

The background of the slide is a photograph of the Zănești Face, a large rock carving of a human face on a cliff in Romania. The face is weathered and has a serene expression. At the top of the cliff, a small red cross is visible against the sky. The surrounding area is covered in green vegetation.

An Amusing Story About Romanian Etymology English Edition:

Routledge Library Editions: Historiography Various, 2021-06-23 The greatest problem in historical scholarship theoretically and practically is the relation between historians and their subject matter The past is gone and historians can only study its remnants On what basis do scholars select certain facts from the mass of data left from the past How do they explain the interrelationship of the facts they select What criteria do they use to evaluate their subject The 35 volumes in this set originally published between 1926 and 1990 discuss and answer these essential questions faced by historians The development of historical understanding during the 18th and 19th centuries was one of the most striking features of Western culture Both historiography and historical thinking advanced as never before The historical movement of the 19th century was perhaps second only to the scientific revolution of the seventeenth century in transforming Western thought One consequence was extensive organisation and professionalization of research which the volumes in this set reflect The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Intellectuals and the Articulation of the Nation Ronald Grigor Suny, Michael D. Bailey, 2018-05-02 Interpreting Immigration at Museums and Historic Sites draws from the collective learning of the forty museums and historic sites that make up the Immigration and Civil Rights Network of the International Coalition of Sites of Conscience Members of the Network have developed interpretive approaches that tap the power of place and history to open new dialogue on difficult subjects in a wide variety of contexts The title considers the questions How can museums use their collections and key stories as starting points for audience engagement around immigration past and present How can museums move beyond the we are a nation of immigrants narrative a narrative that does not resonate for all audiences How can museums make opportunities for safe open dialogue on immigration accessible to all stakeholders including both new immigrants and receiving communities Interpreting Immigration includes strategies for the design implementation marketing and sustaining of programs that help visitors use the lens of history to address contemporary immigration issues and provides Case studies from eight regionally diverse institutions including ethnic identity museums immigration museums and local history sites Piloted and evaluated immigration program designs including models for exhibit development art based interpretation school programs adult programs and neighborhood walking tours Audience building strategies A tested evaluation toolkit for measuring institutional success Lessons learned through the National Dialogues on Immigration Project a cross regional series of public programs designed to spark a national conversation on critical immigration topics like citizenship American identity border control freedom of movement and civil liberties This Is as Big as It Gets Michael R. Whitcomb, 2016-07-29 This book is fiction and could fill several niches in the marketplace Reluctant readers those learning English as a second language trivia buffs and fans of Beatles spring to mind This Is as Big as It Gets tells the story of two boys who meet and pair up with two girls The four of them then banter as they try to put the world to rights while coping with stepparents sexism abused parents sick parents a plague of rats death suicide and a terrorist attack but not necessarily in that order Interspersed with these dramas is an offbeat modern fairy tale told by one of the boys it is so well received that he decides to write a book His friends try to help him with ideas and they get sidetracked by idioms song lyrics jokes palindromes and trivia However the book is never penned not in this story anyway The entire text of the story is told using no words longer than four letters because it began life as a teaching exercise for primary school children in Australia The language is not your average American English and for that reason a glossary is attached by way of a translation from the Australian and English idioms and vocabulary that the story is punctuated with This Is as Big as It Gets will hopefully be followed by A Bit of This and a Bit of That and then to complete the trilogy Amen to All That The pattern of using no words longer than four letters in the telling of the story will continue Come On, Now! Irina Nicolau, 2002 Aromanians are Romanian speaking people located in the

Balkan Peninsula chiefly in Epirus and Macedonia Historically identified with the former Ottoman Empire a significant number of Aromanians now live in Romania itself Largely autobiographical this book is an account of the culture lifestyle and civilization of the Aromanian people by an ethnologist and social anthropologist of Aromanian origin Encyclopedia of Caves William B. White, David C. Culver, Tanja Pipan, 2019-05-10 Encyclopedia of Caves Third Edition provides detailed background information to anyone with a serious interest in caves This includes students both undergraduate and graduate in the earth biological and environmental sciences and consultants environmental scientists land managers and government agency staff whose work requires them to know something about caves and the biota that inhabit them Caves touch on many scientific interests in geology climate science biology hydrology archaeology and paleontology as well as more popular interests in sport caving and cave exploration Case studies and descriptions of specific caves selected for their special features and public interest are also included This book will appeal to these audiences by providing in depth essays written by expert authors chosen for their expertise in their assigned subject Features 14 new chapters and 13 completely rewritten chapters Contains beautifully illustrated content with more than 500 color images of cave life and features Provides extensive bibliographies that allow readers to access their subject of interest in greater depth Informal Nationalism After Communism Abel Polese, Oleksandra Seliverstova, Emilia Pawlusz, Jeremy Morris, 2018-03-20 Since the collapse of the Soviet Union nation building and identity construction in the post socialist region have been the subject of extensive academic research The majority of these studies have taken a top down approach focusing on the variety of ways in which governments have sought to define the nascent nation states and in the process have often oversimplified the complex and overlapping processes at play across the region Drawing on research on the Balkans Central Asia the Caucasus and Eastern Europe this book focuses instead on the role of non traditional non politicised and non elite actors in the construction of identity Across topics as diverse as school textbooks turbofolk and home decoration contributors each an academic with extensive on the ground experience identify and analyse the ways that individuals living across the post socialist region redefine identity on a daily basis often by manipulating and adapting state policy In the process Nation Building in the Post Socialist Region demonstrates the necessity of holistic trans national and inter disciplinary approaches to national identity construction rather than studies limited to a single state territory This is important reading for all scholars and policymakers working on the post socialist region History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2007-07-18 The third volume in the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe focuses on the making and remaking of those institutional structures that engender and regulate the creation distribution and reception of literature The focus here is not so much on shared institutions but rather on such region wide analogous institutional processes as the national awakening the modernist opening and the communist regimentation the canonization of texts and censorship of literature These processes which took place in all of the region s cultures were often asynchronous and subjected to different local conditions The volume's premise is that the national awakening and institutionalization of literature were symbiotically interrelated in East Central Europe Each national awakening involves a language renewal an introduction of the vernacular and its literature in schools and universities the creation of an infrastructure for the publication of books and journals clashes with censorship the founding of national academies libraries and theaters a re construction of national folklore and the writing of histories of the vernacular literature The four parts of this volume are titled 1 Publishing and Censorship 2 Theater as a Literary Institution 3 Forging Primal Pasts The Uses of Folk Poetry and 4 Literary Histories Itineraries of National Self images

Negotiating Linguistic Plurality María Constanza Guzmán, Şehnaz Tahir Gürçağlar, 2022-02-15 Cultural and linguistic diversity and plurality are seen as markers of our time linked to discourses about citizenship and cosmopolitanism in the context of economic globalization in the late twentieth century It is often monolingualism however that informs understanding and policies regulating the relationship between languages nations and communities Grounded by the idea of language as lived experience Negotiating Linguistic Plurality assumes linguistic plurality to be a continuing human condition and offers a novel transnational and comparative perspective on it The essays featured cover concepts and praxis in which linguistic plurality surfaces in the public sphere through institutional and individual practices The collection adopts a critical view of language policies and foregrounds distances and dissonances between policy and language practices by presenting lived experiences of multilingualism Translation seen as constitutive to the relations inherent to linguistic plurality is at the core of the volume Contributors explore a range of social and institutional aspects of the relationship between translation and linguistic plurality foregrounding less documented experiences and minoritized practices Presenting knowledge that spans regions languages and territories Negotiating Linguistic Plurality is a thoughtful consideration of what constitutes language plurality what its limits are as well as its possibilities

The Dancing Goddesses: Folklore, Archaeology, and the Origins of European Dance E. J. W. Barber, 2013-02-11 From Southern Greece to northern Russia people living in agrarian communities have long believed in dancing goddesses mystical female spirits who spend their nights and days dancing in the fields and forests In The Dancing Goddesses archaeologist linguist and lifelong folkdancer Elizabeth Wayland Barber follows the trail of these spirit maidens long associated with fertility marriage customs and domestic pursuits from their early appearance in traditional folktales and harvest rituals to their more recent incarnations in fairytales and present day dance Illustrated with photographs maps and line drawings the result is a brilliantly original work that stands at the intersection of archaeology and folk traditions at once a rich portrait of our rich agrarian ancestry and an enchanting reminder of the human need to dance

Globalisation, Migration, and the Future of Europe Leila Simona Talani, 2011-07-26 Showcasing an original interdisciplinary approach this text examines the effect of migration on the domestic politics of individual states and how they are eroding the distinctions between the domestic and foreign policy the inside and outside components of politics and law During the twentieth century the context in which migrants negotiate their integration within legal social cultural economic and political spaces changed significantly Drawing upon varied perspectives from the US UK France Germany Switzerland Russia and Italy among others this work develops a comprehensive understanding of the impact migratory networks are having on European societies It investigates the strategies of integration or discrimination which are developed in Europe by state institutions legal codes political movements and even immigrant communities themselves when confronted with the growing influence of migratory networks The result is a highly topical exploration of the political and legal dimensions of migration in the EU that develops new approaches to the issue of social integration and the exclusion of migrants and migrant communities Globalization Migration and the Future of Europe will be of interest to students and scholars of migration European studies globalization and International Law Teaching, Learning, and Other Miracles Grace Feuerverger, 2007 Award winning author Grace Feuerverger explores teaching and learning in schools as a sacred life journey a quest toward liberation Written for teacher educators who wish to make a real difference in the lives of their students this book speaks to everyone who finds themselves as she did on winding and often treacherous paths longing to discover the meaning and potential in their professional lives at school A child of Holocaust survivors Feuerverger wrote this book to tell how schools can be transformed into magical places where miracles happen In an era of narrow agendas of efficiency and control this book dares to suggest that education is and should always be about uplifting the human spirit

The Origins of Applied Micropalaeontology Michael Anthony Kaminski, Stanisław Geroch, Danuta Grzywacz Kaminski, 1993 Heritage Tourism Beyond Borders and Civilizations İnci Oya Coşkun, Alan Lew, Norain Othman, Gökçe Yüksek, Semra Günay Aktaş, 2020-06-29 This book gathers the best papers presented at the 11th Tourism Outlook Conference held in Eskişehir Turkey from 3 to 5 October 2018 Covering various aspects of heritage and its effects on tourism issues the contributions provide a multidisciplinary perspective on emerging issues and challenges in the area The book also analyzes both the tangible and intangible properties of natural cultural and historical heritage and how these relate to and influence tourism and evaluates the importance and role of heritage in tourism destinations and products By providing a platform for cross disciplinary dialogues that integrate research and insights from diverse geographical sectoral and institutional perspectives the book allows readers to gain a better understanding of heritage tourism Growing Up in Walltown, Italy Francesca Gobbo, 2021-01-11 Growing up in Walltown Italy presents an ethnographic account of the culture of early childhood education as it is constructed in two municipal schools a nursery and a childhood school of an Italian town explored through extensive participant observation and interviews of educators teachers school coordinators mothers and cooks and school staff After providing background information on Italian early childhood education the author describes and interprets the process of children's insertion into the world of the school as a passage whose ritual steps initially accompanied by a parent are carefully prepared by educators and teachers so that the passengers will successfully settle in and become competent members and participants of the respective educational communities The author focuses on the educational and cultural learning that children between six months and five years of age attain by exercising their agency capacity for communication interaction and responsibility and imagination in planned educational projects daily activities as the reading time and convivial appointments as meals The educators and teachers professional and personal engagement and care together with the collaboration of the other school people are thoroughly illustrated and their meaningful attention to and respect for children s pace of learning and participation are pointed out Romania In The 1980s Daniel N.

Nelson,2019-06-04 Among communist states Romania is in several respects a unique case Romania has been the only Warsaw Pact member to deviate consistently from Soviet foreign policy norms and alone within Eastern Europe to avoid oil imports from the USSR The leadership of Nicolae Ceausescu since 1965 has meanwhile governed through a studious commitment to socio economic centralization and control often reminiscent of Stalinist orthodoxy Intellectual freedom artistic liberty and workers rights have changed little relative to Poland Hungary or the transient Prague Spring Such international and domestic policy distinctions as well as a record of impressive industrial growth necessitate an effort to understand the dynamics of Romania s socio economic and political life This volume is meant to delineate trends in political social and economic life which will constitute dynamic elements for the Romanian system during the 1980s and beyond Contributors all scholars with lengthy research experience in Romania the Balkans and communist states generally have sought to identify factors likely to be influential during this and ensuing decades In that sense this is a predictive volume containing not crystal ball gazing but the careful identification and assessment of trends influencing Romanian foreign and domestic policies economic and political performance and societal transformations By suggesting elements crucial to socio economic and political change in Romania we hope to make observing this intriguing communist state somewhat less haphazard and more systematic
