Wildness in a Small Place Randy Minnich, 2004-11-01 A journal of the author's observations of the passage of a year in an urban nature area supplemented with poems and drawings

A Full Life in a Small Place and Other Essays from a Desert Garden Janice Emily Bowers, 2015-11-01 The frustrations and pleasures of gardening are evident its implications for life are more subtle lurking under a leaf or buried in a compost pile Janice Emily Bowers senses these implications and communicates them as only a fine writer can In A Full Life in a Small Place she shows how backyard gardening opens up a broader appreciation of both life and living Her observations on organic gardening inspire further meditations on nature and wildlife and demonstrate how gardens both complicate and enrich our lives In their entirety these sixteen essays ask how we shall live and recognize that before we can determine how we need to find out why

Flourishing in a Small Place Paul Emanuel Larsen, 2019-07-10 Born during the Great Depression and the height of the modernist fundamentalist controversies Paul Emanuel Larsen entered pastoral ministries in the late fifties Rooted in historical evangelical theology he embarked on church planting through expository preaching and evangelism In the mid sixties he also became politically involved in the civil rights movement For over twenty seven years he pastored three churches while pursuing advanced pastoral doctoral studies In 1986 he was elected president of his denomination the Evangelical Covenant Church During his twelve years of service he became involved in both national and international ecumenical affairs For twelve years he served as chair of the Annual Meeting of all United States Church Leaders This included heads of Roman Catholic Orthodox mainline Protestant and evangelical denominations He aided his church in its emergence from its Swedish immigrant culture and its efforts to become an ethnically inclusive church body During his tenure the church grew by more than 50 percent Retiring at age sixty five he spent the next twenty years pursuing evangelization and social justice on behalf of more than a half billion Indian Other Backward Castes and Dalits He was the founding chair of both Truthseekers International USA and the William Carey Heritage Foundation The former worked among the poorest of the poor while the latter developed the first Indian university accredited evangelical PhD in Christian studies This book chronicles the way one pastor has sought to navigate the harsh ongoing polarizations in theology race and politics

Living a Big War in a Small Place Philip N. Racine, 2013-11-15 A history of life in one South Carolina city during the American Civil War featuring personal stories from those who were there Most of what we know about how the Civil War affected life in the Confederacy is related to cities troop movements battles and prominent political economic or military leaders Far less is known about the people who lived in small Southern towns remote from marching armies or battles Philip N Racine explores life in one such place Spartanburg South Carolina in an effort to reshape the contours of that great conflict By 1864 life in most of the Confederacy but especially in rural towns was characterized by scarcity high prices uncertainty fear and bad tempered neighbors Shortages of food were common People lived with constant anxiety that a soldiering father or son would be killed or wounded Taxes were high inflation was rampant good news was scarce and seemed to always be followed by bad The slave population was growing restive as their masters bad news was their good news Army deserters were threatening lawlessness accusations and vindictiveness colored the atmosphere and added to the anxiety fear and feeling of helplessness Often people blamed their troubles on the Confederate government in faraway Richmond Virginia Racine provides insight into these events through personal stories the plight of a slave the struggles of a war widow managing her husband s farm ten slaves and seven children and the trauma of a lowcountry refugee s having to forfeit a wealthy aristocratic way of life and being thrust into relative poverty and an alien social world All were part of the complexity of wartime Spartanburg District A well written account that not only captures the plight of both the black and white population but also offers some amazing cameos especially the life of Emily Lyle Harris who struggled to keep her large family in tact while her husband went off to war This is a lively read and a perfect book to assign for classes covering the Carolina Upstate during the American Civil War Edmund L Drago professor of history The College of Charleston and author of Confederate Phoenix Rebel Children and Their Families in South Carolina Living a Big War offers a fascinating unflinching look at the toll the Civil War took on Spartanburg clearly showing divisions that emerged and deftly employing stories of slaves women and other individuals to reveal the experiences of people on the home front Gaines M Foster dean College of Humanities and Social Sciences Louisiana State University and author of Ghosts of the Confederacy Defeat the

Lost Cause and the Emergence of the New South 1865 1913 The World and a Very Small Place in Africa Donald R. Wright, 2018-06-27 The World and a Very Small Place in Africa is a fascinating look at how contacts with the wider world have affected how people have lived in Niumi a small and little known region at the mouth of West Africa's Gambia River for over a thousand years Drawing on archives oral traditions and published works Donald R Wright connects world history with real people on a local level through an exploration of how global events have affected life in Niumi Thoroughly revised and updated throughout this new edition rests on recent thinking in globalization theory reflects the latest historiography and has been extended to the present day through discussion of the final years of Gambian President Yahya Jammeh's regime the role of global forces in the events of the 2016 presidential elections and the changes that resulted from these elections The book is supported throughout by photographs maps and Perspectives boxes that present detailed information on such topics as Alex Haley's Roots part set in Niumi why Gambians take the risky back way to reach Europe or Wiri Wiri the Senegalese soap that has Gambians' attention Written in a clear and personal style and taking a critical yet sensitive approach it remains an essential resource for students and scholars of African history particularly those interested in the impact of globalization on the lives of real people Jamaica Kincaid's 'A Small Place': An Analysis Lea Williwald, 2021 Essay in the subject Literature Basics language English abstract The reflective analysis of Kincaid's observations ideas and approaches as well as literary style will seek to elaborate the dynamics that dominate the global economy as well as the economies of singular countries Furthermore the parallels between colonization and globalization shall be highlighted This examination will effectively lead to an answer to the question of whether Kincaid seeks retribution and reparations or complete independence from the Political West and her former as well as current oppressors Auto/Biography across the Americas Ricia A. Chansky, 2016-08-05 Auto biographical narratives of the Americas are marked by the underlying themes of movement and belonging This collection proposes that the impact of the historic or contemporary movement of peoples to in and from the Americas whether chosen or forced motivates the ways in which identities are constructed in this contested space Such movement results in a cyclical quest to belong and to understand belonging that reverberates through narratives of the Americas The volume brings together essays written from diverse national cultural linguistic and disciplinary perspectives to trace these transnational motifs in life writing across the Americas Drawing on international scholars from the seemingly disparate regions of the Americas North America the Caribbean and Latin America this book extends critical theories of life writing beyond limiting national boundaries The scholarship included approaches narrative inquiry from the fields of literature linguistics history art history sociology anthropology political science pedagogy gender studies critical race studies and indigenous studies As a whole this volume advances discourse in auto biography studies life writing and identity studies by locating transnational themes in narratives of the Americas and placing them in international and interdisciplinary conversations The Penny Cyclopaedia of the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge Society for the

Diffusion of Useful Knowledge,1842 Resisting Alterities ,2021-11-01 This volume of essays poetry and prose fiction records various attempts to read the fracture zones created by the discursive strategy of a democratic imagination where space and ideas are opened to new linguistic and literary insights Pride of place is taken by essays on the Caribbean writer Wilson Harris which explore the implications of his awareness of a polyphony of coexistent voices that dislodges the hegemony of Cartesian dualism This group of studies is rounded off with an interview with and searching testimony by Harris himself The further contributions take up the implications of the encounter with alterity strangers natives barbarians in order to underline not only wonder in the face of an unknown presence or the shame through which the subject discovers itself but also the resentment involved in the creation of demonized Others As the poet Charles Tomlinson states what we take to be otherness alterity can be readmitted into our literary consciousness and seen as part of the whole causing us to readjust our awareness of the possibilities of English These essays confirm that resistance is an interface of ambivalence between discursive worlds encouraging us to read the living network of a text contrapuntally Specific topics include Billy Bragg and New Labour Schopenhauer in Britain Objectivist poetry gender and sexual identity in Nancy Cunard in Scottish fiction multivocal discourse in South Africa specific forms of alterity in Jamaica Kincaid in the poetry of Edwin Morgan in allosemitism and the deculturalizing perils of globalization The War of the Rebellion United States. Bureau of Labor,United States. War Department,1882 Official records produced by the armies of the United States and the Confederacy and the executive branches of their respective governments concerning the military operations of the Civil War and prisoners of war or prisoners of state Also annual reports of military departments calls for troops correspondence between national and state governments correspondence between Union and Confederate officials The final volume includes a synopsis general index special index for various military divisions and background information on how these documents were collected and published Accompanied by an atlas The Works John Donne,1839 The Works of John Donne John Donne,1839 Travels and Discoveries in North and Central Africa Heinrich Barth,1859 The Edinburgh Gazetteer ,1822 The suburban gardener, and villa companion John Claudius Loudon,1838 A System of Geography, Ancient and Modern James Playfair,1809 The Routledge Introduction to African American Literature D. Quentin Miller,2016-02-12 The Routledge Introduction to African American Literature considers the key literary political historical and intellectual contexts of African American literature from its origins to the present and also provides students with an analysis of the most up to date literary trends and debates in African American literature This accessible and engaging guide covers a variety of essential topics such as Vernacular Oral and Blues Traditions in Literature Slave Narratives and Their Influence The Harlem Renaissance Mid twentieth century black American Literature Literature of the civil rights and Black Power era Contemporary African American Writing Key thematic and theoretical debates within the field Examining the relationship between the literature and its historical and sociopolitical contexts D Quentin Miller covers key authors and
