the core of one's feelings, senses and environment. In her poetry, she often poses questions she asks of herself and her readers as this offers a reflective component and a depth of insight for all to ponder over time. Leslie's first poem, "Looking out of My Window," was written at the age of thirteen. Ever since that time, Leslie knew her writing would forever be a cornerstone for reflection, introspection, and healing in her life. She is inspired daily by that which she is deeply moved and still longs for a simplistic life of long walks, reading, writing, and daily siestas. For she feels that in today's digital age and the fast pace of American society, the true art of taking one's time and living a quality life suffers extinction. To all of her readers, she encourages them to relax, read, reflect, ponder, and enjoy her first book, Mis Pensamientos, Mis Percepciones y Mi Poesia (My Thoughts, My Perceptions, and My Poetry). Legislation 75 Fred M. Weitz, 2007-10 Jon Smith keeps a diary of stories concerning the hotly debated Legislation 75 which mandates death for all people by lethal injection on their seventy-fifth birthdays. The topic hits close to home when Jon receives his first invitation to a going-away party from his new friend Bennie. Following Bennie's state-mandated death, Jon walks daily with his dog and regularly encounters Bennie who is in another dimension. Bennie reveals to Jon that he had participated in the government's covert Fountain of Youth Project which has shown that certain manipulations of body chemistry and cellular structure slow the human aging process to a crawl. Public exposure of the project is forbidden due to the financial impact it would have on the pharmaceutical industry, but Jon is compelled to find a way to bring the Fountain of Youth Project to the public eye. This thought-provoking novel examines the implications of government-dictated termination and the many physical, emotional, and spiritual considerations of a mandated end to life, however vibrant at age seventy-five. It explores how we age, what truly constitutes quality of life, and where people find meaning and purpose. Simply Free Michael G. Hogan, 2017-09-12 When Michael Hogan started writing, he never set out to pen a poetry collection. He simply told stories of his dad, and over time, the stories became confessionals in rhyme. Watching someone suffer through the terrible disease of alcoholism taught Michael many life lessons, ones he never wanted to learn. The only way to exorcise those old demons was to write. Simply Free is a collection of words that ring true to any child, spouse, or family member of an addict. In "Something's Wrong, Dad," he gives voice to a child's fear: "Who are you, Dad? You change too much. Like when you drink, is that your crutch? What's in the bottle you crave so dearly? It doesn't help me see you clearly. I pray, I pray for things to turn steady, my mind from the churn. Only my dad controls the change. Please, Dad, don't be so strange." Dedicated to his dad, Simply Free flowed much easier than Michael originally expected. He believed sharing his thoughts and feelings would be unsettling; instead, the poems set him free. Through words, happy and sad, read of hope, postaddiction, and the love of a child for his father. Finding Home Colleen Johnson, 2023-01-07 This book takes a unique approach to the idea of soul care by comparing it to the concept of home. When we allow Jesus to do a transformational work in our souls, to give us the feeling of home—loved, secure, nourished, accepted, and healing every day. When we make it a practice to cultivate Jesus' presence within us, we will feel at home in our inner being instead of being spiritually and emotionally homeless When we cultivate the presence of Jesus and work through key soul care principles and develop a rhythm of a practices that incorporate the spiritual disciplines of feeding on God s Word worship and thanksgiving listening prayer praying scripture and times of fasting and solitude it leads our soul home These practices create an atmosphere that God uses to fill us with more of Himself and His ways The more of God we have the more He guides us to tear down walls of self protection find the truth of who we are in Christ and defeat the attacks of our enemy Satan so that we start walking more as Jesus walked This process brings our soul to the home where it belongs
