Anthology Conscience Guide Prison Writings:

Conscience Be My Guide Geoffrey Bould, 2005-08 This remarkable collection of prison literature inspires with the eloquent idealism of prisoners of conscience through the ages The contributors include many of the world's finest writers Wole Soyinka Primo Levi Irina Ratushinskaya Fyodor Dostoyevsky Henry Thoreau There are moving accounts from victims of the Holocaust Soviet labour camps and psychiatric prisons nuclear protestors civil rights and anti apartheid activists anti colonial nationalists and targets of religious persecution throughout history

Prison Writing and the Literary World Michelle Kelly, Claire Westall, 2020-10-27 Prison Writing and the Literary World tackles international prison writing and writing about imprisonment in relation to questions of literary representation and formal aesthetics the value or values of literature textual censorship and circulation institutional networks and literary critical methodologies It offers scholarly essays exploring prison writing in relation to wartime internment political imprisonment resistance and independence creation regimes of terror and personal narratives of development and awakening that grapple with race class and gender Cutting across geospatial divides while drawing on nation and region specific expertise it asks readers to connect the questions examples and challenges arising from prison writing and writing about imprisonment within the UK and the USA but also across continental Europe Stalinist Russia the Americas Africa and the Middle East It also includes critical reflection pieces from authors editors educators and theatre practitioners with experience of the fraught testing and potentially inspiring links between prison and the literary world

Shame and Modernity in Britain Anne-Marie Kilday, David S. Nash, 2017-02-20 This book argues that traditional images and practices associated with shame did not recede with the coming of modern Britain Following the authors acclaimed and successful nineteenth century book Cultures of Shame this new monograph moves forward to look at shame in the modern era As such it investigates how social and cultural expectations in both war and peace changing attitudes to sexual identities and sexual behaviour new innovations in media and changing representations of reputation all became sites for shame's reconstruction making it thoroughly modern and in tune with twentieth century Britain's expectations Using a suite of detailed micro histories the book examines a wide expanse of twentieth century sites of shame including conceptions of cowardice conscientious objection during the First World War fraud and clerical scandal in the interwar years the shame associated with both abortion and sexual behaviour redefined in different ways as deviant shoplifting in the 1980s and lastly how homosexuality shifted from Coming Out to embracing Pride finally rediscovering the positivity of shame with the birth of the Queer

Convict Voices Anne Schwan, 2014-12-02 In this lively study of the development and transformation of voices of female offenders in nineteenth century England Anne Schwan analyzes a range of colorful sources including crime broadsides reform literature prisoners own writings about imprisonment and courtroom politics and conventional literary texts such as Adam Bede and The Moonstone Not only does Schwan demonstrate strategies for interpreting ambivalent and often contradictory texts she also provides a carefully historicized approach to the work of feminist recovery Crossing class lines genre boundaries and gender roles in the effort to trace prisoners authors and female communities imagined or real Schwan brings new insight to what it means to locate feminist or protofeminist details arguments and politics In this case she tracks the emergence of a contested and often contradictory feminist consciousness through the prism of nineteenth century penal debates The historical discussion is framed by reflections on contemporary debates about prisoner perspectives to illuminate continuities and differences Convict Voices offers a sophisticated approach to interpretive questions of gender genre and discourse in the representation of female convicts and their voices and viewpoints Iraq's Modern Arabic Literature Salih J. Altoma, 2010-10-14 Covering 60 years of materials this bibliography cites translations studies and other writings which represent Iraq's national literature including recent works of numerous Iraqi writers living in Western exile The volume serves as a guide to three interrelated data o Translations that have appeared since 1950 as books or as individual items poems short stories novel extracts plays diaries in print and non print publications in Iraq and other Arab and English speaking countries including Australia Canada the United Kingdom and the United States o Relevant studies and other secondary sources including selected reviews and author interviews which cover Iraqi literature and writers o The scope of displacement or dispersion of Iraqi writers artists and other intellectuals who have been uprooted and are now living in exile in Arab or other Western countries By drawing attention to a largely overlooked but relevant and extensive literature accessible in English this first of its kind book will serve as an invaluable guide to students of contemporary Iraq modern Arabic literature and other fields such as women's studies postcolonial studies third world literature American Arab Muslim Relations and Diaspora studies Ostriches, Dung Beetles and Other Spiritual Masters Janice McLaughlin, 2014-07-30 Prisoners of Rhodesia M. Munochiveyi, 2014-12-10 During the Zimbabwean struggle for independence the settler regime imprisoned numerous activists and others it suspected of being aligned with the guerrillas This book is the first to look closely at the histories and lived experiences of these political detainees and prisoners showing how they challenged and negotiated their incarceration ThirdWay, 1993-02 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Welshman Hadane Mabhena Clarke, Marieke Faber, Nyathi, Pathisa, 2017-02-10 The late Welshman Hadane Mabhena was a leading Zimbabwe African People's Union ZAPU activist the political party led by Joshua Nkomo He was among the pioneers of the liberation struggle in Nkayi and Matabeleland North He faced incarceration in various prisons in Rhodesia He was detained in Gonakudzingwa near the border with Mozambique A loud and fearless voice for the voiceless uMawelishi as he was affectionately known among his colleagues and admirers was declared a national hero when he passed on While the focus of the book is on an individual Welshman Mabhena it also illuminates the times both good and bad that were an integral part of Welshman Mabhena's life Challenging to change Pieter J. Lalleman, 2020-09-18 On 13 May 2009 Dr Nigel G Wright celebrated his sixtieth birthday For this occasion friends and colleagues presented him with a Festschrift which reflects his career as a radical baptist leader and theologian Over the past decades he has played a leading role in the Baptist movement in Britain and worldwide The contributors to Challenging to change dialogues with a radical baptist theologian interact with aspects of Wright s activities and writings so far The spelling of baptist with a small b in the subtitle of this book reflects Wright s own usage baptist refers to the broader tradition of believers churches stemming from the radical wing of the European Reformation to which not only Baptist churches belong but also Anabaptist Brethren Pentecostals Restorationists and others This book makes a valuable contribution to the thinking of all baptists about issues such as ministry Church and state church planting and evangelical identity In particular pastors other church leaders and students will profit hugely from it and they will be encouraged to pick up Nigel Wright s own books Human Rights Albert A. Zinnos,2007 Human rights refers to the concept of human beings as having universal rights or status regardless of legal jurisdiction and likewise other localising factors such as ethnicity and nationality For many the concept of human rights is based in religious principles However because a formal concept of human rights has not been universally accepted the term has some degree of variance between its use in different local jurisdictions difference in both meaningful substance as well as in protocols for and styles of application Ultimately the most general meaning of the term is one which can only apply universally and hence the term human rights is often itself an appeal to such transcended principles without basing such on existing legal concepts The term humanism refers to the developing doctrine of such universally applicable values and it is on the basic concept that human beings have innate rights that more specific local legal concepts are often based Within particular societies human rights refers to standards of behaviour as accepted within their respective legal systems regarding 1 the well being of individuals 2 the freedom and autonomy of individuals and 3 the representation of the human interest in government These rights commonly include the right to life the right to an adequate standard of living the prohibition of genocide freedom from torture and other mistreatment freedom of expression freedom of movement the right to self determination the right to education and the right to participation in cultural and political life These norms are based on the legal and political traditions of United Nations member states and are incorporated into international human rights instruments This new book brings together the latest book literature centred on this crucial topic Beyond Appearances Barry, David Harold,2018-06-14 Beyond Appearances Reflections on Principles and Practice is a collection of 121 articles written between 2005 and 2008 for The Zimbabwean As the title suggests David Harold Barry SJ invites us to rect upon our relationship with society He asks repeatedly whether we should put ourselves or otherst and what happens when we ignore the plight of those around us We are also invited to rect on the nature of power our interaction with it and our attitude towards it do we gullibly agree to do what we re told without thinking or do we rect on the consequences of apathy and inaction This is a book to keep beside your bed a book with which to begin the day as a citizen of the world and an individual for whom every action matters From Bear Rock Mountain Antoine Bear Rock Mountain,2019-06-04 In this poetic poignant memoir Dene artist and social activist Antoine Mountain paints an unforgettable picture of his journey from residential school to art school and his path to healing In 1949 Antoine Mountain was born on the land near Radelie Koe Fort Good Hope Northwest Territories At the tender age of seven he was stolen away from his home and sent to a residential school run by the Roman Catholic Church in collusion with the Government of Canada three hundred kilometres away Over the next twelve years the three residential schools Mountain was forced to attend systematically worked to erase his language and culture the very roots of his identity While reconnecting to that which had been taken from him he had a disturbing and painful revelation of the bitter depths of colonialism and its legacy of cultural genocide Canada has its own holocaust Mountain argues As a celebrated artist and social activist today Mountain shares this moving personal story of healing and the reclamation of his Dene identity     The Catholic Ethic and Global Capitalism Bryan Fields,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 Fields traces the origins of recent economic growth in Ireland over a long period of development In doing so he opens up an old debate with new data interpretations and evidence that will force many to question existing truths about the role of religion in economic growth The work is founded on an innovative methodology and unique primary and secondary resource material that has never been used in a study of this kind This is timely as the area has a growing international market and addresses some recently ignored themes in the Social Sciences in particular religion Whilst concerned with global issues this text also focuses on one country which economists and sociologists as well as those in other Social Sciences areas will find of great interest     A Select Index to South African Literature in English ,1991

Gale Researcher Guide for: Jimmy Santiago Baca and New Prison Writing Seth Michelson, Gale Researcher Guide for Jimmy Santiago Baca and New Prison Writing is selected from Gale s academic platform Gale Researcher These study guides provide peer reviewed articles that allow students early success in finding scholarly materials and to gain the confidence and vocabulary needed to pursue deeper research     Whitaker's Book List ,1991     British Book News ,1991     British Book News British Council,1991 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people     ThirdWay ,1993-02 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture
