A World Split Apart Dualism In Western Culture And Theology:

A World Split Apart M. James Sawyer, 2016-03-21 Christian faith and theology always reflect the culture patterns of thinking understanding and worldview in which they are planted Western Culture for nearly 2500 years has looked to the philosophical heritage of ancient Greece to interpret reality particularly the dualistic patterns of thinking set forth by Plato and Aristotle In contrast to this Greek dualism Christianity arose out of the Hebraic worldview whose thinking patterns are holistic as opposed to dualistic But both Catholicism and Protestantism have been held captive to various forms of dualism since the fifth century Dualism has robbed Western culture of freedom and cut us off from and hope of a true knowledge of reality in itself Instead it has limited knowledge to mere appearances In the past century the rise of the theories of Relativity and Quantum Mechanics has shown that reality is holistic and interrelated rather than reflecting two underlying irreconcilable dualistic realms A World Split Apart provides a survey of dualism and its effects on Western culture and theology And shows that we can truly have a holistic understanding of reality and opens the door for a more profound consistent and rational understanding of the Trinity the person of the incarnate Christ and the implications that these theological realities have for all of life Wesleyan Perspectives on Human Flourishing Dean G. Smith, Rob A. Fringer, 2021-11-12 Human flourishing is an ever expanding concept that crosses geographic ethnic cultural and religious lines as persons both individually and corporately seek to find happiness fulfillment and purpose This book brings together well established and burgeoning Wesleyan scholars to consider not only John and Charles Wesley's understanding of human flourishing but the broader Wesleyan perspectives on contemporary issues such as calling creation care healthcare education technological enhancements death and dying and more Throughout these chapters the complexities and challenges of life both past and present are explored and grappled with and we are reminded over and over again that God is the ultimate source of flourishing Readings in Ecology and Feminist Theology Mary Heather MacKinnon, Moni McIntyre, 1995 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com Iranian Civilization and Culture Charles J. Adams, 1973-01-01 Dialectic of Romanticism Peter Murphy, David Roberts, 2005-10-01 Dialectic of Romanticism presents a radical new assessment of the aesthetic and philosophical history and future of modernity An exploration of the internal critique of modernism treats romanticism later historicism and post modernism as central to the development of European modernism alongside enlightenment and like the enlightenment subject to its own dead ends and fatalities An external critique of modernism recovers concepts of civilization and civic aesthetics which are trans historical simultaneously modern and classically inspired and provides a counter both to romantic historicism and enlightened models of progress Finally a retrospective critique of modernism analyses what happens to modernism's romantic archaic and technological futurist visions when they are translated from Europe to America Dialectic of Romanticism argues that out of the European dialectic of romanticism and enlightenment a new dialectic of modernity is emerging in the New World one Esotericism in Western Culture Wouter J. Hanegraaff, 2025-05-29 This accessible introduction by the world's leading expert explains why the study of esotericism is not a marginal pursuit but belongs at the center of modern research in the humanities. Reflecting updates in the field since the foundational publication Western Esotericism: A Guide for the Perplexed (2013), Wouter J. Hanegraaff demonstrates that the exclusion of rejected knowledge from normative accounts of Western civilization is the reflection of a narrow Eurocentric ideology that became the template for discrediting and ultimately destroying so-called primitive cultures associated with superstition and pagan idolatry during the global colonial age. Rejecting this rejection of rejected knowledge means restoring the suppressed to its legitimate place in history and cultural analysis. Through this approach, Wouter J. Hanegraaff depicts a radically inclusive vision of the Greater West and its forgotten histories from pagan antiquity through Jewish, Christian, and Islamic cultures up to secular modernity and beyond.

Spiritual Intelligence and the Neuroplastic Brain Charles W. Mark Ph. D., Charles W. Mark, 2010 Our brains are getting wired differently in the world of digital technology, information revolution, and in the intercultural world of global society. Think of the new vocabulary: Global brain, collective intelligence, global village, and cyberspace. That should tell us something about the neural rewiring that is taking place inside of our brains, whether or not we are aware of it. The fact that the human brain changes throughout a person's life in response to intellectual stimulation, physical exercise, exposure to new cultural environments, learning opportunities, and challenges is a revolutionary discovery. Till twenty years ago, neuroscientists believed in the conventional theory that the brain's ability at making new neural connections stopped before a child entered adolescence. That is the old dogma. There is a Second Copernican Revolution taking place inside of our brains, writes the author, quoting Carl Zimmer. Some experts are suggesting that we are already living in what Richard Restack calls the neurosociety. Ray Kurzweil, the futurist, is predicting that by 2045 A.D. human beings will be living in an era of singularity when non-biological machines, invented by human brains and human ingenuity, are going to outsmart human intelligence billions of times. What is going to be the fate of the human spirit, human spirituality, the feeling of connection to a force and power that is greater than us, God, our ability to use spiritual imagination and our intelligence? Are we progressively moving away from religion and community-based spirituality into the spirituality of different strokes for different folks? In his groundbreaking book Spiritual Intelligence and The Neuroplastic Brain: A Contextual Interpretation of Modern History, Charles W. Mark takes the reader on a journey through modern history and shows the glimpse of what is to come. <http://www.spiritualityintelligence.com>
