The Story of Faith Missions Klaus Fiedler, 2011-07-20 Born of nineteenth century Evangelical Awakening and closely linked to Hudson Taylor and the China Inland Mission he founded in 1865 faith missions were unique in two key areas they were interdenominational and they held firmly to the faith principle of financial support The faith mission movement has lost none of its vitality and relevance as it continues to play an important evangelistic role in Africa and worldwide The result of more than a decade of research in Africa Europe and the United States and extensively supported by maps and charts this book is the most comprehensive study available on the faith mission movement in Africa Setting faith missions in the context of the many revival and missionary movements which have shaped Protestant church history the author describes their spiritual and practical evolution over 125 years and outlines the challenges they face today The Expository Times James Hastings, Ann Wilson Hastings, Edward Hastings, 1908 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1908 The Bookseller, 1908 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1908

Interdenominational Faith Missions in Africa Klaus Fiedler, 2018-03-13 It was not the European and American churches which evangelised Africa but the mission societies The missions from the Great Awakening such as the London Missionary Society and Church Missionary Society or the Holy Ghost Fathers and the White Fathers which started the process of Sub Saharan Africa becoming a Christian continent are well known and documented Less known and less documented are the interdenominational faith missions which began in 1873 with the aim of visiting the still unreached areas of Africa North Africa the Sudan Belt and the Congo Basin Missions such as the Africa Inland Mission or Sudan Interior Mission gave birth to some of the big churches like ECWA in Nigeria and Africa Inland Church in Kenya It is the aim of this book to describe faith missions and their theology and to present an overview of the early development of faith missions insofar as they touched Africa The Expository Times, 1908 The Keswick Movement Charles Edwin Jones, 2007 This volume introduces researchers to the leaders ideas and institutions of the Keswick Movement a strand of holiness teaching that was embraced by many evangelicals who came from the more Calvinistic wing of Protestantism especially Anglicans Baptists Congregationalists and Presbyterians The Keswick Movement is the most difficult of the three main holiness traditions to delineate Unlike the Wesleyan Holiness and Holiness Pentecostal traditions the Keswick Movement has not gone through a definitive period of careful theological refining and institutional boundary setting The Publisher, 1908
