

Module 2d: Facilitation Guide

Overview

The goal of the presentation is to help teachers understand the Framework for Teaching, specifically 2d: Managing Student Behavior. As an observer, you will become intimately familiar with Charlotte Danielson's Framework for Teaching and the nuances of each of the components; however, your teaching staff will have little to no understanding of how evidence is observed, collected, and leveled. This module presentation serves to bridge this knowledge gap in your school. Use this Facilitation Guide to lead an engaging and effective presentation for teachers.
