is whom we grieve and how grief can ultimately lead us to a richer self understanding and a fuller realization of our humanity Drawing on psychology social science and literature as well as philosophy Cholbi explains that we grieve for the loss of those in whom our identities are invested including people we don t know personally but cherish anyway such as public figures Their deaths not only deprive us of worthwhile experiences they also disrupt our commitments and values Yet grief is something we should embrace rather than avoid an important part of a good and meaningful life The key to understanding this paradox Cholbi says is that grief offers us a unique and powerful opportunity to grow in self knowledge by fashioning a new identity Although grief can be tumultuous and disorienting it also reflects our distinctly human capacity to rationally adapt as the relationships we depend on evolve An original account of how grieving works and why it is so important Grief shows how the pain of this experience gives us a chance to deepen our relationships with others and ourselves Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief Steven Jeffers, Harold Ivan Smith, 2007 Aimed at pastoral care providers counsellors therapists and other health professionals as well as students this is a practical manual suitable for all carers The Publishers Weekly, 2004 Supporting Pet Owners Through Grief Ryane E. Englar, Jill Englar, Teresa Graham Brett, 2023-10-31 An empathic and emotional exploration of the inevitable subject of grief that veterinarians will regularly encounter throughout their relationships with clients on their journey through the care and management of animal patients The authors take an informed and supportive look at the philosophical and psychological impacts of grief emphasizing the individual experiences of clients while also addressing the impacts on the veterinarian and veterinary team Chapters cover the importance of the human animal bond unique circumstances relating to grief practical tool kit approaches that help the vet work alongside the client in a way that is supportive and practically helpful self management resources for a veterinary centric view of managing the process of euthanasia death and grief Supporting Pet Owners Through Grief provides practitioners and students alike with tools to better understand grief and its impact on the human animal bond Veterinary team members will also learn how to navigate their own mix of emotions as they themselves experience and process recurrent grief that can contribute to compassion fatigue and burnout 5m Books
