

... A BIG CITY HOTEL

... AN EXPENSIVE BLONDE

... AN EVIL RACKET

These are the things that happened, once the woman entered the hotel: theft, seduction and murder.

But what was even worse were the things that took place unseen, unknown, the things that plunged a boy into brutish rage.

With a pen sharp as a surgeon's lance, Jim Thompson explores the mind of an impressionable boy as it is shaped and re-shaped by a provocative woman.

A Swell-Looking Babe Jim Thompson, 2024-09-24 A man is drawn into a murder in one of Jim Thompson's best sharp and markedly individual studies in crime and punishment a rattling good story New York Times It was supposed to be only a temporary job something to pay the bills until Dusty could get his feet back on the ground and raise enough money for medical school After all there's nothing wrong with being a bellboy at a respectable hotel like the Manton that is until she came along Marcia Hillis The perfect woman Beautiful Experienced Older and wiser The only woman to ever measure up to that other her the one whose painful rejection Dusty can't quite put from his mind But while Dusty has designs on Marcia Marcia has an agenda of her own One that threatens to pull the Manton inside out use Dusty up for all he's worth and leave him reeling and on the run the whole world at his heels A richly imagined crime narrative of the Oedipal and betrayal A Swell Looking Babe is Thompson at his very best a cornerstone in Thompson's enduring legacy as the Dimestore Dostoyevsky of American fiction Praise for Jim Thompson A blisteringly imaginative crime novelist violent amoral terse and fast moving a classic American writer Kirkus Reviews My favorite crime novelist Often imitated but never duplicated Stephen King

Keith Booker,2002-01-30 In America the long 1950s were marked by an intense skepticism toward utopian alternatives to the existing capitalist order This skepticism was closely related to the climate of the Cold War in which the demonization of socialism contributed to a dismissal of all alternatives to capitalism This book studies how American novels and films of the long 1950s reflect the loss of the utopian imagination and mirror the growing concern that capitalism brought routinization alienation and other dehumanizing consequences The volume relates the decline of the utopian vision to the rise of late capitalism with its expanding globalization and consumerism and to the beginnings of postmodernism In addition to well known literary novels such as Nabokov's Lolita Booker explores a large body of leftist fiction popular novels and the films of Alfred Hitchcock and Walt Disney The book argues that while the canonical novels of the period employ a utopian aesthetic that aesthetic tends to be very weak and is not reinforced by content The leftist novels on the other hand employ a realist aesthetic but are utopian in their exploration of alternatives to capitalism The study concludes that the utopian energies in cultural productions of the long 1950s are very weak and that these works tend to dismiss utopian thinking as naïve or even sinister The weak utopianism in these works tends to be reflected in characteristics associated with postmodernism      Bedelia Vera Caspary,2012-10-01 You must read Bedelia the seductive black widow thriller by the author of the classic film noir Laura The New York Times Charlie Horst has returned with his new bride Bedelia to his family home in Connecticut Indulgently infatuated Charlie is the luckiest man alive What's not to love about Bedelia She's gorgeous and complacent She's also a gracious and ideal party host luscious and decorative in blue velvet And in public she plays the part of worshipful wife to perfection In private even more so Who can blame Charlie for overlooking her little deceptions Or for not paying any mind to her contradictory claims about her past When Charlie falls ill due to a freak poisoning Charlie knows that Bedelia will be right his side watching him closely But who's watching Bedelia Vera Caspary wrote thrillers but not like any other author of her time male or female Her specialty was a specific type that she pioneered the psycho thriller Huffington Post and this sinister entertainment The New Yorker is Caspary at her most chilling SistersinCrime.com Filmed in 1946 and starring Margaret Lockwood it's a tour de force of psychological suspense Desperate Housewives meets Double Indemnity in Bedelia Liahna Armstrong President Emeritus Popular Culture Association      Dr. Strangelove's America Margot A.
