An Artist's Life:

An Artist's Life Mary Whyte, 2025-10-14 The path to discovering and developing the artist within During her fifty years as an artist and teacher Mary Whyte has discovered that tapping our personal well of creativity and passion is the most important lesson much more so than how to paint an eye clouds or steam In An Artist's Life Whyte guides art makers and art lovers past stifling obstacles and self doubts to see the world with fresh eyes and create their most original and expressive work A touchstone for developing the habits we need to live our most creative inspired and meaningful life this is a transformative lifelong art lesson that artists of all kinds as well as non artists seeking a more creative and fulfilling life will return to again and again The book includes seventy of Whyte's acclaimed portraits and new never before seen works

American Artists On Art Ellen Johnson, 2018-02-20 From the Preface The fact that so much of modern art has devoted itself to the exploration and assertion of its own identity is reflected in but does not explain the increasing amount of writing and talking on the part of contemporary artists Rather the whole history of the changing role of art and artists in a democratic industrial and technological society stands behind the state of artists words and the public's hunger for them even some of the general public out there beyond art's little circle Statements by artists appeal somewhat the way drawings do they bring us or at least they hold the promise of bringing us closer to the artist's thoughts and feelings and to an understanding of his or her modus operandi they hold the keys to a mysterious realm And sometimes they offer us the sheer pleasure of good reading Such is the primary raison d'être of this book Its other motivation is educational and stems from the frustrating lack in teaching contemporary art of any single compilation of statements by American artists from 1940 to the present This anthology differs in several respects from those others that do include documents of American art since 1940 The selection I have made is devoted exclusively to statements of artists it is limited to the last four decades it presents in a single volume a representative and fairly comprehensive coverage of major developments in American art beginning with Abstract Expressionism and whenever possible it cites the first or among the very earliest documents signaling a shift in the definition intent or direction of art Twonism II (Thoughts, Essays, and Poems on Life and Art) Premium Paperback Edition Damon Freed, Art in America 1945-1970 (LOA #259) Various, 2014-10-09 Experience the creative explosion that transformed American art in the words of the artists writers and critics who were there In the quarter century after the end of World War II a new generation of painters sculptors and photographers transformed the face of American art and shifted the center of the art world from Paris to New York Signaled by the triumph of abstraction and the ascendancy of painters such as Pollock Rothko de Kooning and Kline this revolution generated an exuberant and contentious body of writing without parallel in our cultural history In the words of editor art critic and historian Jed Perl there has never been a period when the visual arts have been written about with more mongrel energy with more unexpected mixtures of reportage rhapsody analysis advocacy editorializing and philosophy In this Library of America volume Perl gathers for the first time the most vibrant contemporary accounts of this momentous period by artists critics poets gallery owners and other observers conveying the sweep and energy of a cultural scene dominated in the poet James Schuyler's words by the floods of paint in whose crashing surf we all scramble Here are statements by the most significant artists and major critical essays by Clement Greenberg Susan Sontag Hilton Kramer and other influential figures Here too is an electrifying array of responses by poets and novelists reflecting the free interplay between different art forms John Ashbery on Andy Warhol James Agee on Helen Levitt James Baldwin on Beauford Delaney Truman Capote on Richard Avedon Tennessee Williams on Hans Hofmann and Jack Kerouac on Robert Frank The atmosphere of the time comes to vivid life in memoirs diaries and journalism by Peggy Guggenheim Dwight Macdonald Calvin Tomkins and others Lavishly illustrated with scores of black and white images and a 32 page color insert this is a book that every art lover will treasure An Artist's Life in London and Paris, 1870-1925 Albert Ludovici, 1926 Living the Artist's Life Paul Dorrell, 2004 This is an engrossing yet practical guidebook for artists that has been endorsed by the Rhode Island School of Design and seven other major universities It was written by a successful art dealer Paul Dorrell who is also a novelist Dorrell is known for his compassion and writes in a style that resonates with energy and wisdom To view excerpts and all of the endorsements go to www.livingtheartistslife.com The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Assoc Prof Catherine Dossin, 2015-03-28 This book challenges the perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition In her transnational and interdisciplinary study Dossin analyses changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Catherine Dossin, 2016-03-03 In The Rise and Fall of American Art 1940s 1980s Catherine Dossin challenges the now mythic perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition Dossin reconstructs the concrete factors that led to the shift of international attention from Paris to New York in the 1950s and documents how peripheries such as Italy Belgium and West Germany exerted a decisive influence on this displacement of power As the US economy sank into recession in the 1970s however American artists and dealers became increasingly dependent on the support of Western Europeans and cities like Cologne and Turin emerged as major commercial and artistic hubs a development that enabled European artists to return to the forefront of the international art scene in the 1980s Dossin analyses in detail these changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors Her transnational and interdisciplinary study provides an original and welcome supplement to more traditional formal and national readings of the period Beyond Narrative Coherence Matti Hyvärinen, 2010 Beyond Narrative Coherence reconsiders the way we understand and work with narratives Even though narrators tend to strive for coherence they also add complexity challenge canonical scripts and survey lives by telling highly perplexing and contradictory stories Many narratives remain incomplete ambiguous and contradictory Obvious coherence cannot be the sole moral standard the only perspective of reading or the criterion for selecting and discarding research material Beyond Narrative Coherence addresses the limits and aspects of narrative dis coherence by offering a rich theoretical and historical background to the debate Limits of narrative coherence are discussed from the perspective of three fields of life that often threaten the coherence of narrative illness arts and traumatic political experience The authors of the book cover a wide range of disciplines such as psychology sociology arts studies political science and philosophy Tell Me Something Good Jarrett Earnest, Lucas Zwirner, Phong Bui, 2017-11-21 Since 2000 The Brooklyn Rail has been a platform for artists academics critics poets and writers in New York and abroad The monthly journal s continued appeal is due in large part to its diverse contributors many of whom bring contrasting and often unexpected opinions to conversations about art and aesthetics No other publication devotes as much space to the artist s voice allowing ideas to unfold and idiosyncrasies to emerge through open discussion Since its inception cofounder and artistic director Phong Bui and the Rail s contributors have interviewed over four hundred artists for The Brooklyn Rail This volume brings together for the first time a selection of sixty of the most influential and seminal interviews with artists ranging from Richard Serra and Brice Marden to Alex Da Corte and House of Ladosha While each interview is important in its own right offering a perspective on the life and work of a specific artist collectively they tell the story of a journal that has grown during one of the more diverse and surprising periods in visual art There is no unified style or perspective The Brooklyn Rail s strength lies in its ability to include and champion difference Selected and coedited by Jarrett Earnest a frequent Rail contributor with Lucas Zwirner the book includes an introduction to the project by Phong Bui as well as many of the hand drawn portraits he has made of those he has interviewed over the years This combination of verbal and visual profiles offers a rare and personal insight into contemporary visual culture Interviews with Vito Acconci Ai Weiwei Lynda Benglis James Bishop Chris Burden Vija Celmins Francesco Clemente Bruce Conner Alex Da Corte Rosalyn Drexler Keltie Ferris Simone Forti Andrea Fraser LaToya Ruby Frazier Suzan Frecon Coco Fusco Robert Gober Leon Golub Ron Gorchov Michelle Grabner Josephine Halvorson Sheila Hicks David Hockney Roni Horn House of Ladosha Alfredo Jaar Bill Jensen Alex Katz William Kentridge Matvey Levenstein Nalini Malani Brice Marden Chris Martin Jonas Mekas Shirin Neshat Thomas Nozkowski Lorraine O Grady Genesis Breyer P Orridge Joanna Pousette Dart Ernesto Pujol Martin Puryear Walid Raad Dorothea Rockburne Tim Rollins and K O S Robert Ryman Dana Schutz Richard Serra Shahzia Sikander Nancy Spero Hiroshi Sugimoto Sarah Sze Rirkrit Tiravanija James Turrell Richard Tuttle Luc Tuymans Kara Walker Stanley Whitney Jack Whitten Yan Pei Ming and Lisa Yuskavage Special thanks to Furthermore a program of the J M Kaplan Fund for their support of The Brooklyn Rail Barnett Newman Amy Newman, 2025-10-28 The definitive biography of a transformational American artist and the city that shaped him Barnett Newman 1905 1970 a founding member of the abstract expressionist movement was a contemporary of such figures as Jackson Pollock Willem de Kooning Mark Rothko and Clyfford Still He left behind only 118 finished paintings six sculptures and 83 acknowledged drawings yet is often regarded as the greatest painter to have emerged after the Second World War Barnett Newman is the definitive biography of a charismatic New Yorker who defied the rules and created an art of the sublime This landmark book features original research conducted over decades using scores of interviews oral histories and previously unseen correspondence to paint a richly textured portrait of a creative sage who became an exemplar of the artist citizen Born in New York to Polish Jewish immigrant parents he grandly aspired to involve himself in every detail of the city's life He was a crusader for the civil service ran against La Guardia for mayor worked as a teacher wrote poetry criticism and manifestos produced political plays and promoted other artists all before painting a mature work of his own in his early forties Newman began with none of the qualities once considered indispensable for a master artist such as training apprenticeship or natural facility But he possessed a galvanizing intellect and a conviction that aesthetic expression is an ecstatic declaration of existence and an assertion of human dignity Drawing on previously unpublished sources gleaned from full access to Newman's archives Amy Newman presents a portrait of a maverick whose works are among the most enduring of the twentieth century and whose influence continues to this day

The Reluctant Film Art of Woody Allen Peter Bailey, 2010-09-12 For three decades no American filmmaker has been as prolific or as paradoxical as Woody Allen From Play It Again Sam 1972 through Celebrity 1998 and Sweet and Lowdown 1999 Allen has produced an average of one film a year yet in many of these films Allen reveals a progressively skeptical attitude toward both the value of art and the cultural contributions of artists In examining Allen's filmmaking career The Reluctant Film Art of Woody Allen demonstrates that his movies often question whether the projected illusions of magicians artists benefit audience or artists Other Allen films dramatize the opposed conviction that the consoling life redeeming illusions of art are the best solution humanity has devised to the existential dilemma of being a death foreseeing animal Peter Bailey demonstrates how Allen's films repeatedly revisit and reconfigure this tension between image and reality art and life fabrication and factuality with each film reaching provisional resolutions that a subsequent movie will revise Merging criticism and biography Bailey identifies Allen's ambivalent views of the artistic enterprise as a key to understanding his entire filmmaking career Because of its focus upon filmmaker Sandy Bates's conflict between entertaining audiences and confronting them with bleak human actualities Stardust Memories is a central focus of the book Bailey's examination of Allen's art life dialectic also draws from the off screen drama of Allen's very public separation from Mia Farrow and the book accordingly construes such post scandal films as Bullets Over Broadway and Mighty Aphrodite as Allen's oblique cinematic responses to that tabloid tempest By illuminating the thematic conflict at the heart of Allen's work Bailey seeks not only to clarify the aesthetic designs of individual Allen films but to demonstrate how his oeuvre enacts an ongoing debate the screenwriter director has been conducting with himself between creating cinematic narratives affirming the saving powers of the human imagination and making films acknowledging the irresolvably dark truths of the human condition A Toolbox for Humanity Lloyd Albert Johnson, 2004 Compiled and arranged by Lloyd Albert Johnson A Toolbox for Humanity is a review of human thoughts and ideas This volume presents the thoughts and quotations of others These thoughts reach out to those who think about human tragedies and blessings Our ancestors took their turn at life It is our turn to imagine ourselves all those to come and what it is we share The Works of Leo Tolstoy ...: The life of Tolstoy, first fifty years, by Aylmer Maude graf Leo Tolstoy, 1929 Faulkner and the artist Donald M. Kartiganer, 1996 Correspondences Tim Ingold, 2020-10-20 We inhabit a world of more than humans For life to flourish we must listen to the calls this world makes on us and respond with care sensitivity and judgement That is what it means to correspond to join our lives with those of the beings matters and elements with whom and with which we dwell upon the earth In this book anthropologist Tim Ingold corresponds with landscapes and forests oceans and skies monuments and artworks To each he brings the same spontaneity of thought and observation the same intimacy and lightness of touch but also the same affection longing and care that in the days when we used to write letters by hand we would bring to our correspondences with one another The result is a profound yet accessible inquiry into ways of attending to the world around us into the relation between art and life and into the craft of writing itself At a time of environmental crisis when words so often seem to fail us Ingold points to how the practice of correspondence can help restore our kinship with a stricken earth Tonight We Improvise ; And, "Leonora, Addio!" Luigi Pirandello, Canadian Society for Italian Studies, 1987 T.P.'s Weekly, 1929 Lily Briscoe's Chinese Eyes Patricia Laurence, 2013-01-02 A map of the mutual influence of Bloomsbury the Crescent Moon Society and modernism in English and Chinese culture Lily Briscoe's Chinese Eyes traces the romance of Julian Bell nephew of Virginia Woolf and Ling Shuhua a writer and painter Bell met while teaching at Wuhan University in China in 1935 Relying on a wide selection of previously unpublished writings Patricia Laurence places Ling often referred to as the Chinese Katherine Mansfield squarely in the Bloomsbury constellation In doing so she counters East West polarities and suggests forms of understanding to inaugurate a new kind of cultural criticism and literary description Laurence expands her examination of Bell and Ling's relationship into a study of parallel literary communities Bloomsbury in England and the Crescent Moon group in China Underscoring their reciprocal influences in the early part of the twentieth century Laurence presents conversations among well known British and Chinese writers artists and historians including Virginia Woolf Vanessa Bell G L Dickinson Xu Zhimo E M Forster and Xiao Qian In addition Laurence's study includes rarely seen photographs of Julian Bell Ling and their associates as well as a reproduction of Ling's scroll commemorating moments in the exchange between Bloomsbury and the Crescent Moon group While many critics agree that modernism is a movement that crosses national boundaries literary studies rarely reflect such a view In this volume Laurence links unpublished letters and documents cultural artifacts art literature and people in ways that provide illumination from a comparative cultural and aesthetic perspective In so doing she addresses the geographical and critical imbalances and thus the architecture of modernist postcolonial Bloomsbury and Asian studies by placing China in an aesthetic matrix of a developing international modernism
