Question 1

Contingencies

Presentations are three independent situations. Answer the question at the end of each situation.

1. During 2019, Mawson Inc., has been involved in a tax dispute with the IRS. Mawson believes that evidence that they believe is in probative that Mawson will lose this dispute. They also believe that Mawson will have to pay the IRS between $800,000 and $1,200,000. After the year financial statements were issued, the case was settled with the IRS for $1,200,000. What amount, if any, should be reported as a liability for this contingency on December 31, 2019?
2. On December 1, 2019, Hologram Chemical was identified as a potentially responsible party by the Environmental Protection Agency. Hologram's management along with its external legal consultants have concluded that Hologram will be responsible for damages, and is responsible settlement of those damages to $1,000,000. Hologram's insurance policy of $1,200,000 has irrevocable clause of $1,000,000. How should Hologram Chemical report this information in its financial statements on December 31, 2019?
3. Hologram Inc. had a manufacturing plant in Dallas which was destroyed in the last year. It is not certain who will compensate Hologram for this destruction. But Hologram has been assured by government officials that it will receive a definite amount for this plant. The amount of this compensation will be less than the FM value of the plant, but more than the book value. How should this contingency be reported in the financial statements of Hologram Inc.?
