anthony McGrath It weaves a story of star crossed lovers drawn together to a recurring union and fated destiny in China interwoven with historical figures of the times Set in the Boxer rebellion of the 1900 s it examines the intricate manipulation of power money sex intrigue and politics of warring empires as they struggle for domination at all costs It depicts how the ordinary and extraordinary characters lived at the time with powerful illustrations of Qi Gong Chinese Healing Arts and Sciences together with the day to day issues of simply surviving in a war torn decaying Empire

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew, 2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore s mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore s beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies

China, the USA and Capitalism's Last Crusade William Briggs, 2021-10-29 As the sun rises on China and sets on America the world holds its breath China the USA and Capitalism s Last Crusade looks at the rise of China and the decline of the USA but from a different angle William Briggs argues that this struggle for economic supremacy is being played out against a much bigger backdrop the decline of the economic structure of capitalism In this sense the decline of the USA is portrayed as that larger economic decline in microcosm Briggs examines the relationship between state and capital of how capitalism came to dominate the world and of the historical political and economic rise of both the USA and China He shows that the struggle between the two nations has little to do with cultural historical demographic political or ideological differences but with what they have in common Despite the portrayal of China as being socialist it functions as a capitalist economy in the globalised capitalist world While its journey to capitalism may have differed the end point is the same and this is why there is such animosity such conflict such acrimony between the two states

Reflections of a Metaphysical Flaneur Raymond Tallis, 2014-09-11 These essays from one of our most stimulating thinkers showcase Tallis's infectious fascination indeed intoxication with the infinite complexity of human lives and the human condition In the title essay we join Tallis on a stroll around his local park and the intricate passages of his own consciousness as he uses the motif of the walk the amble to occasion a series of meditations on the freedoms that only human beings possess In subsequent essays the flaneur thinks about his brain his relationship to the rest of the animal kingdom his profession of medicine and about the physical world and the claims of physical science to have rendered philosophical reflection obsolete Taken together the essays continue Tallis's mission to elaborate a vision of humanity that rejects religious myths while not succumbing to scientism or any other form of naturalism Written with the author's customary intellectual energy and vigour these essays provoke move and challenge us to think differently about who we are and our place in the material world

Narrating Nonhuman Spaces Marco Caracciolo, Marlene Karlsson Marcussen, David Rodriguez, 2021-08-18 Recent debates about the Anthropocene have prompted a re negotiation of the relationship between human subjectivity and nonhuman matter within a wide range of disciplines This collection builds on the assumption that our understanding of the nonhuman world is bound up with the experience of space thinking about and with nonhuman spaces destabilizes human scale assumptions Literary form affords this kind of nonanthropocentric experience one role of the critic in the Anthropocene is to foreground the function of space and description in challenging the conventional link between narrative and human intersubjectivity Bringing together New Formalism ecocriticism and narrative theory the included essays demonstrate that literature can transgress the strong and long established boundary of the human frame that literary and narrative scholarship clings to The focus is firmly on the contemporary but with strategic samplings in earlier cultural texts the American transcendentalists modernist fiction that anticipate present day anxieties about the nonhuman while at the same time offering important conceptual tools for working through them

Other Modernities Lisa Rofel, 1999-03-01 In this analysis of three generations of women in a Chinese silk factory Lisa Rofel brilliantly interweaves the intimate details of her observations with a broad ranging critique of the meaning of modernity in a postmodern age The author based her study at a silk factory in the city of Hangzhou in eastern China She compares the lives of three generations of women workers those who entered the factory right around the Communist revolution in 1949 those who were youths during the Cultural Revolution of the 1970s and those who have come of age in the Deng era Exploring attitudes toward work marriage society and culture she convincingly connects the changing meanings of the modern in official discourse to the stories women tell about themselves and what they make of their lives One of the first studies to take up theoretically sophisticated issues about gender modernity and power based on a solid ethnographic ground this much needed cross generational study will be a model for future anthropological work around the world

China and New Left Visions Jie Lu, Ban

Wang,2012-07-20 Against the dire consequences of China's market development a new intellectual force of the New Left has come on the scene since the mid 1990s New Left intellectuals debate the issues of social justice distributive equality markets state intervention the socialist legacy and sustainable development Against the neoliberal trends of free markets liberal democracy and consumerism New Left critics launched a critique in hopes of seeking an alternative to global capitalism This volume takes a comprehensive look at China's New Left in intellectual cultural and literary manifestations The writers place the New Left within a global anti hegemonic movement and the legacy of the Cold War They discover grassroots literature that portrays the plight and resilience of the downtrodden and disadvantaged With historical visions the writers also shed light on the present by drawing on the socialist past

Minor China Hentyle Yapp,2021-03-12 In Minor China Hentyle Yapp analyzes contemporary Chinese art as it circulates on the global art market to outline the limitations of Western understandings of non Western art Yapp reconsiders the all too common narratives about Chinese art that celebrate the heroic artist who embodies political resistance against the authoritarian state These narratives as Yapp establishes prevent Chinese art aesthetics and politics from being discussed in the West outside the terms of Western liberalism and notions of the universal Yapp engages with art ranging from photography and performance to curation and installations to foreground what he calls the minor as method tracking aesthetic and intellectual practices that challenge the predetermined ideas and political concerns that uphold dominant conceptions of history the state and the subject By examining the minor in the work of artists such as Ai Weiwei Zhang Huan Cao Fei Cai Guo Qiang Carol Yinghua Lu and others Yapp demonstrates that the minor allows for discussing non Western art more broadly and for reconfiguring dominant political and aesthetic institutions and structures

The London and China Telegraph ,1870 University Magazine ,1903 The McGill University Magazine McGill University,1903 The Economist ,1884 The Future Conditional Eric S. Henry,2021-05-15 In The Future Conditional Eric S Henry brings twelve years of expertise and research to offer a nuanced discussion of the globalization of the English language and the widespread effects it has had on Shenyang the capital and largest city of China s northeast Liaoning Province Adopting an ethnographic and linguistic perspective Henry considers the personal connotations that English has for Chinese people beyond its role in the education system Through research on how English is spoken taught and studied in China Henry considers what the language itself means to Chinese speakers How and why he asks has English become so deeply fascinating in contemporary China simultaneously existing as a source of desire and anxiety The answer he suggests is that English speaking Chinese consider themselves distinctly separate from those who do not speak the language the result of a cultural assumption that speaking English makes a person modern Seeing language as a study that goes beyond the classroom The Future Conditional assesses the emerging viewpoint that for many citizens speaking English in China has become a cultural need and more immediately a realization of one s future
