sense of verisimilitude we feel as though we're reading a collection of documents about an actual event Strasel calls the book a tragicomedy and it in fact is there's a great deal of humor in the book but it's about rather a serious topic Much of the writing is quite good and the verve of the book comes from its structural oddities Strasel is to be applauded for the innovation of his work and the sheer imaginative guts and playfulness with which he's infused his book Judge 25th Annual Writer's Digest Self Published Book Awards A tragicomedy rife with symbols savants and satire The Terrors of Wonder reads in the spirit of science fiction One of the world's most prominent heiresses is about to celebrate her 3rd birthday A well-mannered and very precocious child she is a delight to her parents and their entire household Every year a party of historic proportions is thrown this year the largest celebration yet The party now as before is being held in the statistically safest country in the world As many gather from around the globe however a series of curious crimes slowly begin to disrupt the regular tranquility These crimes have been designed to among other things rob this girl of her inheritance placing enough power to rattle the world into eager and willing hands Yet as a consequence of these crimes someone else begins stalking the girl someone with an even darker purpose A plateful of truth leadership and identity all seasoned with tragedy served with a glass of comedy to wash it down This 316 page volume includes maps art footnotes appendices and more Tra gi com e dy A style of literature or play that blends aspects of both tragic and comic forms SAT: Total Prep 2018 Kaplan Test
