Antiquity 1 Preliminary Stage 6:

American Lawn Tennis ,1898      Cross-bearing in Luke Sverre Bøe,2010 Luke records twice how Jesus called on people to take up or carry their crosses He also reports how Simon of Cyrene carried Jesus cross behind Jesus No metaphorical uses of the well known phenomenon of cross bearing were confirmed in any language prior to the Gospels The idiom was also unknown in Semitic languages What did a call to become a voluntary cross bearer sound like before the cross became kitsch In Luke s Gospel cross bearing is connected with self denial and hating one s family Not only the disciples but all are called on to take up their crosses Since cross bearing is a daily duty it can hardly refer to martyrdom and cannot be linked to imitation Sverre Boe argues that the cross signifies death through radical self denial but not as ascetic exercises His book includes a survey of the history of scholarship on the five Synoptic texts of cross bearing      Late Woodland Societies Thomas E. Emerson,Dale L. McElrath,Andrew C. Fortier,2000-01-01 Archaeologists across the Midwest have pooled their data and perspectives to produce this indispensable volume on the Native cultures of the Late Woodland period approximately A D 300 1000 Sandwiched between the well known Hopewellian and Mississippian eras of monumental mound construction the Late Woodland period has received insufficient attention from archaeologists who have frequently characterized it as consisting of relatively drab artifact assemblages The close connections between this period and subsequent Mississippian and Fort Ancient societies however make it especially valuable for cross cultural researchers Understanding the cultural processes at work during the Late Woodland period will yield important clues about the long term forces that stimulate and enhance social inequality Late Woodland Societies is notable for its comprehensive geographic coverage exhaustive presentation and discussion of sites artifacts and prehistoric cultural practices and critical summaries of interpretive perspectives and trends in scholarship The vast amount of information and theory brought together examined and synthesized by the contributors produces a detailed coherent and systematic picture of Late Woodland lifestyles across the Midwest The Late Woodland can now be seen as a dynamic time in its own right and instrumental to the emergence of complex late prehistoric cultures across the Midwest and Southeast      The First Christians in the Roman World E. Rhetorical Adaptation in the Greek Historians, Josephus, and Acts vol.I John M. Duncan,2022-10-24

Greco Roman rhetorical theorists insist that speakers must adapt their speeches to their audiences in order to maximize persuasiveness and minimize alienation Ancient historians adorn their narratives with accounts of attempts at such rhetorical adaptation the outcomes of which decisively impact the subsequent course of events These depictions of speaker audience interactions moreover convey crucial didactic persuasive insights to the historians own audiences This monograph presents a detailed comparative analysis of the intra and extra textual functions of speeches and audience responses in Greek historiography Josephus and Acts with special emphasis on Luke's distinctive depiction of the apostles as adaptable yet frequently alienating orators This is volume I of a set of two volumes The Toils of Understanding Husain Sarkar, 2000 The central theme is that understanding is essential if the individual and society are to be saved On the way to various conclusions The Toils of Understanding argues with a host of interpreters of Kierkegaard BOOK JACKET The Oxford Classical Dictionary Simon Hornblower, Antony Spawforth, Esther Eidinow, 2012-03-29 The revised third edition of the Oxford Classical Dictionary is the ultimate reference on the classical world containing over 6 200 entries The 2003 revision includes minor corrections and updates and all Latin and Greek words in the text are now translated into English

Ocmulgee Archaeology, 1936-1986 David J. Hally, 2009-11-01 From 1933 to 1941 Macon was the site of the largest archaeological excavation ever undertaken in Georgia and one of the most significant archaeological projects to be initiated by the federal government during the depression The project was administered by the National Park Service and funded at times by such government programs as the Works Progress Administration Civilian Conservation Corps and Civil Works Administration At its peak in 1955 more than eight hundred laborers were employed in more than a dozen separate excavations of prehistoric mounds and villages The best known excavations were conducted at the Macon Plateau site the area President Franklin D Roosevelt proclaimed as the Ocmulgee National Monument in 1936 Although a wealth of material was recovered from the site in the 1930s little provision was made for analyzing and reporting it Consequently much information is still unpublished The sixteen essays in this volume were presented at a symposium to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Ocmulgee National Monument The symposium provided archaeologists with an opportunity to update the work begun a half century before and to bring it into the larger context of southeastern history and general advances in archaeological research and methodology Among the topics discussed are platform mounds settlement patterns agronomic practices earth lodges human skeletal remains Macon Plateau culture origins relations of site inhabitants with other aboriginal societies and Europeans and the challenges of administering excavations and park development
