American Pageant Ch Review Key:

The W.B.A. Review, 1928      A Rosetta Key for U.S. History Michael A. Susko, 2023-12-21 This work explores a generational history from America's Colonial period to the United States of contemporary times. A novel historical approach will rely on generational markers every 15th year rather than yearly astronomical dates. This method will make history more accessible and its patterns more apparent. Identified from cultures presented in an earlier volume, the phasings are 1 Invisible Beginnings 2 Establishment and Testing 3 Novel Consolidation and Opening Up 4 Crisis and Creativity 5 Empire and Inclusion and 6 Rigidification or Renewal. This history does not seek to hide or obscure the shadow side of America nor does it fail to present beauty and light especially during the 30s generational phase. One discovery prompted by this generational time chart was to more fully consider the importance of New Spain in understanding U.S. history. A second and related theme is inclusion of the Indigenous whose influence extends to all phases of American history. Come journey with us and experience historical events and people's lives generation by generation and see how they fit into historical phases. Such an awareness the author contends will help us to make the generational choice of our times.      Generational Key to History

Michael A. Susko, 2025-01-17 Generational Key to History Tracing Phases From Ancient Egypt to America. This work explores the use of a time chart based on generations as a way to understand history. A sole reliance on yearly dating tends to obscure the historical reality and deter us from further exploration. However, patterns are revealed if we number generations and we become intrigued by the connections and hypotheses raised. The author uses 15-year intervals to date events and mark when people turn 30 and tend to enter history. The 15-year generational interval was first used by the medieval historian Bede and later advocated by Ortega y Gasset, a leading Spanish philosopher of the 20th century. In brief, the phases of history found are 1 A partly invisible beginning phase 0-15 generations 2 An establishment phase at 15-20 generations 3 A consolidating and opening up stage at 30 generations 4 A crisis and creativity phase at 40 generations 5 An empire and inclusionary phase at 50 generations and 6 Renewal or rigidification phase at the 60 generational node. Importantly, special attention is given to the often neglected 30th generational period in which an openness to beauty and light pervade. Interestingly, these phases also resonate with the human life cycle. The tour of cultures covered includes ancient Egypt, Israel, Judah, Rome, and the Medieval Modern. Taking us into contemporary times, America, United States is addressed in the second part of this work. You are invited to go on an intriguing journey in which generational patterning becomes a Rosetta key for understanding history.
