Heart of the Hudson Tracey Brown, 2022-11-08 It's 1843 and siblings Cara and Will have no one but each other. Their father is somewhere in the New World and their mother disappeared after their home was destroyed in the Highland Clearances. To escape their orphaned situation, Will lies about his age to join the crew of a Hudson's Bay Company ship bound for York Factory, the last known location of his father. But Cara won't be left behind. Maintaining their deception on the cross Atlantic sail is just the first step in Cara and Will's journey. The pair each face challenges: icebergs, bears, storms, and fires, not to mention thievery and murderous revenge, and meet friends and foes along the way. Will they find their father and be able to make their own way in the New World? Inspired by true events, Heart of the Hudson is a fast-paced, richly detailed adventure story with unforgettable characters set against the backdrop of pre-Confederation Canada. United States Economist, and Dry Goods Reporter, 1914 The Country Gentleman, 1927 Knitted Wire Jewelry Samantha
