Analyzing media coverage of the GERD negotiations. A comparison between Ethiopian and Egyptian perspectives Selam Mulugeta, 2024-03-08 Master's Thesis from the year 2021 in the subject Communications Journalism Journalism Professions grade A Addis Ababa University Language and communication course Journalism language English abstract This paper aims to shed light on the differences and similarities in the coverage of the Ethiopian Reporter Newspaper and Egyptian Ahram Online on the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam GERD tripartite negotiations between January and August 2020 By applying the theories of agenda setting and framing using both quantitative and qualitative methods this study provides an in depth analysis of media representation and its potential influence on public perception and policy This study examines the coverage of the GERD negotiations by the Ethiopian Reporter Newspaper and Ahram Online within a specific period in 2020 By using agenda setting and framing theories the reports were analyzed for their perspectives on legal technical developmental international and mistrust aspects A particular focus was placed on the different framings While Ahram Online preferred the internationalization framework to place the negotiations in a broader geopolitical context the reporter placed greater emphasis on Ethiopia's natural and sovereign right to its water resources The results show clear differences in the use of specific frames indicating divergent national interests and narratives It also highlights the importance of a cooperative media platform for Ethiopia Egypt and Sudan to reduce tensions and build trust between the people of the three countries The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society Debra L. Merskin, 2019-11-12 The reference will discuss mass media around the world in their varied forms newspapers magazines radio television film books music websites and social media and will describe the role of each in both mirroring and shaping society Visions of Zion Erin C. MacLeod, 2014-07-04 In reggae song after reggae song Bob Marley and other reggae singers speak of the Promised Land of Ethiopia Repatriation is a must they cry The Rastafari have been travelling to Ethiopia since the movement originated in Jamaica in 1930s They consider it the Promised Land and repatriation is a cornerstone of their faith Though Ethiopians see Rastafari as immigrants the Rastafari see themselves as returning members of the Ethiopian diaspora In Visions of Zion Erin C MacLeod offers the first in depth investigation into how Ethiopians perceive Rastafari and Rastafarians within Ethiopia and the role this unique immigrant community plays within Ethiopian society Rastafari are unusual among migrants basing their movements on spiritual rather than economic choices This volume offers those who study the movement a broader understanding of the implications of repatriation Taking the Ethiopian perspective into account it argues that migrant and diaspora identities are the products of negotiation and it illuminates the implications of this negotiation for concepts of citizenship as well as for our understandings of pan Africanism and south south migration Providing a rare look at migration to a non Western country this volume also fills a gap in the broader immigration studies literature The Oxford Handbook of Ethiopian Languages Ronny Meyer, Bedilu Wakjira, Zelealem Leyew, 2023-05-04 This handbook provides a comprehensive account of the languages spoken in Ethiopia exploring both their structures and features and their function and use in society. The first part of the volume provides background and general information relating to Ethiopian languages including their demographic distribution and classification, language policy, scripts and writing, and language endangerment. Subsequent parts are dedicated to the four major language families in Ethiopia: Cushitic, Ethiosemitic, Nilo-Saharan, and Omotic, and contain studies of individual languages with an initial introductory overview chapter in each part. Both major and less documented languages are included, ranging from Amharic and Oromo to Zay Gawwada and Yemsa. The final part explores languages that are outside of those four families, namely Ethiopian Sign Language, Ethiopian English, and Arabic. With its international team of senior researchers and junior scholars, The Oxford Handbook of Ethiopian Languages will appeal to anyone interested in the languages of the region and in African linguistics more broadly. Zantai (My Life Story) Dr. Assefa Belay Wondim, 2024-06-11 Born in Adwa, Tigray, Ethiopia, a semi-rural town with limited infrastructure but rich in history and culture, Assefa Wondim inherited his parents' legacy and used it to mold his children. Zantai My Life Story describes, among others, his birthplace, ancestry, upbringing, and how he raised his children, including how he viewed education for his children, his goals for them, the style of his parental control, his commitment to meeting his children's needs, and his involvement in his children's lives and activities. Also, the opportunities and challenges he encountered in life are described in the book. This book may bring nostalgia to those whose upbringing was in Adwa, the history, geography, culture, and their school life in that beautiful town. It may also give the young generation an insight into what Adwa looked like in the 1950s through the early 1970s. Spin Wars and Spy Games Markos Kounalakis, 2018-07-01 As most long-standing news outlets have shuttered their foreign bureaus and print operations, the role of GNNs as information collectors and policy influencers has changed in tandem. Western GNNs are honored for being untethered to government entities and their ability to produce accurate yet critical situational analyses. However, with the emergence of non-Western GNNs and their direct relationships to the state, the independent nature of our global news cycle has been vastly manipulated. In Spin Wars and Spy Games, Kounalakis uses his interviews with an expansive and diverse set of GNN professionals to deliver a vivid depiction of the momentous sea change in mass media production. He traces the evolution of global news networks from the twentieth century to now, revealing today's drastically altered news business model that places precedence on networks leveraging global power. This eye-opening narrative transforms our understanding of why countries like Russia and China invest heavily in their news media and how the GNN framework operates in conjunction with state strategy and diplomatic sensitivity. Profoundly meticulous and insightful, this seminal work on the current state of transnational journalism gives readers a first-hand look at how global media powers shape policy and morph the public's consumption of information. Politics and the Ethiopian Famine Jason W. Clay, Bonnie K. Holcomb, An investigation into the conditions of resettlement after the famine. The Ethiopian Labour Movement Samuel Andreas Admasie, 2025-08-04 This book offers a comprehensive history of the Ethiopian labour movement exploring the impact of trade unions and workers militancy from the 1960s onwards The author analyses the sharp variation in the orientation and vicissitudes of the labour movement over time and how these have affected labour conditions and wages Drawing from new data gathered through extensive archival research in Ethiopia and abroad this book is the first of its kind It presents new datasets on strikes unrest and wage levels shedding light on how capitalist labour and industrial relations have developed in Ethiopia Addressing a huge gap in the literature on African labour movements this book makes a significant contribution to debates on trade unionism workers agency and wage determination in peripheral capitalist settings and challenges existing assumptions through detailed investigation Ethiopian literature (in amharic)

Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2013-04-11 Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa First of all with about 75 million people it is the third most populous country in Africa Second it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and bordering Eritrea Sudan Kenya and Somalia with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa's leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia

A New Scramble for Africa? Sören Scholvin, 2016-03-03 Global energy consumption will increase rapidly in the next decades The discrepancy between demand and supply is worrisome within the old and new cores of the world economy Sub Saharan Africa meanwhile possesses vast potential for energy resources to be further exploited Whilst the Global North is a traditional player in the sub Saharan energy sector new actors from emerging economies especially China's state owned enterprises but also Brazilian Indian and South African giants have entered what appears to be a scramble for the largely untapped energy resources of the region This book is the first to bring together comparative perspectives on The strategies of state and non state actors involved in the exploitation of sub Saharan energy resources The potential and pitfalls of new forms of cooperation on energy southwards of the Sahara The domestic opportunities and challenges of the present energy resource boom Dynamics on the international level are brought together with local developments to provide up to date insights on the scramble for energy resources in sub Saharan Africa This book also advances a materialist approach applicable in geographical and political scientific research showing that much insight can be gained by concentrating on the material environment that shapes economic and political phenomena
