Reflections on Spirituality in Pastoral Psychotherapy C. Leon Sims, 2013-11-14 Reflections of Spirituality in Pastoral Psychotherapy supports the pastoral and counseling practitioner's assurance that spirituality is imbedded within the human experience and may be presumed to be a positive resource for remediation and reconciliation The work is at once autobiographical and theological In many ways the author's approach echoes the pilgrim's path of the faithful disciple A clear distinction is provided by which one may identify the spiritually sensitive counselor Leon Sims sketches a treatment program but emphasizes how one may explore theoretical materials germane to a faith community to reframe approaches to clients problems and personal pain Although the approach is based on Christian principles there will be suggestive resources for divergent orientations The model for theoretical reflection is a major strength of the book

Reclaiming Sacrifice Chelsea Jordan King, 2024-10-14 Many Christians profess that Jesus died as a sacrifice for sins The Catholic Mass is even understood as a sacrifice Some take issue with this language for it seems to put forward an idea of God that is implicated in vengeance and violence Why would God accept the murder of an innocent man as a sacrifice for sin As important as this question is there is a more fundamental question What does it mean to say that Jesus dies as a sacrifice for sin Within feminist theology the very idea of sacrifice is laced with tension Women and other marginalized groups have historically been oppressed by the use of the language of sacrifice They have been told to live lives of self sacrifice at the expense of their well being Thus many reject the language of sacrifice outright Starting with an exploration of Ren Girard's understanding of sacrifice Chelsea Jordan King places Girard into direct dialogue with feminist theologians who raised similar critiques of violence She then shows how we can reclaim the language of sacrifice in such a way that is liberative for all women and other marginalized groups
