This was the intent of the Writer but the Readers could not be drawn to this belief but in general concurred in this opinion that it was the Life of the Authour and notwithstanding all that hath been said to the contrary many still continue in this opinion. Indeed the whole story is so genuine and naturally described without any forcing or Romancing that all contained in it seems to be naturally true and so I'll assure you it is but not acted by any one single person much less by the Authour who is well known to be of an inclination much different from the foul debaucheries of the Relations the French Rogue Francion and several other by Forraign Wits and have upon examination found that the Authors were persons of great eminency and honour and that no part of their own writings were their own lives they had happily changed their opinion of the Authour of this but they holding this opinion caused him to desist from prosecuting his story in a Second Part and he having laid down the Cudgels I took them up and my design in so doing was out of three considerations the first and chiefest was to gain ready money the second I had an itch to gain some Reputation by being in Print and thereby revenge my self on some who had abused me and whose actions I recited and the third was to advantage the Reader and make him a gainer by acquainting him with my experiences. This were the reasons for my engaging in the Second part and the very same reason induced me to joyn with the Authour in composing and Writing a third and fourth Part in which we have club'd so equally and intermixt our stories so joyntly that it is some difficulty for any at first sight to distinguish what we particularly Writ and now having concluded the Preface which should never have been begun but that I had a blank page and was unwilling to be so ill a husband for you but that you should have all possible content for your money and withal to tell you that I would not have you as yet to expect any more parts of the book for although a fifth and last part is design'd yet I'll assure you there is never a stitch amiss nor one line Written of it and if you desire that you must give me encouragement by your speedy purchasing of what is already Written and thereby you will ingage The young dragoon; or, Every day life of a soldier, by one who has served (capt.
