Anthony Daly Autobiography:

Dalo: The Autobiography Anthony Daly, 2014-10-30 Anthony Daly was the most successful captain in the history of Clare hurling leading the county to two All Irelands and three Munster titles Regarded as an inspirational figure by his fellow players Daly's innate leadership and character prompted the Clare players just three years after he had finished his playing career to pursue him as manager at the age of just 34 During his three years in charge he took Clare to the cusp of two All Ireland finals agonisingly losing the 2005 and 2006 semi finals to the eventual winners Cork and Kilkenny It was that kind of ambition and drive to succeed which attracted Dublin hurling to Daly Taking over the county in 2009 he led Dublin in 2011 to their first National League title in 72 years and in 2013 their first Leinster title in 52 years before he retired as manager in September 2014 Dalo takes us from the early days growing up in Clarecastle through the early part of his career with Clare the golden years and the extension into management punctuated with intense and revealing stories from the dressing room Interlaced with drama tragedy his love of other pursuits and his immense wit Anthony Daly's autobiography offers a compelling insight into a unique personality in modern Irish sport

The Autobiography Henry Shefflin, 2015-09-24 The long awaited autobiography of the legendary hurler Henry Shefflin In an era when Kilkenny established itself as the dominant force in hurling one man stood out from a remarkable group of players Henry Shefflin Now widely regarded as the greatest player of all time Shefflin has more All Stars Hurler of the Year awards and All Ireland medals than any other hurler But beneath the surface image of calm efficiency and effortless genius his hurling life has included its share of bitter disappointments agonizing injuries and intense rivalries Now in what will be an essential read Shefflin tells his own story The greatest player of this or perhaps any generation Sean Moran Irish Times There is a compelling story in a young man's rise from the rural middle class of south Kilkenny to being one of our finest sportsmen He became much more than a hurler This memoir is cast in its author's likeness honest but tactful direct without being brusque Irish Examiner

The Autobiography Seán Óg Ó hAilpín, 2013-10-23 Sean Og O hAilpin the iconic hurler of his generation tells his own story Sean Og O hAilpin became synonymous with Cork hurling during a period when the Rebel County reached the highest of highs and was regularly gripped by controversy Making his trademark barnstorming solo runs from left wing back Sean Og emerged as the lynchpin of the great group of Cork hurlers that won five Munster titles and three All Irelands in 1999 he contested All Ireland finals in both codes He was also central in standing up for players rights against the Cork county board a source of great controversy and two painful strikes Now Sean Og tells his own story in his own words a story every GAA fan has been waiting to read Full of frank insights Sean Og's autobiography is not just an essential sporting story it is an essential Irish story A captivating tale of family identity and belonging Sunday Business Post Hugely enjoyable Evening Echo A compelling honest read that draws blood along the way a tale so rich that the wonder never leaves Irish Daily Mail Riveting Irish Daily Star Excellent a really enjoyable read Christy O Connor Evening Echo This is Sean Og as he really is Essential reading Irish

Examiner Sean Og's autobiography is a fine read What an extraordinary figure he is Sonia O'Sullivan Come What May Dónal Óg Cusack, 2009-10-21 Dónal Óg Cusack has been one of Ireland's leading hurlers for the past decade winning five Munster titles and three All Ireland medals with Cork and establishing himself as one of the game's most compelling and articulate figures In this book he tells the story of his life and extraordinary career This is not simply one of the best and most readable sports books to be published anywhere this year it is one of the best and most important books to be published in Ireland this year Sunday Tribune Certain to become a sports classic The Times Certainly the book of the year Irish Times The engine of the book is truthfulness raw compelling and uncomfortable Sunday Times Out of Control Cathal McCarron, Christy O'Connor, 2016-10-20 Cathal McCarron is a Tyrone footballer talented enough to be nominated for an All Star twice in the last three years However he hid a dark secret for years a gambling addiction which almost destroyed him While effectively on the run in London in 2013 his life had spiralled so viciously out of control that he ended up having sex with a man for a gay porn website After getting paid he walked across the road and gambled half his earnings in a betting shop When footage subsequently leaked McCarron could no longer hide his terrible secret and keep running from his troubled past He slowly began the long road back to rehabilitation After a year out of the inter county game with Tyrone in 2014 McCarron made a remarkable recovery in 2015 ending the season with an All Star nomination His story is a remarkable tale of the hidden demons that often visit and terrorise inter county players It also underlines the pressures and expectations so often taken for granted with amateur players McCarron recalls his journey with searing honesty from the depths of depression and to the edge of suicide to path taken back to recovery and rehabilitation He is now studying to be a counsellor aiming to help people rid themselves of the demons that once almost destroyed his life The edge to the book is added with McCarron still an active inter county player His journey will also take you inside the dressing room of a team with serious ambitions of winning another All Ireland title McCarron's story is unlike any other written by a GAA player before Dan Shanahan - If you don't know me, don't judge me Dan Shanahan, 2010-10-31 Dan Shanahan is a legend in modern hurling a three time All Star and winner of Player of the Year in 2007 His time as an inter county senior hurler coincided with the remarkable revival in Waterford's fortunes which saw them win the Munster Final four times in the last decade In this candid and revealing autobiography Dan speaks about his love of the game which grew out of an idyllic childhood in Lismore and his apprenticeship with the Lismore club He first made his mark as a senior player with Waterford in 1998 under the management of Gerald McCarthy But it was when Justin McCarthy took over as manager in 2002 that the Waterford team really began to shine Dan sharing the glory with such outstanding players as Tony Browne Eoin Kelly John Mullane and Ken McGrath Yet tensions between the players and manager built up in 2007 2008 culminating in a frustrated Dan famously refusing to shake Justin's hand in public McCarthy resigned and was replaced by Davy Fitzgerald who led Waterford to the 2008 All Ireland Final Dan's charisma and extraordinary goal scoring ability earned him a place in Waterford hearts His goal in extra time in the 2010 Munster Final against Cork proved what a vital player he remained and was a fitting climax to a great career He retired from inter county hurling shortly after A tattoo on Dan s arm reads If you don t know me don t judge me It s a testament to Dan s determination to succeed in the face of adversity The Abuse of Power Anthony Daly,2019-05 Chilling Candid Controversial This is the voice of one man from within a dark scandal that nestled in the heart of London s Soho in the 1970s Travelling to the big city to escape The Troubles in his native Northern Ireland Anthony Daly accepted a job in Foyles Bookshop and began a new life in England However his naivety saw him quickly fall foul of predators looking for young men to blackmail and sexually exploit After years of hiding the secret of his abuse at the hands of some of the most influential men in the country Anthony s trauma became harder to contain as he witnessed revelations of historic abuse coming to light on TV and in newspapers Then finally his lost voice ripped through the safe family life he had built over 40 years With parallels to Joseph Conrad s Heart of Darkness this is stylishly written and politically explosive The haunting true story of a young man s decent into a hell designed to satisfy the powerful A world that destroyed the lives of everyone involved In My Own Words Paul Galvin,2014-10-30 One of the greatest GAA footballers of the modern era Paul Galvin has enjoyed a brilliant and at times controversial career Winning four senior All Ireland medals with Kerry and eight Munster championships he was also a three time All Star and 2009 Footballer of the Year His inter county career took off in the late 1990s when he picked up a Munster minor championship medal in 1997 and another at under 21 level in 1999 But it was in the senior team throughout the 2000s that Paul came into his own In a period defined by great rivalry with Tyrone he became a key playmaker for Kerry never failing to give his all in pursuit of victory Over the course of a career marked by courage physicality and an intense passion for the Green and Gold there were many glorious days There were other days too with controversial incidents that led to a number of suspensions most notably in 2008 the year in which Paul also had the honour of being the Kerry captain 2009 brought redemption But 2010 presented new challenges In this fiercely honest autobiography Paul offers in his own words a compelling unflinching account of a career that has fascinated football fans for over a decade Blood, Sweat, Triumph & Tears John Scally,2020-02-11 Gaelic Games are the focus of endless debate and speculation set the mood of Monday s post match workplace and dominate pub talk For many of us life and death run second to major GAA events Blood Sweat Triumph Tears looks back at some of the best moments from the sporting nation s favourite soap opera It pays homage to the great players and people in Gaelic football hurling ladies football and camogie And it glories in the classic victories and thrilling contests witnessed down the decades Based on exclusive interviews with the greatest personalities in the GAA s rich history and covering every county in Ireland here is a unique insight into the passion and politics the controversies and crises the wisdom and wit and all the highs and lows of Ireland s national treasure Full of entertaining anecdotes inspirational incidents and epic encounters Blood Sweat Triumph Tears truly captures the magic of the GAA A book to shorten the long winter nights for any GAA fan DERMOT EARLEY Kildare legend Will bring back

 Brendan Cummins has made more senior hurling championship appearances than any other player in the history of the game
 In an era that produced such brilliant goalkeeping talents as Davy Fitzgerald Donal g Cusack and Damien Fitzhenry many two senior All Ireland medals five Munster championships four League titles and five All Star awards From fearless shot stopping to pinpoint accuracy on his puck outs Cummins was unrivalled in the consistency of his performances a consistency underpinned by a sometimes punishing physical commitment mental discipline and great attention to detail He was the rock upon which Tipperary built their team under many managers and changes of personnel Brendan Cummins story is the story of Tipperary hurling over the last two decades The ups and downs The dramas The characters From his senior championship

Pictorial Victorians Julia Thomas, 2004 Pictorial Victorians focuses on two of the most popular mid nineteenth century genres illustration and narrative painting that blurred the line between the visual and the textual Illustration negotiated text and image on the printed page while narrative painting juxtaposed the two media in its formulation of pictorial stories Pictorial Victorians surveys a range of material from representations of the crinoline to the illustrations that accompanied Harriet Beecher Stowe's novel Uncle Tom's Cabin and Tennyson's poetry to paintings of adultery It demonstrates that the space between text and image is one in which values are both constructed and questioned
