between Seveso and Taranto exploring an interplay between bodies soil industrial emissions and the wealth of dynamic particulate matter that passes in between At the same time she emphasizes the crucial function of narrative expression for making sense of this modern day reality and for shifting existing power dynamics as exposed communities exercise their voices While Toxic Matters is grounded in Italian cases and texts it looks outward to the pressing questions of toxicity embodiment and storytelling faced by communities worldwide The Introspective Realist Crime Film Luis M.

García-Mainar,2016-06-10 This book explores the formal and thematic conventions of crime film the contexts in which these have flourished and their links with the social issues of a globalized world The crime film has traditionally been identified with suspense a heterogeneous aesthetic and a tacit social mind However a good number of the crime films produced since the early 2000s have shifted their focus from action or suspense and towards melodrama in narratives that highlight the social dimension of crime intensify their realist aesthetics and dwell on subjectivity With the 1940s wave of Hollywood semi documentary crime films and 1970s generic revisionism as antecedents these crime films find inspiration in Hollywood cinema and constitute a transnational trend With a close look at Steven Soderbergh s Traffic 2000 David Fincher s Zodiac 2007 Jacques Audiard s Un prophète 2009 and Tomas Alfredson s Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy 2011 this book sets out the stylistic and thematic conventions contexts and cultural significance of a new transnational trend in crime film Swimming to Elba Silvia Avallone,2012-06-14 A sensually charged novel about two girls growing up fast in a failing industrial town on the coast of Italy Anna and Francesca are on the brink of everything high school adulthood and the edge of ambition in their provincial town It s summer in Piombino Italy and in their skimpy bathing suits flaunting their newly acquired curves the girls suddenly have everyone in their thrall This power opens their imagination to a destiny beyond Piombino the resort town of Elba is just a ferry ride away and yet they ve never dared to go Maybe the future is waiting for them there or somewhere beyond When their friendship suffers a blow the girls set off on their own only to discover that their budding sexuality takes them further than they expect though not as far as their dreams As their choices take them to a painful crossroads the girls must reconnect if they have any hope of escaping their small town destinies In this poetic prizewinning debut Silvia Avallone captures the lost innocence of a generation Harrowing yet ultimately redemptive Swimming to Elba is a story about the power of friendship and the way that family friendship and economics shape our world Swimming to Elba Silvia Avallone,2013-04-30 The provocative international bestseller about two young girls growing up fast in a failing industrial town on the coast of Italy They were always a pair daring intelligent Anna and breathtakingly gorgeous Francesca Just shy of fourteen their newly acquired curves and skimpy bathing suits have earned them celebrity status on the beaches of their gritty town where the glittering resort island of Elba taunts them from across the bay The girls aware of their newfound power are on the brink of everything high school adulthood ambition but when their intense friendship suffers a blow each sets off on her own only to learn that the glamorous world of adult physicality can be at best banal and at worst

Italiana E Inglese Francesca Capano, Maria Ines Pascariello, Massimo Visone, 2018-10 This volume proposes a rich corpus of papers about the Other City a subject only few times dealt with but worthy of all our attention it imposes itself on the scene of international modern and contemporary historiography for its undeniable topicality Throughout history the city has always had to deal with social otherness i e with class privileges and consequently with discrimination and marginalization of minorities of the less well off of foreigners in short with the differences in status culture religion So that the urban fabric has ended up structuring itself also in function of those inequalities as well as of the strategic places for the exercise of power of the political military or social control of the spaces for imprisonment for the sanitary isolation or for the temporary remedy to the catastrophes From the first portraits of cities made and diffused at the beginning of the fifteenth century for political exaltation purposes or for religious propaganda and for devotional purposes which often through increasingly refined graphic techniques distort or even deny the true urban image we reach at the dawn of contemporary history the new meaning given by scientific topography and new methods of representation these latter aimed at revealing the structure and the urban landscape in their objectivity often unexpected for who had known the city through the filter of regime iconography The representation of the urban image still shows the contradictions of a community that sometimes includes and even exalts the diversities other times rejects them showing the unease of a difficult integration
