Wilfred Owen's "Anthem for Doomed Youth". An Analysis Jenny Koss, 2018-07-05 Essay from the year 2005 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 0 Ruhr University of Bochum language English abstract The poem Anthem for Doomed Youth consists of two stanzas and fourteen lines The first stanza consists of eight lines and the second stanza consists of six lines an octave and a sestet It is a variation of the Shakespearian or Elizabethan sonnet Owen himself has divided the sonnet in parts the break coming at the end of line eight which gives the impression of it being a Petrarchan sonnet The reader must not however be fooled by this break because if one looks at the poem in terms of its themes one finds that there is only one theme which takes up all fourteen lines On the other hand although the sonnet concludes with a rhyming couplet there is no distinct theme in this couplet as there would be in a classical Elizabethan structure This essay takes a closer look at the poem and analyses it in detail
