An Interview with a Spirit Claudia Tucker,2012-06-28 Sins of a Mulatto Outcast Robert Fouché',2015-04-07 Homer grows up knowing he looks different than most kids in his neighborhood Although both his parents are African American his appearance more closely resembles a Caucasian As he struggles to fit in with others in his African American race Homer faces prejudice and bullying by those who brand him the white kid until he decides to fight back transforming himself and his attitude forever On his wayward journey to removing himself from his surroundings Homer feels his looks are a curse which sets off a series of horrific events that test all his emotions To others it seems as though Homer has been given all the keys to unlock the American Dream Unfortunately they are unaware of his sins as a youth As Homer relives his experiences joys and challenges through the metaphorical structure of eighteen holes of golf he shines a light on his determined quest to overcome his outcast label accept his mixed heritage seek forgiveness and more importantly love himself Sins of a Mulatto Outcast tells the compelling tale of one man's struggles to embrace his uniqueness in order to achieve happiness in life

Diaries of a Traveling Renegade Mary Maurine Tucker,2022-11-03 I want to share my story of survival in hopes to give others courage I had been seeing women being murdered almost daily by their husbands who later were found to be abusive Lacey Peterson is one that comes to mind most frequently because her abuser killed not only her but their unborn child This saddened me I had left my abuser against all odds Why could these women not leave before it escalated to this point People had told me I should write a book tell my story God told me it was time to write If I could overcome abuse from childhood sexual molestation and spousal abuse why was it so hard for them I had help the Lord was there for me every time I called to him and many times I did not Telling me what to do The Holy Spirit was with me through the writing of this book I was just his vessel A Guide to Developing a Community-based, Designated Driver Program ,1994 A

GRANDFATHER'S GIFT James E. Smith, Sr.,2014-02 This book is about my life experiences and also contains the stories I have heard my folks tell while sitting on the front porch after supper For many years my maternal grandfather lived with us He and my dad would swap interesting stories about times when they were growing up and farming with oxen and mules They talked about the dummy line railroads that ran through the forest near our home and told their childhood tales and many other stories I would long for later in life I wanted to pass this and my life stories down to my descendants Many interesting stories were told in the serene setting of the front porch deep in the country with only the interruptions of whippoorwills hoot owls screech owls and such making pleasant noises in the distant woods I hope that this book will inspire future generations in some way to understand the important things in life It s been said that the best things are free and I learned that one only has to make necessary efforts to obtain a peaceful happy and fulfilling life
