

Argumentative Essay Prompts

1. The Board of Education has decided to extend the school day for one hour because of the increased graduation requirements. Do you agree or disagree with making the school day longer? Write an essay to the Board of Ed and argue your point of view.
2. A leading doctor has published research claiming all students should be in bed by 9:00 PM in order for them to learn well in school. Your parents are considering doing what the doctor suggests. Write an argument to your parents explaining your position.
3. The administration at your school has instituted random locker and purse searches to check for guns, knives, drugs, and cigarettes. Anyone caught with these weapons will be immediately suspended and may face expulsion. The administration argues that the searches will not only guard against contraband being brought into the school, but will make the students feel safer. What is your position?
4. A litter problem has developed in your school. Students are throwing trash on the grounds, in the hallways, and classrooms. The administration has asked for students to take more care, but the litter problem persists. The administration has reacted by limiting food and beverages to the cafeteria only. What is your position on the issue?
5. The increase in school violence has prompted one district to institute a school uniform policy. This decision came after researching the positive impact of uniforms in other schools. What is your position on this issue?
6. Some states have enacted legislation outlawing teachers and students to be Facebook friends. Write an argument for or against this law.
7. Recent cuts to school funding have forced one district to cut (all middle school athletics, busing, art class, performing arts, etc.). Write an argument sharing your position on this cut.
8. As part of a new technology initiative, your district is increasing the number of computer labs in the school. The district plan calls for an additional computer lab of 32 seats. Teachers at your school are lobbying instead for laptop or handheld devices that can move from class to class. Write an argument for one of these plans.
9. There has been much discussion about violence and video games. Some experts even argue it is a cause for juvenile crime. Write an argument taking one side or the other.
10. What is the most important event of the 20th century? Choose an event and write an argument convincing others.
11. What is the most important invention of all time? Choose one and write an argument.
12. Who is the most influential person in history? Choose one person and write an argument.

Landmark Essays on ESL Writing Tony Silva, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2013-10-31 In recent years the number of nonnative speakers of English in colleges and universities in North America has increased dramatically As a result more and more writing teachers have found themselves working with these English as a Second Language ESL students in writing classes that are designed primarily with monolingual native English speaking students in mind Since the majority of institutions require these students to enroll in writing courses at all levels it is becoming increasingly important for all writing teachers to be aware of the presence and special linguistic and cultural needs of ESL writers This increase in the ESL population has over the last 40 years been paralleled by a similar growth in research on ESL writing and writing instruction research that writing teachers need to be familiar with in order to work effectively with ESL writers in writing classrooms of all levels and types Until recently however this body of knowledge has not been very accessible to writing teachers and researchers who do not specialize in second language research and instruction This volume is an attempt to remedy this problem by providing a sense of how ESL writing scholarship has evolved over the last four decades It brings together 15 articles that address various issues in second language writing in general and ESL writing in particular In selecting articles for inclusion the editors tried to take a principled approach The articles included in this volume have been chosen from a large database of publications in second language writing The editors looked for works that mirrored the state of the art when they were published and made a conscious effort to represent a wide variety of perspectives contributions and issues in the field To provide a sense of the evolution of the field this collection is arranged in chronological order

Social Justice in Action Neal A. Lester, 2024-11-08 Addressing both veterans of justice work and novices seeking points of entry the essays in this volume showcase practical approaches to diversity equity and inclusion ways to build community earn trust tell unheard stories and develop solutions to problems Emphasizing values such as empathy self reflection and integrity the volume is rooted in humanities work but also features contributions from fields as diverse as the performing arts architecture and evolutionary biology and represents settings beyond the college campus such as schools libraries museums and prisons While bringing insights from higher education it critiques the system as well exploring the ways that institutions reinforce power structures and exclude marginalized voices Interspersed with the essays brief reflections by activists and artists offer testimony and inspiration
