Metal, Rap, and Electro in Post-Revolutionary Tunisia Stefano Barone, 2019-04-23

Metal Rap and Electro in Tunisia is a trip into the music scenes of Tunisia after the Arab Springs Based on extensive field research the book explores the social life of heavy metal rap and electronic music in a North African country whose mass revolution of 2010 2011 led the way to a troubled and yet unique democracy What is it like to be part of a music scene in a place affected by poverty and inequality How do the many conflicted souls of Tunisian Islam shape local metal rap and electro What are the social and cultural stakes for music in a nation constantly represented as a bridge between Europe and the Middle East How do music scenes articulate the complex political scenario that followed the Tunisian revolution of 2011 Barone answers these questions by offering new theoretical reflections on youth cultures and popular music in a global perspective and thus pushing the debate on post subcultures and scenes forward At the same time the book offers a dense sociological analysis of youth and music in reality the Tunisian one whose society culture religion and politics are at stake in a historical transformation

Rocking Islam Fatma Sagir, 2021 Music has the universal power to move individuals peoples and societies Music is one of the most important signifiers of cultural change It is also most significant for youth movements and youth cultures While Islam has a historically and traditionally rich culture of music religious controversy on the topic of music is still ongoing However young Muslims in today s globalised world seek pop cultural tools such as music and particularly hip hop music as way of exploring and expressing their manifold identities whilst challenging Islamophobia stigma and racism on the one hand and traditional and religious challenges on the other hand In this volume following an international conference with the same title scholars and young academics from a variety of disciplines seek to explore and highlight the phenomena surrounding the two somewhat artificially separated realms of music and religion The contributions not only look into different genres of music from Tunisian metal over German female hip hop to Egyptian folk but take the reader on a journey from continent to countries to cities and rural areas and thus give space and time to a widely neglected area of research that of Muslim popular culture and young Muslims Celtic Art in Europe Christopher Gosden, Sally Crawford, Katharina Ulmschneider, 2014-08-29 The ancient Celtic world evokes debate discussion romanticism and mythicism On the one hand it represents a specialist area of archaeological interest on the other it has a wide general appeal The Celtic world is accessible through archaeology history linguistics and art history Of these disciplines art history offers the most direct message to a wider audience This volume of 37 papers brings together a truly international group of pre eminent specialists in the field of Celtic art and Celtic studies It is a benchmark volume the like of which has not been seen since the publication of Paul Jacobsthal s Early Celtic Art in 1944 The papers chart the history of attempts to understand Celtic art and argue for novel approaches in discussions spanning the whole of Continental Europe and the British Isles This new body of international scholarship will give the reader a sense of the richness of the material and current debates Artefacts of rich form and decoration which we might call art provide a most sensitive set of indicators of key areas of past societies their power politics and transformations With its broad geographical scope this volume offers a timely opportunity to re assess contacts context transmission and meaning in Celtic art for understanding the development of European cultures identities and economies in pre and proto history Nominated for Current Archaeology Book of the Year 2016 Deleuze's Way Ronald Bogue, 2016-05-13 Addressing the essential question of the relationship between ethics and aesthetics in Deleuze s philosophy this book provides clear indications of the practical implications of Deleuze s approach to the arts through detailed analyses of the ethical dimension of artistic activity in literature music and film Bogue examines Deleuze s transverse way of interrelating the ethical and the aesthetic the transverse way being both a mode of thought and a practice of living Among the issues examined are those of the relationship of music to literature the political vocation of the arts violence in popular music the ethics and aesthetics of education the use of music and sound in film the role of the visual in literary invention the function of the arts in cross cultural interactions and the future of Deleuzian analysis as a means of forming an open reciprocally self constituting transcultural global culture Movement, Exchange and Identity in Europe in the 2nd and 1st Millennium BC Anne Lehoërff, Marc Talon, 2017-07-31 This collection of papers by an international chort of contributors explores the nature of the maritime connections that appear to have existed in the Transmanche English Channel Zone during later prehistory Organised into three themes Movement and Identity in the Transmanche Zone Travel and exchange Identity and Landscape the papers seek to articulate notions of frontier mobility and identity from the end of the 3rd to the beginning of the 1st millennium BC a time when the archaeological evidence suggests that the sea facilitated connections between peoples on both sides of the Channel rather than acting as a barrier as it is so often perceived today Recent decades have since a massive increase in large scale excavation programmes on either side of the Channel in advance of major infra structure and urban development resulting in the acqusition of huge complex new datasets enabling new insights into later prehistoric life in this crucially important region Papers consider the role of several key archaeologists in transforming our appreciation of the connectivity of the sea in prehistory consider the extent to which the Channel zone developed into a closely unified cultural zone during later Bronze Age in terms of communities that serviced the movement of artefacts across the Channel with both sides sharing widely in the same artefacts and social practices examine funerary practices and settlement evidence and consider the relationship between communities in social cultural and ideological terms and consider mechanisms for the transmission of ideas and how they may be reflected in the archaeological record Brings together leading scholars from the UK and northern Europe in a thought provoking and revealing new examination of the relationship between communities in the Transmanche Zone in the Bronze and Iron Ages The premise is that the English Channel was a conduit for connectivity and exchange of ideas artefacts and social practices and rather than a barrier or frontier that had to be overcome before such connections could be fostered Anthropologie du métal extrême Nicolas Walzer, 2007 Anthropologie historique du métal nomm au d part hard rock jusqu nos jours et analyse d une enqu te men e aupr s d une trentaine de musiciens visant tablir divers aspects de leur vie initiation musicale rapport avec la famille l argent la soci t Etude de cette marginalit finalement socialis e Martor ,2003 American Anthropologist ,1901 Weapons and Tools in Rock Art Ana M. S. Bettencourt, Manuel Santos-Estévez, Hugo Aluá Sampaio, 2021-03-03 Weapons and tools are frequently found depicted in rock art in many parts of the globe and different periods and in varying social contexts This collection of papers by leading rock art specialists examines the subjective and metaphorical value of weapons and tools in art the actions that created them and their contexts It also takes into account that such representations incorporate and transmit some kind of understanding about the world and the relationship between objects and humans Contributors analyse objects and weapons as status symbols as evidences of cultural contacts as ideological devices etc Divided into regional sections which for once do not focus on Scandinavia chapters deal with the representations of weapons and certain kinds of tools such as axes and sickles in different prehistoric protohistoric and traditional community contexts all over the world Attention focuses on rock art but also looks at stelae and statue menhirs as well as other kinds of container or vehicle for this kind of depiction The major concern is to discuss the possible meanings of these embodied signs in different areas and periods since meanings are permeable both to time and space Papers either centre their attention in broader approaches based on a specific area region or people or focus on particular case studies COWA Survey ,1964 Additions to the Library Boston Athenaeum, 1890 Human Interaction with the Environment in the Red Sea Dionysius A.
