Modern Anglican Theology James Harrison Rigg, 1859 Classical Myths and Legends in the Middle Ages and Renaissance H. David Brumble, 1998-02-01 While numerous classical dictionaries identify the figures and tales of Greek and Roman mythology this reference book explains the allegorical significance attached to the myths by Medieval and Renaissance authors Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for the gods goddesses heroes heroines Edna Julian St. Clare, 1880 and places of classical myth a Dictionary of the English and German Languages ... William James, 1907 The Collar Sue Sorensen, 2014-06-11 Combining thematic analysis and stimulating close readings The Collar is a wide ranging study of the many ways heroic or comic shrewd or dastardly Christian ministers have been represented in literature and film Since all Christians are expected to be involved in ministry of some type the assumptions of secular culture about ministers affect more than just clergy Ranging across several nations particularly the U S Britain and Canada denominations and centuries The Collar aims to encourage creative and faithful responses to the challenges of Christian leadership and to provoke awareness of the times when leadership expectations become too extreme Using the framework of novels plays TV and movies to make inquiries about pastoral passion frustration and fallibility Sue Sorensen s well informed sprightly and perceptive book will be helpful to pastors parishioners those interested in practical theology and anyone who enjoys evocative literature and film Deadly Beasts Book 2: Divine Blood TM Watkins, 1901 Nicolas Delacroix has always been a magnet for trouble His life as a vampire has been one of debauchery and luxury With money to burn nothing is beyond his reach and the excessive lifestyle of the affluent vampire playboy is his for the taking His nights of hitting the town to find a temporary female friend are thrown into chaos when he is placed as co leader of the Lancaster family dynasty with his younger sister Martine Without a true Lancaster ruling the dynasty it is weaker and susceptible to attack Lycans openly attack as retribution for their inability to return to their home world blaming the vampires for their suffering And if being a leader of a vampire dynasty wasn t enough for Nicolas he comes across a woman that holds a secret one that will change his world forever Rowan didn t want to fall for the charming womaniser she wanted to hide from the pain that his influence on her life has caused But some secrets aren t meant to be kept Distracted by the issues in his life Nicolas doesn t see the dark figure in the background hiding in the shadows Slowly the figure brings their plan for complete domination into fruition gaining more power with each passing day The ultimate prize is worth fighting for and the shadow figure will do whatever it takes to get it even if it means death Stopping the shadow figure at every turn Nicolas does everything he can to protect those that he loves and in doing so becomes something that he never believed possible

Stories to Awaken the World ,2012-09-01 Stories to Awaken the World the first complete translation of Xingshi hengyan completes the publication in English of the famous three volume set of Feng Menglong's popular Chinese vernacular stories These tales which come from a variety of sources some dating back centuries before their compilation in the seventeenth century were assembled and circulated by Feng who not only saved them from oblivion but raised the status of vernacular literature and provided material for authors of the great Ming 1368 1644 and Qing 1644 1911 novels to draw upon This trilogy has been compared to Boccaccio's Decameron and the stories of A Thousand and One Nights Peopled with scholars emperors ministers generals and a gallery of ordinary men and women merchants and artisans prostitutes and courtesans matchmakers and fortune tellers monks and nuns thieves and imposters the stories provide a vivid panorama of the bustling world of late imperial China The longest volume in the Sanyan trilogy Stories to Awaken the World is presented in full here including sexually explicit elements often omitted from Chinese editions Shuhui Yang and Yungin Yang have provided a rare treat for English readers an unparalleled view of the art of traditional Chinese short fiction As with the first two collections in the trilogy Stories Old and New and Stories to Caution the World their excellent renditions of the forty stories in this collection are eminently readable accurate and lively They have included all of the poetry that is scattered throughout the stories as well as Feng Menglong s interlinear and marginal comments which convey the values shared among the Chinese cultural elite point out what original readers of the collection were being asked to appreciate in the writer's art and reveal Feng's moral engagement with the social problems of his day The Yangs's translations rank among the very finest English versions of Chinese fiction from any period For other titles in the collection go to http www washington edu uwpress books ming html Persian Classicks. courses I know there is little available that is even close in terms of excitement breadth and innovation Russell A Berman Stanford University The Victorian Geopolitical Aesthetic Lauren M. E. Goodlad, 2015-01-22 How did realist fiction alter in the effort to craft forms and genres receptive to the dynamism of an expanding empire and globalizing world Do these nineteenth century variations on the geopolitical aesthetic continue to resonate today Crossing literary criticism political theory and longue dur e history The Victorian Geopolitical Aesthetic explores these questions from the standpoint of nineteenth century novelists such as Wilkie Collins George Eliot Gustave Flaubert and Anthony Trollope as well as successors including E M Forster and the creators of recent television serials By looking at the category of sovereignty at multiple scales and in diverse contexts Lauren M E Goodlad shows that the ideological crucible for high realism was not a hegemonic liberalism It was rather a clash of modern liberal ideals struggling to distintricate themselves from a powerful conservative vision of empire while striving to negotiate the inequalities of power which a supposedly universalistic liberalism had helped to generate The material occasion for the Victorian era s rich realist experiments was the long transition from an informal empire of trade that could be celebrated as liberal to a neo feudal imperialism that only Tories could warmly embrace The book places realism s geopolitical aesthetic at the heart of recurring modern experiences of breached sovereignty forgotten history and subjective exile The Coda titled The Way We Historicize Now concludes the study with connections to recent debates about surface reading distant reading and the hermeneutics of suspicion The Tales of The Clerk and The Wife of Bath Geoffrey Chaucer, 2002-09-11 The first feminist edition of these two tales Wynne Davies addresses the social and cultural context of the poems production in a critical commentary to the texts Also includes a line by line gloss and a historical introduction Observing the Storm from a Barstool Luke Timms, 2015-04-14 As countries go to war over religious views children battle over team colours families battle over everything and anything a true drunk doesnt Hell happily sit and wait for it all to blow over so long as the whiskey is flowing the barmaids are busty and the songs dont turn bad This is the musings of one of said booze bags in the form of something resembling poetry You can almost smell the wine and misery Fancy a laugh sob insight into a new world or more bog roll This is the book for you The Imperial Dictionary of the English Language John Ogilvie, 1885 A Chronological Critical Table of English Literature Frederick Martin COWAN, 1856 A New Pocket Dictionary of the English and German Languages J. E. Wessely,1912 The Subject in Crisis in Contemporary Chinese Literature Rong Cai, 2004-05-31 Post Mao China produced two parallel discourses on the human subject in the New Era 1976 1989 One was an autonomous Enlightenment humanist self aimed at replacing the revolutionary paragon that had dominated under Mao The other was a more problematic subject suffering from either a symbolic physical deformity or some kind of spiritual paralysis that undermines its apparent normalcy How do we explain the stubborn presence in the literature of the 1980s and 1990s of this crippled agent who fails to realize the humanist autonomy envisioned by post Mao theorists What are the anxieties and tensions embedded in this incongruity and what do they reveal

This illuminating and original critical study of the crippled subject in post Mao literature offers a detailed textual analysis of the work of five well known contemporary writers Han Shaogong Can Xue Yu Hua Mo Yan and Jia Pingwa The author investigates not only the literary characters within the texts but also their creators real subjects in history Chinese writers whose own agency was being tested and established in the search for a new subjectivity She argues that reenacting the Maoist legacy the literary search failed to provide a viable model for a postrevolutionary China In addition the deficiency and inadequacy of the subject cannot always be contained in the Communist past a history to be transcended in the design of modernity after Mao The representation of the problematic subject thus punctured post Mao optimism and foreshadowed the eventual abandonment of the move to rethink subjectivity in the 1990s By diving beneath the euphoria of the 1980s and the confusion and frustration of the 1990s these critical readings offer a unique perspective with which to gauge the complexity of China s quest for modernity and a fuller understanding of the self's multifaceted experience in the post Mao era
