resistance that signaled a new era of enlightenment culminating in the Democracy Wall movement of the late 1970s and the Tiananmen protest of 1989 Yang's final chapter on the politics of history and memory argues that contemporary memories of the Cultural Revolution are factionalized along these lines of political division formed fifty years before Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2009-12-22 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature

Baudelaire in China Gloria Bien, 2012-12-14 Baudelaire's work entered China in the twentieth century amidst political and social upheavals accompanied by a literary revolution that called for classical models and modes of expression to be replaced by vernacular language and contemporary content Chinese writers welcomed their meeting with the West and openly embraced Western literature as providing models in developing their new literature Baudelaire's reception in China provides a representative study of this meeting of East and west His work which has been declared to stand between tradition and modernity also lies at the intersection between classical and modern literature in China Many of the best known and most highly regarded writers in twentieth century China were drawn to Baudelaire's work and some addressed it directly in their own writings Bien draws upon H R Jauss's theory of the shifting and expanding horizons of expectation in the reading and interpretation of a literary work and upon James J Y Lin's notion of worlds received and created by both author and reader to show how poetic lines images and ideas as well as Chinese critics comments eventually weave into a rich picture of Baudelaire's reception in China
