Clint Lanier

14 November Business Studies Paper 1 Memorandum:

Post-War Business Planners in the United States, 1939-48 Charlie Whitham, 2016-10-20 During the Second World War several independent business organizations in the US devoted considerable energy to formulating and advocating social and economic policy options for the US government for implementation after the war This planning community of far sighted businessmen joined with academics and government officials in a nationwide endeavor to ensure that the colossal levels of productivity achieved by the US during wartime continued into the peace At its core this effort was part of a wider struggle between liberals moderates and conservatives over determining the economic and social responsibilities of government in the new post war order In this book Charlie Whitham draws on an abundance of unpublished primary material from private and public archives that includes the minutes memoranda policy statements and research studies of the major post war business planning organisations on a wide range of topics including monetary policy demobilization labor policy international trade and foreign affairs This is the untold story of how the post war business planners of all hues helped shape the moderate consensus which prevailed after 1945 over a permanent but limited government responsibility for fiscal welfare and labor affairs advanced American interests overseas and established Ted Mack and America's First Black-Owned Brewery Clint Lanier, 2023-04-06 Born a sharecropper in rural Alabama in 1930 Theodore A Ted Mack Sr fought in the Korean War and then played football at Ohio State while earning a college degree Brewing and selling beer he believed would be just another peak to attain After all it couldn't be more challenging than his experience in organizing buses to the March on Washington or picketing segregated schools in Milwaukee This is the story of Mack's purchase of Peoples Brewing Company in Oshkosh Wisconsin Though he had carefully planned for the historic acquisition he underestimated the subtle bigotry of Middle America the corruption of the beer industry and the failures of the federal government that plagued his ownership Mack's ownership of Peoples Brewing is an inspirational story of Black entrepreneurship innovation and pride at a time when America was at an important racial justice crossroads Pacific Islanders Under German Rule Peter J.

Hempnall, 2016-06-01 This is an important book It is a reprint of the first detailed study of how Pacific Islanders responded politically and economically to their rulers across the German empire of the Pacific Under one cover it captures the variety of interactions between the various German colonial administrations with their separate approaches and the leaders and people of Samoa in Polynesia the major island centre of Pohnpei in Micronesia and the indigenes of New Guinea Drawing on anthropology new Pacific history insights and a range of theoretical works on African and Asian resistance from the 1960s and 1970s it reveals the complexities of Islander reactions and the nature of protests against German imperial rule It casts aside old assumptions that colonised peoples always resisted European colonisers Instead this book argues convincingly that Islander responses were often intelligent and subtle manipulations of their rulers agendas their societies dynamic enough to make their own adjustments to the demands of empire It does not shy away from major blunders by German colonial administrators nor from the strategic and tactical mistakes of Islander leaders At the same time it raises the profile of several large personalities on both sides of the colonial frontier including Lauaki Namulau ulu Mamoe and Wilhelm Solf in Samoa Henry Nanpei Georg Fritz and Karl Boeder in Pohnpei or Governor Albert Hahl and Po Minis from Manus Island in New Guinea

Historical Studies in International Corporate Business Alice Teichova, Maurice Lévy-Leboyer, Helga Nussbaum, 2002-07-18 This 1989 book is the sequel to Multinational Enterprise in Historical Perspective 1986 in which the same editorial team continues the historical exploration of a vital but often misconstrued commercial phenomenon The contributory essays each written by an authority in the field raise further questions on the idea of the firm on periodisation and on research and development and examine the international financial operations of worldwide corporate business With the aid of trans industrial and transnational comparisons the range of policies pursued by business and government is fully discussed Above all this discussion is extended to include the production of mass consumer goods and the areas of China Japan and Latin America All the contributions are based on original historical research undertaken in national and private bank and business archives in Europe the USA and Japan In their critical assessments and interpretations the authors are also able to combine economic theory with history

The Struggle for Change Marvin T. Chiles, 2023-12-28 A Black majority city with a history of the most severe segregation and inequity Richmond is still grappling with this legacy as it moves into the twenty first century Marvin Chiles now offers a unique take on Richmond's racial politics since the civil rights era by demonstrating that the city's current racial disparities in economic mobility housing and public education actually represent the unintended consequences of Richmond's racial reconciliation measures He deftly weaves municipal politics together with grassroots efforts examining the work and legacies of Richmond's Black leaders from Henry Marsh on the city council in the 1960s to Mayor Levar Stoney to highlight the urban revitalization and public history efforts meant to overcome racial divides after Jim Crow yet which ironically reinforced racial inequality across the city Compellingly written this project carries both local and broader regional significance for Richmonders Virginians southerners and all Americans

Soft Power and US Foreign Policy Inderjeet Parmar, Michael Cox, 2010-03-12 Soft power is the use of attraction and persuasion rather than the use of coercion or force in foreign policy This title features a chapter outlining views on soft hard and smart power and offers a critique of the Bush administration's inadequacies It gives the various insights in to both soft power and the concept of power itself

The Rocket Lab Michael G. Smith, 2023-05-15 The Rocket Lab Maurice Zucrow Purdue University and America's Race to Space focuses on the golden era of space exploration between 1946 and 1966 specifically the life and times of Purdue University's Dr Maurice J Zucrow a pioneering teacher and researcher in aerospace engineering Zucrow taught America's first university course in jet and rocket propulsion wrote the field's first textbook and established the country's first educational Rocket Lab He was part of a small circle of innovators who transformed Purdue into the country's largest engineering university which became a cradle of astronauts Taking a chronological and thematic approach

The Rocket Lab weaves between the local and national drawing in rival universities especially Harvard MIT Princeton and Caltech Also covered is Zucrow s role in the national project system of research and development through World War II and the Cold War At Aerojet he was one of the country s original project engineers dedicated to scientific technical expertise and the stepwise approach He made vanguard power plant contributions to the Northrop Flying Wing as well as the Corporal Nike and Atlas missiles among others Zucrow s work in propulsion helped to improve the country s arsenal of ballistic missiles and space launchers and as a teacher he educated the first generation of aerospace engineers This book elevates Zucrow and the central role he played in getting the United States to space The Rise of the Military Welfare State

Jennifer Mittelstadt,2015-10-12 This study of US military benefits offers a disturbing view of the armed forces as a high value target in political clashes over public assistance The Nation Since the end of the draft the U S Army has prided itself on its patriotic volunteers who heed the call to Be All That You Can Be But beneath the recruitment slogans the army promised volunteers something more tangible a social safety net including medical care education housing assistance legal services and other privileges that had long been reserved for career soldiers The Rise of the Military Welfare State examines how the U S Army s extension of benefits to enlisted men and women created a military welfare system of unprecedented size and scope In the 1970s widespread opposition to the draft led to the establishment of America s all volunteer army For this to succeed a new strategy was needed for attracting and retaining soldiers The army solved the problem Jennifer Mittelstadt shows by promising to take care of its own While the United States dismantled its civilian welfare system in the 1980s and 1990s army benefits continued to expand Mittelstadt also examines how critics of this expansion fought to roll back its signature achievements even as a new era of war began Business in the Age of Depression and War R.P.T.

Davenport-Hines,2013-11-26 First Published in 1990 This is the companion title to R P T Davenport Hines Capital Entrepreneurs and Profits This title responds to the little discussion surrounding the subject of business history The editor recognised that although the interpretation of business history has been wide the only distinguishing features was a dependence on often British business records which is reflected in the selection of volumes within this collection This title intends to present a list of searching and analytical and therefore more satisfying and instructive histories of British companies from which lessons can be learned Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center,1969

Research in Education ,1969 Arc of Containment Wen-Qing Ngoei,2019-05-15 Arc of Containment recasts the history of American empire in Southeast and East Asia from World War II through the end of American intervention in Vietnam Setting aside the classic story of anxiety about falling dominoes Wen Qing Ngoei articulates a new regional history premised on strong security and sure containment guaranteed by Anglo American cooperation Ngoei argues that anticommunist nationalism in Southeast Asia intersected with preexisting local antipathy toward China and the Chinese diaspora to usher the region from European dominated colonialism to US hegemony Central to this revisionary strategic assessment is the place of British power and the effects of direct neocolonial military might and less overt cultural influences based on decades of colonial rule as well as the considerable influence of Southeast Asian actors upon Anglo American imperial strategy throughout the post war period Arc of Containment demonstrates that American failure in Vietnam had less long term consequences than widely believed because British pro West nationalism had been firmly entrenched twenty plus years earlier In effect Ngoei argues the Cold War in Southeast Asia was but one violent chapter in the continuous history of western imperialism in the region in the twentieth century Resources in education ,1991 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1979 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Creating Connectedness Bjørn Gustavsen,Håkon Finne,Bo Oscarsson,2001-03-15 Using a workplace development program as source of experience the book deals with the development of innovation processes Since innovation means to explore the unique and the special to bring forth what does not yet exist each innovation process must in itself be an innovation The study explores the tools and activities needed to create such processes like dialogue networking coalition building and social partnership The authors report from the position of collaborative actors involved in the innovation process rather than external observers Papers and Proceedings of a Colloquium on the Effects of International Technology Transfers on U.S. Economy ,1974

British Rail 1974-1997 Terry Gourvish,2002-03-28 Britain s privatised railways continue to provoke debate about the organisation financing and development of the railway system This important book written by Britain s leading railway historian provides an authoritative account of the progress made by British Rail prior to privatisation and a unique insight into its difficult role in the government s privatisation planning from 1989 Based on free access to the British Railway Board s rich archives the book provides a comprehensive analysis of the main themes a process of continuous organisational change the existence of a persistent government audit perennial investment restraints the directive to reduce operating costs and improve productivity a concern with financial performance technological change service quality and the management of industrial relations and the Board s ambiguous position as the Conservative government pressed home its privatisation programme The introduction of sector management from 1982 and the Organising for Quality initiative of the early 1990s the Serpell Report on railway finances of 1983 the sale of the subsidiary businesses the large scale investment in the Channel Tunnel and the obsession with safety which followed the Clapham accident of 1988 are all examined in depth In the conclusion the author reviews the successes and failures of the public sector rehearses the arguments for and against integration in the railway industry and contrasts what many have termed the golden age of the mid late 1980s when the British Rail government relationship was arguably at its most effective with what has happened since 1994 National
