towards greater protectionism as countries are challenged by the strictures of international agreements often extorted through imbalanced power relationships they seek their own national means for beneficial differentiation from the new global norms whilst complying with international obligations This book deals with the outcomes of regional governance of intellectual property which often creates ripples in the search for harmony in the laws that form the basis for the future of intellectual property The work has contributions that come from developing and developed nations showing a common theme of the struggle to find the balance in an area of law that often does not provide clearcut solutions to real world environments There are many intellectual property struggles illustrated in this work patent at the boundaries of nature and invention the need for drug development which is driven by profit based on the patent monopoly copyright the expression of original thought seeking to maximise exposure facilitated by the internet but a system that facilitates rampant copying trade marks supporting company branding seeks to exploit global branding through naming domains names and other areas concomitant to the globalisation of intellectual property governance such as foreign direct investment This book holds up a mirror to the issues of world governance of intellectual property rights in this century asking whether the direction we are currently following is in the best interest of global citizens and showing the divergence that constraints are stimulating on a national level
