Lindroth,Sterling J. Anderson,1982 Imagining the World O. R. Dathorne,1994-03-23 This is a study of the manner in which certain mythical notions of the world become accepted as fact Dathorne shows how particular European concepts such as El Dorado the Fountain of Youth a race of Amazons and monster including cannibal images were first associated with the Orient After the New World encounter they were repositioned to North and South America The book examines the way in which Arabs and Africans are conscripted into the view of the world and takes an unusual non Eurocentric viewpoint of how Africans journeyed to the New World and Europe participating in what may be considered an early stage of world exploration and discovery The study concludes by looking at European travel literature from the early journeys of St Brendan through the Viking voyages and up to Marco Polo and Sir John Mandeville In all these instances the encounters seem to justify mythical belief Dathorne s interest in the subject is both intellectual and passionate since coming from Guyana he was very much part of this malformed Weltschmerz
