Hasana Sharp, 2021-02 There have been many Spinozas over the centuries atheist romantic pantheist great thinker of the multitude advocate of the liberated individual and rigorous rationalist The common thread connecting all of these clashing perspectives is Spinoza's naturalism the idea that humanity is part of nature not above it In this sophisticated new interpretation of Spinoza's iconoclastic philosophy Hasana Sharp draws on his uncompromising naturalism to rethink human agency ethics and political practice Sharp uses Spinoza to outline a practical wisdom of renaturalization showing how ideas actions and institutions are never merely products of human intention or design but outcomes of the complex relationships among natural forces beyond our control This lack of a metaphysical or moral division between humanity and the rest of nature Sharp contends can provide the basis for an ethical and political practice free from the tendency to view ourselves as either gods or beasts Sharp's groundbreaking argument critically engages with important contemporary thinkers including deep ecologists feminists and race and critical theorists making Spinoza and the Politics of Renaturalization vital for a wide range of scholars Spinoza Pierre-François Moreau, 1975 Hegel and Spinoza Adam Harvey Stephenson, 1986
