The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Edward Gibbon, 1867      The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire ... A new edition, etc. With maps Edward Gibbon, 1838      The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire. By Edward Gibbon .. A New Edition Edward Gibbon, 1797      The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire ... A New Edition Edward Gibbon, 1790      Descartes on Causation Tad M. Schmaltz, 2007-11-01 This book is a systematic study of Descartes theory of causation and its relation to the medieval and early modern scholastic philosophy that provides its proper historical context The argument presented here is that even though Descartes offered a dualistic ontology that differs radically from what we find in scholasticism his views on causation were profoundly influenced by scholastic thought on this issue This influence is evident not only in his affirmation in the Meditations of the abstract scholastic axioms that a cause must contain the reality of its effects and that conservation does not differ in reality from creation but also in the details of the accounts of body body interaction in his physics of mind body interaction in his psychology and of the causation that he took to be involved in free human action In contrast to those who have read Descartes as endorsing the occasionalist conclusion that God is the only real cause a central thesis of this study is that he accepted what in the context of scholastic debates regarding causation is the antipode of occasionalism namely the view that creatures rather than God are the causal source of natural change What emerges from the defense of this interpretation of Descartes is a new understanding of his contribution to modern thought on causation      Being and Knowing Armand Augustine Maurer, 1990      A Commentary on the Old and New Testament, etc Joseph SUTCLIFFE, 1834      *The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire ...
